Recount Reconfirms Carpenter as Winner of House District 29's Alaska Republican Party Primary

SEPTEMBER 7, 2018, JUNEAU – A recount of the ballots from House District 29's Alaska Republican Party Primary reconfirms candidate Benjamin Carpenter has prevailed over candidate Wayne Ogle.

The bi-partisan State Ballot Counting Review Board and members of the State of Alaska Division of Elections recounted the votes, which showed a difference of 11 votes. Previous results showed a difference of 12 votes.

Final recount results are as follows:

1,374 votes for Carpenter

1,363 votes for Ogle

Observers for both candidates were present during the process.

The division has updated results on its website.

Recount results are final. Any dispute over the recount results will need to be contested in court.
