STATE OF ALASKA
Division of Elections
Office of the Lieutenant Governor

BALLOT ACCESS FOR PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY: The statutes of the State of Alaska do not provide for access to the Primary Election ballot for candidates for President and Vice President of the United States and Alaska does not conduct a presidential primary. Candidates for President and Vice President are only on Alaska's General Election ballot.

RECOGNIZED POLITICAL PARTIES: In order to have a candidate's name on the General Election ballot, the national committees of political parties which are recognized political parties in the State of Alaska (currently the Alaska Democratic Party, Alaska Libertarian Party, Alaska Republican Party and the Alaskan Independence Party) select their presidential and vice presidential candidates in a manner prescribed by their party bylaws. The recognized political parties are responsible for sending the Division of Elections their official certificate of nomination with the names of their respective candidates for Alaska's General Election ballot no later than the withdrawal deadline for the November General Election, which is the 48th day prior to the election.

LIMITED POLITICAL PARTIES: As an alternative, a group who has established status with the State of Alaska as a Limited Political Party can also submit names for President and Vice President for the General Election ballot. A Limited Political Party is organized specifically for the purpose of selecting candidates for electors of President and Vice President.

Limited Political Parties are governed by Alaska Statute 15.30.025, and a copy is enclosed for your review. To establish a Limited Political Party, a petition must be submitted to the Division of Elections at least 90 days before a Presidential General Election. That date is August 8, 2012 for the 2012 General Election. It must be signed by qualified voters of the State of Alaska equal to at least one percent of the number of voters who cast ballots for President at the last Presidential Election. The number of ballots cast for President in the 2008 Presidential Election was 327,341. Therefore, the number of qualified signatures required on the petition must be at least 3,273.

Enclosed is an application to establish a Limited Political Party in the State of Alaska, along with a sample signature page that can be copied and used to accumulate the appropriate number of signatures to establish the party. Each subscriber to the petition must provide their printed name, numerical identifier, signature, date of signature, and the address of each person signing the petition. The application, which includes the petition signatures, can be mailed to the Division of Elections at the above address.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATES: A person may also file as an independent candidate for President of the United States by filing a petition with the Director of Elections not earlier than January 1 of a presidential election year and not later than the 90th day before a presidential general election. That date is August 8, 2012 for the 2012 General Election. The petition must be signed by qualified voters of the state equal in number to at least one percent of the number of voters who cast ballots in an election under AS 15.30 for President of the United States at the last presidential general election. The number of ballots cast for President in the 2008 Presidential Election was 327,341. Therefore, the number of qualified signatures required on the petition must be at least 3,273. The petition must state that the signers desire the named candidate for President of the United States to appear on the ballot as an independent candidate for president at the next succeeding presidential general election.

In order to appear on the ballot, a candidate who has qualified for ballot status under AS 15.30.026(a) shall certify the following information to the Director of Elections on or before September 1 of the year of the presidential general election:

AS 15.30.026(b)

- (1) the names of the electors for the independent candidate for President of the United States, equal to the number of senators and representatives to which the state is entitled in Congress;
- (2) the name of a candidate for Vice-President, selected by the independent candidate; and
- (3) the name, Alaska mailing address, and signature of the candidate's state campaign chair, who must be an Alaska resident.

Enclosed is an application to file as an Independent Candidate in the State of Alaska, along with a sample signature page that can be copied and used to accumulate the appropriate number of signatures to establish the party. Each subscriber to the petition must provide their printed name, numerical identifier, signature, date of signature, and the address of each person signing the petition. The application, which includes the petition signatures, can be mailed to the Division of Elections at the above address.

Information for Write-in Candidates for President and Vice President in the 2012
General Election

GENERAL INFORMATION

To be recognized as a write-in candidate for the 2012 General Election, write-in candidates must file with the Division of Elections a Letter of Intent form. Write-in votes will not be counted unless the Letter of Intent has been filed. (AS 15.25.105)

For the November 6, 2012 General Election, the Write-in Candidates' Letter of Intent must be filed no later than November 1, 2012. [AS 15.25.105 (c)]

A write-in vote is the writing in of the candidate's name with the oval filled in next to the name. A blank space is provided for each race on the General Election ballot for this purpose. To be a valid write-in vote, the voter must write in the name as it appears on the Write-in Candidate's Letter of Intent or write in the last name of the candidate. Either way, the voter must mark the oval next to the candidate's name for the vote to be counted. [6AAC 25.070 (c)]

Following are the qualifications for the office of President and Vice President of the United States:

PRESIDENT / VICE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES: 35 years of age; a natural born citizen, and a 14-year resident of the United States.

In a presidential race, the President and Vice President run as a team, and one vote is a vote for the team. Space is provided for the voter to write in the names of choices for both offices.

The Division of Elections uses an Optical Scan and Touch Screen ballot tabulation system. Pre-printed stickers with candidates' names may not be used on the ballot. [6AAC 25.070 (a)]

The Director of the Division of Elections prepares all official ballots to facilitate fairness, simplicity, and clarity in the voting procedure, to reflect most accurately the intent of the voter, and to expedite the administration of elections. With respect to write-in candidates, Alaska law requires a provision to be made for voting for write-in candidates within each section of the official ballot of the General Election. (AS 15.15.030)

The candidate must check with the Federal Election Commission for financial reporting requirements.

A Letter of Intent (Form A34) is attached for your filing needs.

General Election

HOW WRITE-IN VOTES ARE COUNTED

Write-in votes are reported as a group in each race, combining votes for all write-ins.

The votes will be counted for each individual write-in candidate if the candidate has filed a Letter of Intent with the Division of Elections as required, AND the total of all votes cast for all write-in candidates for the particular office is:

- the highest number of votes received by any candidate for the office; or
- the total number of write-in votes in a race is the second highest, and the difference between the number of write-in votes and the highest votes received by a candidate is less than .5%

The Director of the Division of Elections will determine the time and place to count write-in votes if the above requirements have been met. (6AAC 25.085)
