Redistricting 2002

Explanation of the changes in House and Senate Districts in Alaska

Every ten years, after the federal census, the states must redraw their legislative election districts to make the districts equal in population. During the intervening years some districts have gained population and others have lost population. The process of drawing new election district boundaries is called redistricting. In Alaska, Article VI of the state constitution grants the power to draw new election districts to a five-member independent board.

The constitution permits only single-member districts, and specifies several other requirements: each house district is required to contain a population as near as practicable to the quotient obtained by dividing the population of the state by forty - the number of election districts; each house district must be compact; and each house district must contain an integrated socioeconomic area. Senate districts are composed of two contiguous house districts. Also, the U.S. Voting Rights Act requires that election districts must be drawn in a way that does not discriminate against minority voters.

On June 18, 2001, the Alaska Redistricting Board adopted a plan that established election districts for the decade ending in 2010. A number of lawsuits were filed against the plan. On February 1, 2002 the Superior Court ruled that districts 16 and 12 of the June 18 plan were unconstitutional. The state Supreme Court entertained petitions of review of that decision. It ruled on March 21, 2002, that in the board's June 18 plan, district 16 violated the compactness requirement, that deviations of population in the Anchorage - area districts needed to be reconsidered, that the deviation in district 40 was invalid, that district 5 was not compact, and that the board should reconsider districts 12 and 32. The court otherwise affirmed the orders of the Superior Court. On April 13, 2002, the board unanimously adopted an amended final plan, and on April 25, issued a revised proclamation. On May 24, 2002, the state Supreme Court upheld the final amended redistricting plan.

The redistricting plan requires that elections be held in 17 of the state's 20 senate districts this year rather than in 10 (or half) of the districts. The three senate districts not electing senators this year are Districts A, K, and T. Candidates are to run for election in all 40 house districts.

There is a long history of litigation in state courts over previous Alaska redistricting plans. Every plan since statehood has been challenged.

Please see the redistricting map as adopted and proclaimed in 2002 by the Redistricting Board. A table describing new and old house and senate districts follows.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS:

SERVICE ORGANIZATION(S) MEMBERSHIP:

Member, Alaska Private and Home Educators Association; Home School Legal Defense Association; Gun Owners of America; The John Birch Society.

OTHER:

From 1974 to 1985 I worked north of the Yukon River as an engineer's aide, driller, chucktender, powderman's helper, insulator, rigger, and form builder. I also worked on the hydrostatic testing, stringing, pipe support, culvert, chainsaw, and gas pipeline ditching crews. I was a foreman on well-head tie-ins, remedial welds, Haul Road guard rail, and bridge redecking crews. From 1982-1991, I flew float planes and ski planes for hunting and fishing lodges.

STATEMENT:

The incumbent voted to regulate the political speech of American citizens. "Congress shall make no law...abridging the freedom of speech."

He voted to require background checks at gun shows. All federal gun control laws are unconstitutional.

He voted to fund the National Endowment for the Arts. I will vote to eliminate unconstitutional funding of this pornographic art.

He voted to fund the training of U.S. military doctors overseas to kill unborn Americans. It's the duty of Congress to remove the crime of abortion from the jurisdiction of all federal courts, thus nullifying Roe v. Wade. A country that kills its own unborn children is a country without a future.

He voted to fund the United Nations with $582 million in "back dues." We need to sever our unconstitutional joint venture with the United Nations. The thousands of U.S. troops deployed overseas without a declaration of war can then be brought home to defend America. We need to get the U.S. out of the U.N. and kick that Trojan Horse full of terrorist regimes, communists, international socialists, and Anti-Americans off our shores.

Pledge of Allegiance: Those 2 judges should have been impeached by the House for contempt of the Constitution, convicted and removed from the bench by the Senate before quitting time.

Subsistence: Alaska's Constitution, which protects equal access for all, should never be changed so that it conforms to an unconstitutional federal law granting rural preference.

Senator Jim Dore will be a stalwart defender of the Constitution.

Illegally purged from USAF in 1986 by fascist criminals within the United States government.

STATEMENT:

I am running for U.S. Senate because corrupt, old-guard fascist politicians must be replaced by democratic leaders, like me, if the U.S. is to remain a great country and meet future challenges. A few of my major positions are:

Pro-Jobs - As Senator I will work to diversify Alaska's economy, encourage tourism and international trade, and open ANWR to exploration.

Pro-Choice - Privacy rights should be protected and increased, while the constitutional separation of church and state should be strengthened.

Anti-Fascist - Recent civil rights rollbacks must be reversed, secret police and military abuse of U.S. citizens must be strictly limited, and the punitive use of the mental health system against political prisoners eliminated.

Reform Health Care System - Provide greater access to more people at lower cost. Eliminate the punitive use of the mental health system against political prisoners.

Reform Military - Stop wasting money on the "Maginot Line in the Sky" known as National Missile Defense. Eliminate Cold War mentality and spending.

Institute Economic and Judicial Equity - Eliminate welfare for the wealthy and corporations. Insure federal judges are appointed based on merit, not their fascist proclivities.

Thank you for your vote on election day.

STATEMENT:

It is a great privilege to serve Alaska in the U.S. Senate. My goal is to work with all Alaskans to create opportunity, jobs, and a safe and secure future for our state.

Alaska continues to play a critical role in national defense. We must make sure our military forces are the best in the world. And we must care for those who have served.

Improved roads, airports, ports, and a strong communications network will provide an economic infrastructure for our state. I will continue to try to make sure Alaskans have the facilities to support our economy.

Alaska's resources can be developed safely and without harm to the environment. I will continue to work to allow exploration in the National Petroleum Reserve Alaska and ANWR.

Education for Alaskans means a brighter future. I have helped to get more support to the University and to make sure that federal education laws recognize Alaska's needs.

Improved health care is essential. I support a prescription drug benefit for Alaska's seniors. Telemedicine, the PET scan, and improved medical education, which I have supported, will bring the highest quality care to all Alaskans. I continue to support research into breast and prostate cancer, Alzheimer's, and other diseases.

I am also working to help Alaskan fishermen compete in world markets and to ensure that our fisheries are sustainably managed for the future.

"Do what's right for Alaska" continues to be my motto. I ask for your vote in this election.

OCCUPATION: Audio/video producer, citizens' rights

OTHER:

In leadership positions at AKPIRG, Oilwatch Alaska and Utility Watch, worked for constitutional, Native and consumer rights: helped stop BP monopolistic takeover of Arco while incumbent fought to increase British Petroleum stranglehold on North Slope oil.; preserved Alaskans' constitutional rights and helped defeat a 2000 constitutional amendment limiting citizen initiatives; helped stop 1999 and 2002 Permanent Fund raids.; helped prevent Matanuska Telephone Association takeover; helped block Matanuska Electric Association deregulation attempt.

Project director: built, signed-on KTNA, Talkeetna Community Radio, recorded Alaska Native Review Commission proceedings (working to empower Alaska Natives), 1984-1985; co- founded Chase Community Council; chaired regional community plan; KSKA Public Radio reporter and independent producer; started Radio/TV production course, Martin Luther King Career Center, Anchorage; in 1990-94 gubernatorial elections, secured and maintained Green Party ballot status; built energy-efficient straw bale home with wife of 18 years!

STATEMENT:

We need a Senator representing Alaskans, rather than Outside corporate interests. The incumbent supported BP's monopolistic Arco takeover. With diverse Alaskans, former Republican governors and the FTC, Sykes helped stop it. Phillips's purchase of Arco preserved needed competition.

We need to remove national energy policy from oil industry control. American energy security can be accomplished only through conservation and shifts to renewable fuels. Alaska can help America by building the All-Alaska Gas Line and providing leadership in developing renewable energy sources while keeping the Arctic Refuge intact.

The incumbent has avoided action to establish national comprehensive health care. I'll continue my long-term efforts to establish universal health care.

I'll continue working to exclude big money from politics and stop massive Outside corporate special interest money like that funneled to the incumbent. My campaign accepts donations only from Alaskans. I support rigorous reforms including public campaign financing.

Treaties like NAFTA and GATT, supported by the incumbent, stifle Alaska's ability to build a sustainable economy. We need to process raw resources into value-added products here, reducing Outside control over our economy.

I'll help stop unworkable, unneeded military projects like the "Star Wars" National Missile Defense System. Such pork only provides temporary Alaskan construction jobs - defense contractors make billions, filling the incumbent's campaign chest, and Alaska becomes a nuclear target contaminated with toxic waste.

For more information regarding many critical issues facing Alaskans, visit www.svkesforsenate.com

My public life has always served Alaskans - not Outside corporations.

Thanks for your support.

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:
Alaska Chair of the Libertarian Party, 1993-2001.

STATEMENT:

Whenever you ask the government to do anything, you transform what had been a financial, scientific, military, moral, or social matter into a political issue.

The program you propose will turn into one more Christmas tree on which every politician can hang his favorite pork-barrel boondoggle - and can use to sneak through his favorite scheme for controlling your life and money.

Government programs too often wind up doing the opposite of what their original supporters had expected. Look how programs to end racial discrimination have produced racial quotas, how federal programs to improve education have turned schools into laboratories for crackpot social theories, how "welfare reform" has greatly increased the cost of welfare, how "good works" to foreign countries have produced such ill will.

You don't control the government. Your dreams of what government can achieve are just that - dreams. They bear no resemblance to what government will really do if your program is enacted.

If government is going to do someone's bidding, is it likely to be your bidding - or that of people far more determined, far wealthier, and far more influential than you are - people who see the operation as a chance to further their own self-interest?

Libertarians are determined to reduce government to as small an entity as we can - where it can do as little damage as possible, and be used as little as possible for someone's gain at someone else's expense.

That's why I want to be your U.S. Senator.

Your continued trust and support has enabled me to serve as the Chairman of the House Resources Committee and now as Chairman of the powerful Transportation and Infrastructure Committee.

Next year, I will be leading the Congressional effort to reauthorize the massive TEA-21 highway funding program which will be extremely beneficial to Alaska.

In response to the terrorist attacks on September 11th, I have taken the lead in writing several important national security bills, including the aviation security bill, the port and maritime anti-terrorist legislation, the bus security bill and the pipeline safety and security bill. These will all play a key role in improving America's Homeland Security effort.

I also serve as the Vice Chairman of the House Resources Committee, which has jurisdiction over federal lands, fisheries, wildlife, energy and minerals, forests, and Native American issues. This session I was able to successfully include ANWR oil and gas development provisions in the House-passed national energy bill.

Alaska's future is one of unlimited potential. We have an abundance of natural resources, wildlife and the most beautiful lands in the world. By managing our resources wisely, we can provide for a healthy environment and a diverse economy - both for ourselves and future generations.

I have traveled the width and breadth of the United States by foot and bicycle; been employed as a math tutor, log peeler, swim instructor, and laborer; volunteered with the Boy Scouts, the Bureau of Land Management, Kahiltna Birchworks, the Alaska Bird Observatory, the Alaska Boreal Forest Council and others; learned to build a house; vigorously pursued a better understanding of community based economics and renewable energies; and begun to discover what it means to be part of a community. I've also managed four years of college study in mathematics, a year of training as a massage therapist and have undertaken establishing the Alaska Coalition for Sustainable Development, helping to create a viable long-term future in the state of Alaska. Other adjectives which may apply include mathematician, juggler, and musician.

STATEMENT:

Imagine vibrant communities, a robust economy, and a healthy environment. Imagine innovative public policies which steer economic and community development in a healthy direction while supporting the ability for people and communities to provide for themselves. Imagine an empowered citizenry, with meaningful access to government. Imagine a more democratic society.

If we choose to be leaders in the transition to a sustainable economy we will not only preserve Alaska's unique character and value, but create the opportunities which will be the foundation of our future.

In an industrial world dominated by harmful and abusive (unsustainable) practices, where people are subordinate to corporations, where economic development means missile defense contracts and privatized prisons, we need some signs of human hopefulness.

- We need wind towers - not missile silos.
- We need meaningful employment - not just jobs
- We need publicly funded elections, not corporate politics.
- We need to return the will of the government to the citizenry, where leaders like Jefferson knew it belonged!

Every person deserves the opportunity for a meaningful and fulfilling life. Strategies which address people's needs in this way would go a long way toward stemming the rising tide of violence, substance abuse and apathy which tear at the fabric of our communities.

Our labor unions, women's suffrage, the end of slavery and other hard won social victories should serve as historical reminders that to envision and work for a better future is never futile.

STATEMENT:

Members of Congress should be elected to represent their district for a limited number of terms. Not staying in office, infinitely, insulating themselves from the normal workaday world and becoming the permanent beneficiaries of political money. That is why I signed the Alaska Term Limits Pledge in 2000. The corporatists that want the country run in their own narrow interests as opposed to the good of society need long-term congressmen, which is why there is a debate over PAC-money (which I won't accept, except from the party campaign committees) and the campaign finance system overall.

This is why there is no ban on or labeling of genetically modified foods. This is why defense contractors can get the Congress to begin the militarization of space, which is akin to the Spanish Armada and the Maginot Line and counter to the spirit of the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty. This is why there is no national health care insurance.

In the words of John Kennedy, America will "oppose any foe to assure the survival and the success of liberty." - primarily, the job of the Armed Forces. Yet, our national policies should reflect our bond with all humanity. In this respect, we must veer away from Pax Americana globalism, but seek greater international cooperation to deal with the problems of weapons of mass destruction, poverty, disease and global warming. We can start by trying to get a worldwide consensus for an international council for nuclear disarmament, non-proliferation and inspection.

STATEMENT:

Alaska is a young state, where we share hope for a brighter future and a willingness to work to make it come true. I believe Alaska should always be a place to pursue a dream, build a career, enjoy God's bounty - and give something back to this Great Land.

But we risk letting this vision become a lost dream for future generations if we don't work together to keep it alive. That's why I'm running for governor - to keep Alaska a land of opportunity, hope and promise for all Alaskans, just as it's been for Nancy and me and our family.

Instead of resigning ourselves to economic decline and diminished hopes, I believe we must work together to:

- Face challenges in our fishing, timber and mining industries, and find solutions that fulfill the promise of statehood
- Build a world-class education system to keep young Alaskans home and attract others here, and build an economy offering them opportunities for rewarding careers
- Renew, enhance and expand our energy industries
- Encourage private enterprise and curb our dependence on government largesse
- Keep all Alaskan families strong, safe and healthy
- Abandon divisiveness, address subsistence and rebuild a united Alaska

While I'm honored to have served Alaskans for 22 years as U.S. Senator, I believe I can now do more to help us achieve these goals as governor. I ask for your support, so that together we can meet our challenges and renew the Alaska dream for a new century.

My roots in Alaska go back more than seven generations, to the Russian fur traders who arrived on Kodiak in the late 1790s and intermarried with the Native Aleuts and Alutiiq. I was raised in Ninilchik on the Kenai Peninsula, when Alaska was still a territory.

Our state's growth has been dramatic, but we must chart a new course if we are to assure a prosperous future. We need a new Administration with a different set of priorities to address today's challenges:

Budget - State government must learn to live within its means, rather than finding excuses to spend and tax more.

Economic Development - Building new transportation infrastructure and streamlining the regulatory process are among the changes we must make to create both new jobs and revenues.

Families - Many social burdens we face, such as welfare dependency, drug abuse, and crime are related to family breakdown. Strong families will do more to heal our communities than all the government programs money can buy. I support policies to strengthen families and increase parental rights. I support greater parental choice in education.

Fisheries - Thousands of Alaskans - including my own family - earn a living in the seafood industry, but our fisheries face grave challenges. State government must play a constructive role in protecting this valuable resource.

Military - Our military personnel make a huge contribution to our economy and culture. We must work to protect existing defense assets in Alaska, and attract new military investment, such as the strategic missile defense facilities.

Alaska is an amazing place and I hope will be when my grandchildren have grandchildren. I hope they will enjoy dog mushing, motorcycling or hiking as I do, and dance at traditional ceremonies while eating traditional foods.

STATEMENT:

I believe in Alaska and I want to help end the Republican/Democrat gridlock that prevents healthy development and resolution. I believe that Alaska can lead the nation in innovative community development rather than rank amongst the highest in violence, alcoholism, and economic disparity. We can do this by,

A Comprehensive Health Care Plan -to provide care to every man, woman and child. It is possible at no more (if not less the cost) than we spend now. As we have seen, band-aid solutions do not provide results. We can help reduce government by focusing on building healthy families rather than legislating "family values."

Education - as a priority. All public schools must be funded and schools made safer. Let's install Conflict Resolution programs rather than metal detectors in our schools. Build Alaskan pride and teach Alaska History.

Public Safety - that includes not only protection of citizens, but the protection of rights and fair application of the law. Private prisons erode accountability and due process and cost society more in the long run.

Supporting Local Industry - that develops value-added resources, builds sustainable Alaskan based industries, creates incentives, and hires Alaskans, including building an All-Alaska gas-line.

Windfall Equal Sharing Tax on Oil - that means the state receives a more equitable share of the profit from its own oil with no harm to the company.

Election Reform -that levels the playing field so that principles not capital helps elect a candidate. Greens do not accept outside contributions or "soft money."

Born in Ketchikan, my home village is Kasaan. I served 8 years on the City Council, and now sit on Kasaan's Tribal Council. I am the librarian for the village. I have a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from Central Washington State University, and currently study anthropology. Kasaan has always been a subsistence community. I have always lived the fishing, hunting, gathering and sharing way of life, and want to preserve that way of life for future generations of Alaskans.

STATEMENT:

Rather than moving the capital, we can make the capital more accessible, by video-conferencing for instance, from each community in Alaska.

Oil companies should be made to pay their fair share of the tax burden, since they take out 5 times as much profit as they bring into Alaska.

All who are dependent on the fishing, hunting, gathering and sharing ways of subsistence, deserve the wild foods in Alaska, not only those who are poor, rural, or Native. Food is a basic human right. "Dependence" means cultural, nutritional, economic, social need for the food animals and plants in our state and national forests and waters. There are needy urban people and veterans, elderly, widows, and disabled urban people who should also receive these foods, by proxy.

We need a more equitable distribution of state education funds, based on actual education costs, and ample funding for sanitation systems in rural Alaska, since Alaskans pay a high price due to diseases and infections resulting from poor sanitation.

We need Alaskan gas piped through and delivered throughout the state where it is feasible, in order for most Alaskans to receive this cleaner fuel, and the jobs this development creates. We should not export all of Alaska's gas resources. We need our own, for our own.

The closed primary works against true democracy. Closing it ignores our citizens' best interests. Freedom of choice means everyone has the inherent right to cross party lines. That constitutes a truly free and open electoral process.

I'm not going to stand on a platform of blowing my own horn or on credentialism, chest beating, or personality. But, I will take a stand on the issues, and that's what matters, because no one else will.

I'm an ordinary working person much like yourself. I have come to understand that the structure of government is no longer for people like you and me; but is a self-serving, self-sustaining, self-replicating, all-consuming and defecating bureaucracy that is designed to serve the needs of the bureaucrats and not us, be it simply to line their own pockets, or to install their own pet social engineering programs for us to live by. It's time to turn that around now!

You can start by making your vote count; not by supporting someone who is against what you want, but by supporting someone who is for what you want. By voting for a lesser of two evils, you only perpetuate an already corrupt system by giving it your support. The so-called two-party system is evil by its very nature, because it has become one party with two names, and is monopolistic; the difference being that this monopoly has armed enforcement agencies to make you live the way they want. Republicans govern like socialists. Democrats govern like communists.

It's time for a change. It's time to tell the bureaucrats to take a hike. It's time to take the future into your own hands. It's time for us all to reclaim ownership of our own lives.

Using the initiative process to reduce government and to promote freedom and personal responsibility.

STATEMENT:

These are issues that I will support as Lieutenant Governor:

Solving the Budget Crisis

- Enact a constitutional amendment that would prevent a state income tax and state sales tax from being enacted.
- Enact a constitutional amendment requiring all revenue bills to pass both the senate and the house of representatives with a super majority or a majority vote of the citizens.
- Shorten the legislative sessions to 60 days.
- Pass biannual budgets. Those years when the budget is being appropriated the legislature may pass no new bills but may only repeal laws.
- End government subsidies for all businesses.
- Privatize government-owned businesses.
- In lieu of a state income tax or sales tax, we should:

Sell much of the 106,000,000 acres of Alaska land owned by the State of Alaska to Alaska citizens. The proceeds of these sales would be used to pay for the cost of government.

Allow video gaming.

Decriminalize marijuana subject to local option. It should be taxed and regulated similar to alcohol, tobacco, and coffee.

Election Reform

- Allow citizens to vote and sign petitions using the internet.
- Eliminate closed publicly funded primary elections. Political parties that wish to nominate by primary should pay for the cost of the election.
- Prevent the initiative, referendum, and recall process from being further eroded. The people's right to petition the government must be protected.

That means a first class education system, good-paying jobs, opportunities to grow our businesses, quality affordable health care, safe communities, great recreational opportunities and personal freedom. Improving Education
Our top priority must be preparing our children and young adults for successful lives. We'll reduce class sizes in public schools, attract and retain quality teachers, and expand opportunities for college and vocational education so young people can build careers in Alaska.

Protecting the Permanent Fund
I pledge to protect the Permanent Fund dividend from any diversion without a vote of the people. Alaska's oil wealth has benefited our generation through the dividend and I'll make sure that wealth benefits future generations. That's why Republican Governor Jay Hammond is co-chairing my campaign.

Building Alaska's New Prosperity
We should create a climate where entrepreneurs and families can reach their dreams and flourish. I'll fight for livable wages, expanding job training, and hiring Alaska workers for Alaska jobs. I will insist on equal pay and worker safety laws.

Alaska's future is more than natural resources; it is Alaska's people. I am seeking to be your Lt. Governor to continue the prosperity our state enjoys.

My vision is for an Alaska with a sound financial future, excellent job opportunities for our children and grandchildren, and a quality of life that enriches citizens and makes them love our state as much as I do.

As Lt. Governor, I will support and work for:

- An honest, workable solution to close the fiscal gap.
- Full time, high-wage Alaskan jobs that contribute to the state's revenues.
- Quality public education.
- Efficient and cost-effective delivery of state services.
- Stable funding of public safety.
- Maintenance of Alaska's infrastructure.

For 31 years my wife and I have run our furniture manufacturing business from a plan. Alaska State government must also have a plan - one to close the fiscal gap and to create a stable economy for revenue generating job growth.

We need to begin with the sturdy foundation of a balanced state budget, the efficient and cost-effective delivery of state services, good use of Alaska's assets, and a fair and equitable tax policy. Any modification to our current tax policy must involve all Alaskans and Alaskan businesses.

To fuel our economy, we need a sound financial plan that ensures sustainable revenues. With the financial plan in place, Alaska will be positioned to promote economic development and create continued prosperity.

I respectfully ask for your vote. Thank you.

STATEMENT:

While the other parties struggle for workable solutions to Alaska's Fiscal gap, the Republican Moderates have proposed a clearly workable plan to balance our state's budget. It doesn't require cuts in dividends and services or new taxes on you.

Education for all of Alaska's children and other programs crucial to our well-being would be adequately funded without difficulty for the foreseeable future using the revised funding formula proposed by the Moderates.

Other things we should be doing include encouraging mineral exploration, stabilizing prices for commercial fisheries, developing a better marine highway system and expanding our railroad to the lower 48.

Subsistence is important to Alaskans of all walks of life. We need a solution that is inclusive and regains State control of fish and game.

Tourism is our third largest industry and our state parks need to be open for business.

Republican Moderates favor an open tolerant government; we are best described as moderately conservative on fiscal issues, moderately liberal on social issues.

The Republicans closed your primary. The Republican Moderate Party is taking the issue to court to stop the Republicans from closing it again.

You can get more of the same by voting the Republican's back in OR, If you value your personal liberties, vote Republican Moderate in November. Regardless of whether I win, Moderates are likely to win seats in the Legislature this year and, if I get 3% in the general election, the Moderates will continue to be a recognized Party and change Alaska's future.

Currently, arrogant politicians adhere to rigid platforms that represent their parties but not the people. The Republican Moderate Party does NOT have a platform. Republican Moderates are allowed to and do differ in opinion. However, we are all committed to integrity and to upholding individual rights and freedoms. The Republican Moderate Party is not for sale to big oil or special interests. Republican Moderates are neither conservative nor liberal. We are middle-of-the-road everyday people who use common sense and basic smarts to evaluate issues and solve problems. We are Alaskans for Alaska.

I believe in maintaining an efficient and compassionate infrastructure. I also want government out of my face, my pocket, and my bedroom.

Dividends - Yes!

Taxes - No! (unless you're an oil company)

Subsistence - Let the voters decide!

The Budget - The Republican Moderate Party has a proposal that, clearly and painlessly, balances the budget.

STATEMENT:

It has been an honor serving 93 communities these past ten years as your State Senator. Under the new redistricting plan, I am running for Senate seat "C", representing 147 communities. The Southeast Island House District has been added to our Senate area.

Representing such a large area will be challenging, however, with your input and a fine-tuned communication network we can overcome these great distances. I've never taken your vote for granted and I will continue to work hard on the issues you convey to me on behalf of yourself and your community.

A strong and positive vision for Alaska's future generations, our children, is evermore critical with declining revenues and the majority-led legislature unwilling to address a long-range fiscal plan.

As your Senator, I shall work for quality education to prepare our children for the future, improved public safety and health, economic and resource development through local planning and implementation, and a resolution to subsistence, which protects the rural priority.

Again, thank you for your vote reflecting the trust you have shown in my leadership for the past ten years.

I believe I am a positive role model for our youth and will continue to represent you with respect, responsibility and results.

Subsistence

The federal government needs to be taken out of fish and game. Predator control of wolves and bears when applicable, there should be a Max sustained yield program in place with co-management.

Development

More exploration of resources, Limestone, Copper, Silver, Diamonds, iron ore, lead, gold, antimony, oil, gas, and coal. Initiate programs to maintain a sustainable yield timber industry. Promote fish, shrimp, kelp, scallop, clam, oyster, and marketable aquatic industries. Develop oil and gas to lower power cost.

Education

If vouchers are made available, the money goes to the institution. Expand charter schools. Create a revenue endowment fund that is based on the concept of the Alaska dividend program, but is off limits to political money manipulation. Increase the school funding formula.

State Government

Privatize areas of the transportation department that are in remote locations. Cap the growth of State Government at 2% creating a saving of 1.5% over inflation. Merge the redundant programs together to lower the cost of government to Alaskans. Promote a leaner smarter government.

Revenue

No state income tax or state sales tax should be enacted without the vote of the registered voters of Alaska! Increase resource development in order to maximize royalties to the State of Alaska.

Permanent Fund

No raiding and no flat line dividend. Reduce the size of government in a safe manner. Keep inflation proofing intact. The size of government will not be smaller if you feed it with Permanent Fund dollars!

STATEMENT:

In my two terms, I have represented the largest House District in the nation, encompassing 209,406 square miles. This is over one third of our great state. Now with the advent of redistricting, I seek to present an even larger land district with even more diverse economic and cultural needs. It is a challenge, but one I consider with heightened responsibility.

Over the last two years, over $140 million in capital projects was appropriated for our district, including basic amenities like water and sewer projects, and deferred maintenance and construction of schools. Funding of the Power Cost Equalization (PCE) program was maintained.

With the vast wealth of our great state, we have opportunities like no other. Alaska must identify economic and resource potentials in the state. We need transportation corridors to access and support resource development. Pressing for and investing in alternative means of energy, such as natural gas and electrical interties, to bring affordable energy to residents and allow for industry in rural communities is a priority. We need to promote and support advanced job training programs and create a strong Alaska work force. These investments will provide jobs and economy for future generations.

Education continues to be a top priority. During my tenure, we gained school funding increases, efficiencies and encouraged accountability in student, teacher, and parent roles.

My commitment to Subsistence is and remains: Subsistence yesterday, Subsistence today, and Subsistence tomorrow.

Please feel free to contact me to share your thoughts on issues of concern to you.

STATEMENT:

Alaskans have good reasons for optimism. A prosperous future lies just over the horizon. Prosperity doesn't just happen. It's the result of right decision making and hard work by courageous leaders and Alaska citizens. Recent reports of our struggling economy and education system are good cause for concern. We can't just produce more graduates than there are jobs available. And our schools must provide excellence rather than excuses.

Many have recently engaged in discussions about income taxes or raiding the permanent fund dividend program as if somehow taking your money away will be good for you. That's just nonsense. First, Alaska families are having a hard enough time and their money should stay at home rather than being sent to or kept in Juneau. Second, our economy is struggling as it is and an income tax will slow it down even more. My Democrat opponent was the architect of last session's income tax bill that was thankfully rejected by the Republicans in the State Senate. That tax was directed right at working middle class Alaskan families. If it had passed, you would be deciding right now how you were going to get by on less money. I believe the State should raise your standard of living rather than raise your taxes. If and when we need more money to pay for state government, we need to look someplace other than your family checkbook to do it.

I'll provide leadership - not taxes. I'll work for opportunity - not increased government spending.

STATEMENT:

The Senate Needs Moderates

As a member of the House, I've worked on bipartisan solutions to Alaska's problems, only to see them scuttled in the Senate by extremists. The Senate needs more moderates. My values are traditional: I think ahead, work hard, and play fair. Working for consensus, I can help balance the Senate.

Davies Co-chair of Fiscal Policy Caucus

In an election and redistricting year, a balanced budget plan seemed impossible. As co-chair of the Fiscal Policy Caucus, I helped the House pass a bipartisan plan that filled over 90% of the fiscal gap. The Senate failed to adopt a fiscal plan and set us on course to wipe out our rainy-day savings account and kill the dividend program.

Let's Get Going!

Alaska needs more valued-added business opportunities. University of Alaska research is a significant industry; however, it could be much larger. Let's turn our location into an advantage by further developing tourism, global shipping, and satellite communications and control. We can develop our workforce and infrastructure so the private sector can flourish in new ways.

Government has an essential role: educating our children, retraining workers, and encouraging healthy families. It builds and maintains critical infrastructure, like power lines and roads, provides for public safety and health, and fosters quality of life with such amenities as parks, libraries, public broadcasting, and the arts. These are not extreme expectations. They are normal and rational. I will bring a moderate and positive voice to the Alaska Senate. Let's get to work!

STATEMENT:

The past two years that I served in the 22nd Alaska State House of Representatives were highlighted by a difficult last session. That session forged me into a legislative veteran who is positioned for even greater leadership roles in the House.

As the vice-chair of the committees on Resources, State Affairs, Legislative Budget and Audit, and Oil and Gas (where I was also acting chair for much of the session), I carry into the next legislature a broad base of experience and statesmanship.

I achieved the passage of ten bills into law, mainly designed to stimulate economic development. The amount required to complete the Chatinika/Steese Electrification was secured by my initiative. Much remains, especially privatizing state land.

Two years ago, the fiscal regime, including the stock market, was far different than it is today. It is necessary to recognize these dynamic changes and take responsible action in the best interest of my state and constituency.

My basic beliefs and priorities have changed little in two years. State's rights and both Federal and State constitutions still dominate my beliefs.

PRIORITIES:

Efficient and Accountable Government: Control state spending, Protect the Permanent Fund, Results-based philosophy

Economic Enhancement: Alaskan Hire for Alaskan Jobs, Proper resource development, Regulatory reform, Promote tourism in Interior Alaska, Stable taxing policy, Transportation infrastructure

Education: Build a strong, quality University of Alaska, Support vocational/technical education

STATEMENT:

The legislative process works best when members of all parties discuss issues in open public meetings, and find solutions that all sides can live with. I am middle-of-the-road. My skills in communicating with people of divergent views have been honed by leadership on the Borough Assembly and Alaska Municipal League.

We need a balanced budget and stable tax policies, forward-looking support of schools and University, properly maintained highways and parks, and efficient public services. New business is attracted by this kind of environment.

After public safety, the most important job of state government is education, because the future of our state depends on the youngsters now in school. They will be our new leaders, doctors, business owners. To me, education reform means we will organize our schools and train our teachers so that every single child learns the basic skills - there is no place in our society any more for incompetents.

But no-fail schools will cost money, and a lot of help from parents and community members. We must find the seed money to make the changes in existing schools, create alternative schools, and provide voluntary programs for at-risk children before they even enter kindergarten. And we must continue to improve health services for pregnant women and small children.

Alaska's resources (fish, game, minerals, wilderness) must be developed carefully, so that present citizens can enjoy them to the maximum, while protecting their existence for our descendants.

STATEMENT:

I am at a time in my life where I can direct my talents and energy toward expanding Alaska's potential. I see too many good kids in rural Alaska poisoned by alcohol and drugs. We must provide a quality educational system that promotes a brighter future. It concerns me that Alaska's children are leaving this great land because we don't produce enough good paying jobs. I also believe we can improve the conditions for our elders in Alaska.

I arrived in Alaska in 1964 to help rebuild after the great earthquake. Since that time, I have helped build communities throughout Alaska as a Registered Professional Engineer and Land Surveyor. I have been an active Life Member of the NRA for over 40 years. I have public service experience on the Rosie Creek Road Service District, Big Game Professional Services Board, Fairbanks Fish and Game Advisory Committee and as a youth and adult coach for the Arctic Winter Games Shooting Team. Judy and I attend the Door of Hope Church and have been Home Fellowship Leaders organizing the weekly prayer, fellowship and worship meetings.

I have built a reputation as a problem solver. I like to take on the hard jobs others avoid. I look forward to applying my extensive knowledge of Alaska's resources and people to nurture a sustainable future for all Alaskans.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS:

STATEMENT:

The government is over-exceeding its constitutional powers and in state government the individual representation should be heard as an equal with special interest groups. The government likes to use things like FEMA and other state and federal programs to help the ills in society at the same time conversely putting in excessive and unconstitutional controls. I have worked many years both as a citizen and as an elected official fighting socialism and trying to show others the American Constitution is a way of life and the keys to freedom. The state constitution supports petitioning powers from the people and says these powers may not be denied by state government. Somehow the government seems to circumvent this part. It is my goal to publicly repair this problem.

The first time I was elected to public office I made a statement that being an elected official is like a frog in a frying pan. You turn up the heat very slow pretty soon you're cooked and don't know it. Nobody will cook me. The constitution lives.

The people in the State of Alaska have clearly sent a message to the government which says "Hands off the dividend" and they keep trying to take it anyhow. (What we have here is a failure to communicate.) I will work hard for you and repair their communicator!!!

STATEMENT:

The strength of Alaska relies on healthy families and a robust economy. Alaska must develop new fiscal strategies to forge a viable economy yet still provide the high quality education and public services citizens want and deserve. Adoption of a long range fiscal plan is crucial for a stable future. A responsible fiscal plan must represent the broad spectrum of interests in our state community.

The Republican leadership in the current legislature has overlooked its commitment to the diverse nature of our state. They have also set a bad example when it comes to keeping the public process open. I am committed to representing the communities of Fairbanks and the Interior and returning to an open public process.

I also support the following positions:

Education: I will work to inflation-proof the school funding formula to retain quality teachers and provide quality classrooms.

University: I support funding the University Regents' requested budget level to sustain programs and new initiatives that keep Alaska growing.

Natural Gas Pipeline: I will promote a natural gas pipeline through the Interior to provide long-term jobs.

Alaska Families: Families are healthy and strong when they have good jobs with health benefits. I support Alaskan jobs and I am pro-choice.

SERVICE ORGANIZATION(S) MEMBERSHIP:

STATEMENT:

The biggest issue facing Alaska is a serious budget gap. I support former Governor Jay Hammond's plan for a diversified tax base and protecting Alaska's Permanent Fund Dividend. I oppose "across the board" budget cuts, like the recent highway maintenance cuts, which disrupt essential services. Cuts, where necessary, should be carefully planned to continue essential services.

District E residents are hard working people trying to make a better life for their children. Education is an important part of that effort. I strongly support our school district and University. Recently, the Legislature has disrupted education programs by using one-year grants to increase education funding. I prefer forward funding and increasing formulas to stabilize education programs. I support the State school board's recommendation to review and revise the poorly planned school-testing program enacted by the current legislature.

I support full funding of revenue sharing and municipal assistance to provide property tax relief. Our current legislature has funded these programs at historical lows, which has increased pressure to raise local taxes or cut essential municipal services like roads, garbage, police and fire. I would work with our city officials to maintain essential services within the Fairbanks tax cap.

When Fairbanks privatized its utilities, we were promised state regulatory oversight to protect consumers from unwarranted rate hikes. I support the recent decision by the Regulatory Commission of Alaska to deny the 15% hike in Fairbanks water and sewer rates, and will oppose efforts to weaken the Commission's ability to protect Fairbanks utility rate payers.

STATEMENT:

My family, my business, and involvement in my community have taught me that to be successful in our legislature, I must:

1) continue to recognize the value of each Alaskan as an individual, 2) listen to all sides of an issue, 3) first have a plan and then the patience to see it through, 4) struggle for a vision to see beyond tomorrow, and 5) to be honest and fair.

My message to the residents of Fairbanks is one of optimism and hope for my hometown and for our great state. I openly promise to those who chose to entrust in me this honor of representation, to continue to work hard at bringing common sense, civility, and compassion as I am privileged to participate in setting the priorities of our state.

My priorities are to keep government at it's absolute minimum while recognizing the true needs of our state as: a) public safety, b) job creation, c) education, d) sound fiscal management, and e) a shared vision of "one Alaska" that is grounded in unbridled pride in, and a common respect for, our state and for each other.

As your state senator I will continue to make important to the legislature what is important to the people I represent. I will strive to be a statesman rather than a politician as I always remember lessons learned from my pioneer parents that hard work and commitment are everything.

Hands-on experience and commitment as subsistence potter, teacher and rural consultant favors a community-based, value-adding economy. Natural science study and post-grad research have built analytical skills & understanding useful for today's legislative complexity; and tenured faculty duties brought experience in cooperative effort, committee action, and large group deliberations.

As a person raised in China and experienced in village development both in Mexico and the western coast of Alaska I rely on the rewards of cross-cultural exchange.

These personal strengths are focused politically through the local Green Party of Alaska. In contrast to other Parties, this grassroots, "trickle-up" organization is uniquely founded on a web of values - "10 Key Values": Grassroots Democracy, Respect for Diversity, Personal/Social Responsibility & Social Justice, Global Responsibility, Non-Violence, Post-Patriarchal Values, Community Based Economics, Ecological Wisdom, Decentralization, Future Focus.

These are reference for members' conscience and lead, by a formal consensus process, to the Green Party's declared positions. The disciplined consensus process depends on members' developing skills in listening, dialogue, & respect. The Party moves beyond conventional war-like "politics" and citizens should join in before labeling the effort.

ELECTION REFORM-- IRV/Preference Initiative(#99PVRT) will permit everyone's vote of conscience - backed by 2nd, or 3rd, tally of their "practical" preferences - a guaranteed majority by single election.

PEACEABLE ACTION - Meeting Social Challenge will bring "Security", not War-like Power Politics.

A SUSTAINABLE FUTURE - Local Stewards, Local Enterprise, Local Control, Energy Efficiency & Conservation. Long Range R&D. "Pay as you go".

STATEMENT:

Education:

Educating Alaskans is my highest priority. From K-12, to Vocational-Technical and University training, I want to provide tools for Alaskans to be competitive for the best jobs. As a legislator the last two years, I helped increase funding for education to its highest levels in over a decade.

Sustainable Economic Development:

The state's dependence on the oil industry is unpredictable and unreliable. I worked tirelessly to diversify our economy by providing Alaska communities the economic tools to compete with lower 48 states for new businesses by introducing HB 36, Enterprise Zones. As your legislator, I will continue to promote natural resource development and advocate for a gas pipeline that goes through the Interior. My responsibility to the men and women of Fairbanks is to help them gain opportunities to earn a wage that allows for more than paycheck to paycheck survival.

Long-term budget plan:

Just like a business, the state needs a plan balancing revenues with expenses. Not addressing Alaskans current budget crisis is both poor public policy and a recipe for disaster. As a member of the fiscal policy caucus, I worked to develop a long-term budget plan that provided for a balanced budget and maintained essential state services.

Permanent Fund:

The permanent fund dividend is vital for the state's economy. I worked to protect the dividend program by voting for a long-range fiscal plan. Without a long-range plan, the permanent fund dividend will be eliminated.

STATEMENT:

I was privileged to grow up in Fairbanks where our family homesteaded some land, and built a business with hard work and the support of neighbors like you. I want to serve in the legislature to ensure that our children and grandchildren have that same economic freedom and personal liberty. Keeping that pioneering spirit of our forefathers is the future of Alaska.

Private land ownership has been the pillar of economic development throughout history. Today just 1% of Alaska is in private hands; we must change that. We need responsible resource development and jobs that will require a private sector economy that is not crippled by over-regulation. To facilitate this growth, we must open up Alaska to development by building roads and railroads.

I realize the need for balancing the state budget, but I also realize that we must provide for our children's education, care for our elders and maintain necessary government functions. We can have both if we look for cost effective solutions and hold the government accountable for how they spend our resources.

With redistricting, Interior Alaska has lost a House seat. We must make sure that Fairbanks has a strong and unified voice in the House majority. My roots and my family's future are here in Fairbanks. I will appreciate your vote to represent you in the state legislature.

STATEMENT:

The future of Alaska must be considered and planned for today. Our future can be, and must be prosperous and optimistic, but will be only if we:

- Create and maintain a business climate which allows existing industries to grow and expand, and new industries to seek opportunities
- Require effectiveness and efficiency from state government
- Balance the state budget on a sustainable basis and,
- Demand the finest system of higher education possible and then be willing to pay for it.

These are goals that must be vigorously and relentlessly pursued by the legislature, and the administration.

Additionally, a bond of trust must be maintained between our government and the people of Alaska. For too long the institution of state government has been perceived and criticized as being cumbersome and self-serving. We Alaskans must demand that our government and our legislators be responsive to our needs.

We should be optimistic. Our future can be bright and prosperous. We have an enviable array of opportunities; and solutions are at hand to deal with our challenges. As we ponder our future, we should consider and vote for candidates who put integrity and honesty above all else, and who understand economic reality and then are willing to make difficult, bold and wise decisions. Spend your votes carefully; our future depends on it.

STATEMENT:

It is time for leadership that will work to empower rural Alaska, not shut it down. Our senator must understand that leadership is not a luxury to be won, but a burden to be carried. It is important for you to know that I will protect your rights as Alaskans and U.S. Citizens, starting with the right to subsist. Subsistence is a way of life for many of us. We will work to protect this long tradition. As we look to develop infrastructure and economics in our rural areas, we must also strongly protect the habitat that sustains our subsistence resource.

We will also support strongly the right for law abiding Alaskans to carry and own fire arms. This right should not be infringed upon by any agenda. I see the second amendment very simply, you have the right to bare arms.

We will work toward protecting the way we, as Alaskans, share in the wealth of our natural resources. The permanent fund if protected in Alaska's Constitution can be the source of great wealth for all Alaskans. Looking at where we invest the permanent fund and finding more ways of investing it here at home are ways that the permanent fund can serve Alaskans better.

If we as a community come together we as a community can solve our problems. It is time to stand behind leadership that moves us toward this goal and remove ourselves from partisan politics.

STATEMENT:

Alaska is transitioning through an important point in its development and the decisions made by the next Legislature will be critical to our long-term well being. The challenges of this new century will require leadership, honesty and a willingness to do what is right.

Priorities:

Control State Spending

- Budget Reserve limit that works
- Protect the Corpus of the Permanent Fund
- Look for General Fund savings

Quality of Life

- Early education funding
- Public safety
- Maintain roads and other infrastructure
- Jobs for Alaskans

Economic Diversification

- Stable tax policy
- Reasonable and understandable regulations
- Business incentives
- Economic infrastructure
- Promote sensible resource development and tourism

Legislative Reform

- Control staff levels

Alaska's future lies with its people and our ability to develop our non-petroleum resources. To assist in this endeavor, our leaders must ensure a business climate that will attract investment to diversify our economy.

As a part owner of an Alaskan business (Hector's Welding), I understand the burden of government regulations place on business and the heavy manner in which they are often enforced. I believe every piece of legislation should be scrutinized to determine its economic impact.

Although the past few Legislatures have made significant strides toward encouraging business development and moving to a sustainable level of spending, we must continue to be vigilant and constantly re-evaluate to determine what services are necessary and affordable.

My fathers parents came to Alaska in 1907, settled in Nenana, and started a business that is still in the family today. Growing up in Nenana has given me a love for this "Great Land" and the people here. I have a real appreciation for both the rural life and the city life in Alaska. I have a deep respect for the richness in our diversity of cultures or customs and our constitutional form of government which unifies us. I am grateful for the freedoms we have inherited.

STATEMENT:

I am grateful for the trust given me by the people of House District 32 these last four years. Thank you.

Now I seek to serve in new House District 11 of the greater North Pole area as your representative.

This office is the closest to the people and should be active as a liaison to the bureaucracy and means to get the will of the people to the policy making level.

Over regulation is a constant temptation for government and too easy to be overlooked. I am committed to resisting over regulation and defending individual freedom as stated in our Declaration of Independence.

Let's make sure that every person in Alaska is protected under the law and not overruled by politically correct "groups" seeking special treatment under the law.

With terrorism a huge issue we must balance our need for security while protecting our privacy and freedoms.

I believe in the right to keep and bear arms. Criminals should be policed not law abiding citizens.

I am pro-life, choices are before conception - after this we are responsible to our Creator as parents.

Education is primarily the family's responsibility: Our constitution calls for public education so let us do well in both areas.

Taxes before we use the Permanent Fund dividend money and less government services before install taxes. Why should the government come before you?

With vision for a strong economy and a sound form of government I will apply myself with all my convictions as your public servant.

ALASKA'S JUDICIAL EVALUATION AND RETENTION SYSTEM

www.ajc.state.ak.us

Alaskans choose their judges through a merit selection system and vote every few years on whether to keep them on the bench. The system assures that judges remain non-partisan and accountable to the public. The constitution requires that the Alaska Judicial Council nominate only the best-qualified people to the governor for appointment to judgeships, and the state laws require that the Judicial Council evaluate each judge standing for retention elections. Other laws require that the Judicial Council publish its evaluations in the Voters' Pamphlet. The evaluations of judges standing in the November 2002 election appear on the following pages. The judge also may pay for a page of biographical information that he or she prepares. The Judicial Council is a citizens' commission, with three non-attorney members, three attorney members and the chief justice of the Alaska Supreme Court, who sits as chair.

In 2002, the Judicial Council evaluated one supreme court justice, one court of appeals judge, and fourteen trial court judges. The Judicial Council found that all sixteen justices and judges were QUALIFIED and recommends that voters retain all of them as judges.

JUDICIAL EVALUATION PROCEDURES

The Judicial Council evaluates judges with the help of thousands of Alaska citizens – police and probation officers, attorneys, court employees, social workers and others who appear in court before the judges. In 2002, the Council sent surveys to over 8,000 Alaskans (more than 40% responded), asked for written and oral comments from the public throughout the state, and reviewed records about judges' workloads, conflicts of interest, and other aspects of performance.

Surveys - The Judicial Council surveyed all active members of the Alaska Bar Association, and all peace and probation officers in the state. In 2002, the Council sent surveys to 2,860 attorneys and 1,704 peace and probation officers. An independent contractor handled the work for the Judicial Council, to assure objectivity in the findings. Questions on the surveys asked about judges' legal abilities, fairness, integrity, temperament, diligence and administrative skills. Similar surveys went to 381 social workers and citizens who participate in helping Alaska's children in court as guardians ad litem and and Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) volunteers. The Council asked about 2,800 jurors who had served on cases with the judges to comment on the judges' abilities to handle the trials fairly and capably. Court employees (about 625) also received surveys to rate the judges.

Judge and Counsel Questionnaires – Each judge standing for retention returned a self-evaluation questionnaire to the Judicial Council. The questionnaire included lists of recent cases that the judge believed were important for evaluation, with an emphasis on jury and non-jury trials. The Council asked each attorney in each case to fill out an additional survey about the judge's performance in that particular case. Attorneys returned half or more of the surveys, most with detailed comments about the judges' abilities.

Other Records - Council staff review a series of other public records, including a questionnaire filled out by the judge, conflict-of-interest annual statements filed with the Alaska Public Offices Commission and separate forms filed with the court system, court case files, Commission on Judicial Conduct public files, and a report on any withheld salary warrants. The Council also reviews performance-related court data, such as the number of peremptory challenges filed against a judge and the number of reversals on appeal. The Council looks at performance-related data carefully, because a judge's caseload type or location may play a major part in the numbers of challenges or appeals and reversals. For example, an Anchorage judge assigned 1,000 civil cases in one year may receive more challenges (and possibly more appellate reversals) than a rural area judge assigned a mixed caseload of 500 civil and criminal cases. The CourtWatch program provided information to the Council about the retention judges in Anchorage who had been evaluated by that group.

Public Hearings and Comment - The Council held statewide public hearings for all judges standing for retention, using the legislature's teleconference network and public meeting rooms. Statewide newspaper ads encouraged public participation. Public hearings give citizens a valuable opportunity to speak out about their experiences with judges. They also provide a forum in which citizens can hear the opinions of others.

Other Publicity and Input - The Council widely publicizes the evaluation process through frequent press releases, personal contacts with radio and television stations, speeches to public groups such as community councils, and feature articles in newspapers. Any judge may request an interview with the Judicial Council. The Council, in turn, may ask judges to speak with the Council members during the final stages of the evaluation process to respond to concerns raised by attorneys, peace or probation officers, or citizens. The Council balances all the information it receives from its many sources.

RESULTS OF EVALUATIONS

Evaluation information for each retention judge appears on the following pages. Summaries of the attorney, peace and probation officer, juror and court employee survey scores are provided. The CourtWatch evaluation, where available, also is summarized. Summaries of survey results also are shown in graphs. Survey ratings are on a five-point scale with "5" as the highest score, "1" as the least favorable score, and "3" as acceptable. A complete copy of the survey results is available from the Alaska Judicial Council, 1029 W. Third Avenue, Suite 201, Anchorage, Alaska 99501; 907/279-2526. The Council's Internet web pages contain complete performance information about the judges on the ballot this fall. (<http://www.ajc.state.ak.us>)

LENGTH OF RESIDENCY IN ALASKA: 29 years
Juneau, Anchorage, Fairbanks

EDUCATION:
Riordan High School, 1959-1963, Diploma; Stanford University, 1963-1967, A.B. with distinction; Columbia School of Law, 1967-1968; Boalt Hall, University of California Berkely, 1968-1970, J.D.; managing editor, Law Review.

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS:

SERVICE ORGANIZATION(S) MEMBERSHIP:
National Council on Alcoholism (Juneau), 1980-1983; Gastineau Council on Alcoholism, 1975-1978.

SPECIAL INTERESTS:

Coach, youth basketball, 15 years; long-distance family bicycle touring.

OTHER:

As a lawyer and trial judge, I served on various supreme court advisory committees. As a member of the supreme court, I have served as chair of the supreme court’s Judicial Education Committee, responsible for all continuing legal education for Alaska judges.

STATEMENT:

It has been a great honor for me to serve as a trial judge (on the superior court) for 16 years and an appeals judge (on the supreme court) for almost 4 years. I appreciate very much that in three previous retention elections - 1984, 1990, and 1996 - the voters chose to retain me as a judge.

In 1984 I wrote in this pamphlet that a judge “should make sure that persons who are involved in disputes have a place to come to where they are fairly heard and where a decision will be reached that is based on the law and that is reasonably prompt.”

I still believe those words. While being an appeals judge is different from being a trial judge, these principles remain. The work requires the members of the court, on a monthly basis, to review thousands of pages of legal briefs and records of proceedings in the trial courts, consult the law as found in written laws and previous decisions, and then produce written opinions explaining the court’s reasons for ruling as it does. It also involves deciding, in the criminal area, which cases to take for review.

I believe that I have learned a great deal since I was appointed to the supreme court, and that with this learning has come increased efficiency in serving the people of Alaska. I hope that the voters see fit to retain me to continue this work.

STATEMENT:

I have been a Superior Court Judge for the past nine years, and I have thoroughly enjoyed being a "community father." Citizens present all types of problems for my assistance, and I find the work very challenging. I feel that my life experiences, including working various jobs while attending college, have prepared me well for being a judge. My goal is always to insure that "justice is done" in my courtroom. Many people come to court without an attorney, and though I cannot advise them on the law, I feel that I must give such persons as much information as I can about how the system works. Judges are called upon to make very tough decisions, regardless of the criticism that they may receive from those who may only hear a fraction of what the judge has heard or seen. I have tried to make my decisions for the right reasons, as supported by the law. It takes courage to make what one believes is the right decision, even if that decision proves to be unpopular at the time.

I personally believe in strong moral values, and I raised my children with these values. I have been married to the same wonderful woman for over 33 years, and I am proud of being a father and a grandfather, as well as a citizen of Alaska. In summary, I enjoy my work as a judge, and I will continue to serve the citizens of Alaska in an honest and fair manner.

STATEMENT:

It has been almost three years since Governor Knowles appointed me to the District Court Bench. During that time, it has been my goal to decide cases without bias, to be firm when necessary, and to understand the problems that bring my fellow Alaskans to court. In reaching these goals, I feel that my experiences prior to becoming a lawyer and then a judge have helped greatly. Those life experiences include spending my first 12 years growing up in Anchorage and on our family homestead on Butterfly Lake in the Susitna Valley, living in West Africa from the ages of 12 to 16, and working as a surveyor in rural Alaska, on the Pipeline and in Prudhoe Bay.

Although I enjoy all aspects of being a judge, my greatest reward comes from speaking to groups of children about our legal system, particularly our criminal justice system. It is just possible that a tour of the courthouse, including a visit to the holding cells and the chance to be handcuffed in jest, and a fun discussion with me will help convince a young person not to break the law. I also greatly enjoy watching jurors learn the importance of our legal system. Many prospective jurors are unhappy with the sacrifices that jury service requires. If I can help those unhappy jurors feel that they have made an important contribution then I have done my job.

Thank you for your time. I look forward to many more years of public service.

STATEMENT:

Prior to taking the bench in 1991, I spent most of my professional life as either a prosecutor or a trial attorney. For the past eleven years I have had the honor of serving the people of the State of Alaska as a district court judge. The job is challenging, personally satisfying and frustrating - usually all at the same time. I meet people from all walks of life on a daily basis. I strive to treat all who appear before me with courtesy and respect and to be fair and impartial in my decisions.

With the remaining space available to me here, I'd like to invite each of you to come into the courts to observe how our justice system operates. When I was an Assistant District Attorney in Manhattan back in the 70's, it was commonplace to have several observers sitting in the gallery area of the courtroom. Here in Alaska, it has been my experience that, with the exception of CourtWatch which reports to the public as a public service, the general public rarely comes to court to see for themselves how the justice system works. Instead, we Alaskans tend to rely on the news media to tell us what happens in court.

Court proceedings are generally open to the public. I encourage you to take advantage of the opportunity to see for yourself how the criminal and civil justice system works.

I appreciate this opportunity to address you on the subject of my retention. My judicial philosophy is straight forward. As a judge I hold a public trust to administer justice fairly and impartially. I believe in God and country and begin each court day with the pledge of allegiance to remind all present of our obligation to ensure "justice for all."

In all criminal proceedings, while mindful of the rights of the accused, I also consider the rights of victims and when imposing criminal sentences I weight numerous factors, including the need to confine a defendant to prevent further harm to the public and to deter the defendant and others from future criminal conduct. Because of my concern about such issues as the high cost of litigation and the increase in violence in our society, I am a member of various private and public boards and committees to include the Domestic Violence Committee.

I believe in the power of an informed public and therefore promote awareness of the judicial system by giving speeches, teaching at schools, and hosting court tours. Constant public scrutiny motivates judges, prosecutors, jurors and witnesses to adhere strictly to their oaths of duty. I believe judges must be intelligent, hardworking civil servants, which is why you will often find me working on weekends and holidays. My judicial colleagues exhibit exemplary integrity, diligence and compassion. I am honored to be a member of one of the best state judicial system in our country.

Ballot Measure 1

Shall there be a Constitutional Convention?

BALLOT QUESTION

The Alaska State Constitution states that during any ten-year period, if a constitutional convention has not been held, the lieutenant governor shall place on the ballot for the next general election the question:

SHALL THERE BE A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION?

YES

NO

BALLOT MEASURE SUMMARY

Prepared by the Legislative Affairs Agency

This question relates to a call for a constitutional convention. At the convention the state constitution may be amended or revised, subject to approval by the voters. Under the state constitution, the voters must have the chance to vote on the question of whether there should be a constitutional convention if there has not been a convention during the last ten years. There has not been a convention in the last ten years. This question asks voters to say whether there should be a constitutional convention.

STATEMENT IN SUPPORT

ONLY A CONVENTION CAN:

PROTECT THE PERMANENT FUND DIVIDEND. First, protect it - cap it and inflation proof it.

HEAL URBAN RURAL DIVIDE. Only one Native served in the 1956 convention. Since 1956, circumstances of rural life have changed dramatically. With full representation of Alaska Natives, this convention can positively address subsistence and the rifts that separate urban and rural people.

The constitution's authors could not have imagined that so much power would be centered in the state by oil money. A new convention could consider shifting power and responsibility to communities and regions. It could establish a complete pattern of regional governments as the first convention thought it had done. Give local government adequate funding and responsibilities.

FIX THE LEGISLATURE. The legislature has become rudderless and self-interested. Too much money pulls too many hidden strings. Give the legislature back to the people by creating small, single member districts that can be won with shoe leather, not money, districts which don't have to include communities remote from each other. Cut the bloat in the legislature's operating budget, including salaries and expenses with a flexible lid.

ADOPT A STATE FISCAL PLAN. A plan has proven to be beyond the capability of recent legislatures. The convention can also adopt initiative proposals for legislation, not part of the constitution. These are voted on by the public and still leave room for the flexibility of future legislative amendment.

You may have other concerns you would like to see addressed. Now, only the legislature can originate amendments, all to be sifted through the self-interest of career legislators.

A convention can, and probably will propose amendments to be voted on separately. It is not necessarily one up or down vote. In any case, nothing will change without a confirming vote of the people.

A convention, with appropriate preliminary proceedings, is a statewide town meeting. Its delegates are elected like legislators, but for one time, one task only. Everything can be discussed, but nothing becomes law without voter approval.

DON'T LET YOUR VOTE BE GUIDED BY FEAR. There is a lot of common sense in the people. You do not have to elect extremists. The state bill of rights duplicates those protected in the federal constitution. They can't be changed. Unique in the Alaska constitution is the right of privacy. Who is going to tear that down? Privacy could be strengthened by applying it to corporate intrusions.

In 1956 a small group of people invented Alaska's state and local governments from scratch. They did well, but could not have anticipated fifty years of radical change. We the People in 2002 also have a right and a duty to critically scrutinize these designs and update them for ourselves and future generations.

Ballot Measure 1

Shall there be a Constitutional Convention?

STATEMENT IN OPPOSITION

The League of Women Voters of Alaska (LWVAK) urges Alaskans to vote "NO" on this ballot measure. It is unnecessary, costly and potentially dangerous. The Alaska Constitution is considered a model constitution. It is a flexible and concise document that can adapt to changing needs.

UNNECESSARY. Although there are criticisms of government in Alaska, the problems are not with the Constitution, but with how it is implemented. While certain issues prompt intense public interest, a constitutional convention is NOT the best way to address these issues.

The Alaska Constitution can be amended as follows: The legislature can propose specific amendments to the Constitution by a two-thirds vote of each house. Such proposed amendments must then be placed on the ballot and ratified by a majority vote of the people at a general election.

The LWVAK supports the amendment process for any needed changes. The amendment process has worked more than forty times, and it can continue to work in the future. In this way the people have an opportunity to address specific issues rather than risk opening up the entire Constitution for major changes.

COSTLY. No dollar amount has been determined for the cost of holding a constitutional convention, but undoubtedly it would be large.

The Constitution states that election of delegates to the convention shall be chosen at the next regular statewide election, unless the legislature provides for the election of the delegates at a special election. A special election would be extremely costly. In addition, there would be costs associated with holding the convention itself.

With our current "budget gap" can we afford the cost? When we can't even afford basic services in some parts of Alaska, we certainly should not spend scarce funds on a constitutional convention with no clear purpose.

DANGEROUS. A constitutional convention would have plenary powers to amend or revise our Constitution. In other words, the entire Constitution would be open to change. This could put the Constitution at risk with unlimited and unpredictable amendments being proposed by special interest groups. The convention could be slanted toward special interest rather than the good of the general public.

The legislature would set the ground rules for election of delegates to the constitutional convention. A legislator may be a candidate for delegate. It is likely that delegates to the convention would be elected from districts - as legislators are now. With the current demographics in Alaska, this would mean a minimal representation for the rural areas of the state, thereby lessening the chance that their voices would be heard and their needs and concerns considered.

In 1972, 1982 and 1992, the LWVAK opposed a constitutional convention. Now, in 2002, we again oppose a constitutional convention. We urge you, the voters, to also oppose it.

Let us not sail into uncharted waters and run the risk of unnecessary changes to Alaska's model Constitution.

VOTE "NO" ON BALLOT MEASURE NO. 1 ON NOVEMBER 5th.

Ballot Measure 2 - Initiative Petition

Moving Location of Legislative Session

BALLOT LANGUAGE

This bill would move all sessions of the state legislature to the Matanuska-Susitna (Mat-Su) Borough. If facilities fit for these sessions cannot be found in that borough, sessions would be held in Anchorage until facilities are available in the Mat-Su Borough. The bill would repeal the requirements that before the state can spend money to move the legislature, the voters must be informed of the total costs as would be determined by a commission, and approve a bond issue for all bondable costs of the move.

SHOULD THIS INITIATIVE BECOME LAW?

YES

NO

BALLOT MEASURE SUMMARY

Prepared by the Legislative Affairs Agency

This would make the legislature hold sessions in the Matanuska-Susitna Borough. Until there is a suitable place for sessions in that borough, they must be held in Anchorage. A special session might be held elsewhere. The law that relates to voter approval of costs of a capital move is changed. It would no longer apply to a move of the legislature. Other laws are or will be changed to conform. Sessions held after January 1, 2005 must be moved. The legislature should move sooner if practical.

FULL TEXT OF PROPOSED LAW

AN INITIATIVE CHANGING THE LOCATION OF LEGISLATIVE SESSIONS

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

Section 1. Location of Legislative Sessions

AS 24.05.090 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

AS 24.05.090. Legislative Sessions

(a) All regular and special sessions of the legislature shall be held at a location within the Matanuska-Susitna Borough. In the event that suitable facilities for these sessions are not available within the Matanuska-Susitna Borough, then all sessions shall be held at a location within the Municipality of Anchorage, but only until suitable facilities within the Matanuska-Susitna Borough become available. Special sessions may be held elsewhere in the state, if necessary, in accord with AS 24.05.100(b).

(b) The legislature shall convene each year on the second Monday in January at 10:00 a.m., except that following a gubernatorial election year, the legislature shall convene on the third Tuesday in January, at 10:00 a.m. Each legislature shall have a duration of two years and shall consist of a "First Regular Session", which shall meet in the odd-numbered years, and a "Second Regular Session" which shall meet in the even-numbered years, together with any special session or sessions that the governor or legislature may find it necessary to call.

Section 2. Specific Conforming Amendments

The following Alaska statutes are amended as indicated:

(a) AS 24.05.100(b) is amended to substitute "at the location provided in AS 24.05.090(a)" for "at the capital" in both locations "at the capital" appears.

(b) The last sentence of AS 24.10.030 is amended to substitute "session location" for "capital."

(c) AS 15.13.072(d)(2), AS 15.13.072(g), AS 24.10.130(a), AS 24.60.030(a)(2)(E), AS 24.60.030(a)(5)(E), AS 24.60.031(a)(1), AS 24.60.031(a)(2), AS 24.60.031(a)(3), and AS 24.60.080(c)(7) are amended to substitute "session location" for "capital city" in all locations "capital city" appears.

(d) AS 24.45.041(b)(1) and AS 24.50.040 are amended to substitute "session location" for "state capital" in all locations "state capital" appears.

(e) AS 24.45.041(e) is amended to substitute "session location" for "state capitol building."

(f) AS 24.50.010 is amended to delete "in the capital."

(g) AS 44.06.050 is amended to delete "or the legislature" in all locations "or the legislature" appears.

(g) The first sentence of AS 44.06.055 is amended to delete "or the legislature", and to substitute "the capital" for "a functioning state legislature or capital".

(h) AS 44.06.060 is amended to add "except for relocation of legislative sessions" at the end of the existing section.

Section 3. General Conforming Amendment

Any and all additional provisions of the Alaska Statutes which conflict with AS 24.05.090(a) are hereby amended to conform with AS 24.05.090(a). The revisor of statutes for the State of Alaska is authorized and directed to make these corrections with appropriate language.

Section 4. Severability

The provisions of this Act are independent and severable, and if any provision of this Act, or the applicability of any provision to any person or circumstance, shall be held to be invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Act shall not be affected and shall be given effect to the fullest extent practicable.

Section 5. Applicable Date

This Act applies to sessions of the legislature commencing after January 1, 2005. The legislative sessions should be relocated earlier if practicable.

STATEMENT IN SUPPORT

In November, 2002, the voters of Alaska will have an opportunity to bring the Legislature back to the people of Alaska. In the distant past, Juneau was the population center of Alaska. Not any more. Now, more than 85% of Alaskans live closer to Anchorage and the Matanuska/Susitna Borough than they do to Juneau, and this percentage is continuing to increase. It is now time to bring the Legislature back to the people of Alaska.

The Legislature should meet in Anchorage or the Matanuska/Susitna Borough, for the following reasons:

* ACCESSIBILITY - The Legislative sessions will be much more accessible to the vast majority of Alaskans. The meetings will be on the road system, instead of in a location inaccessible by road and rail, and often closed to air travel. Because it is so expensive to travel to Juneau, many Alaskans have never even visited our capital city. With an accessible Legislature, citizens will have the opportunity to communicate more effectively with their legislators and participate more fully in their government. Electronic communication cannot replace face-to-face contact.

* ACCOUNTABILITY - At present, the Legislature is accountable to well-funded special interest groups and lobbyists, who inhabit the legislative halls during the legislative sessions. The average citizen cannot afford to travel to Juneau. When the citizens of Alaska are actually able to attend and participate in the legislative process, we can expect more accountability to the people. The legislators will complete their business more efficiently when under public scrutiny, and sessions should be shorter.

* AFFORDABILITY - Contrary to the claims of the opponents of the move, the taxpayers will save money in the long run by moving the Legislature to a central location. Currently, all but three legislators must move themselves, their offices, and staffs to Juneau during the legislative session. Additionally, these legislators travel back and forth during session to meet with constituents in their own districts. If the Legislature is moved to a central location, the moving and travel expenses for nearly half the legislators would be saved. Additional money would be saved because state employees would not have to travel to Juneau to appear before the Legislature.

It will not be necessary to build expensive buildings to support a legislative move. More than half the legislators already have offices in Anchorage. Facilities for meetings are available in Anchorage, and can be made available in the Matanuska/Susitna Borough by remodeling existing buildings. Land already owned by local governments is available, if necessary.

Moving the Legislature out of Juneau will not destroy Juneau. Juneau's economy is strong with tourism, fishing, mining, and federal and state offices which will not be abandoned just because the Legislature meets elsewhere. In addition, Juneau has a bright future if it develops and markets its many attributes. Juneau will remain the capital of Alaska. This initiative simply requires that the Legislature be accessible to the vast majority of Alaskans.

Please vote YES on Ballot Measure No. 2 and bring the Legislature back to the people of Alaska.

Ballot Measure 2 - Initiative Petition

Moving Location of Legislative Session

STATEMENT IN OPPOSITION

Ballot Measure 2 would take away your right to know and vote on the costs.

- Ballot Measure 2 asks you to give up provisions of the FRANK (Fiscally Responsible Alaskans Needing Knowledge) Initiative that guarantee Alaskans' right to know and vote on the costs of moving the Legislature.
- The FRANK Initiative was overwhelmingly approved in 1994 by 77 percent of Alaska voters.
- Ballot Measure 2 asks you to give up the requirements that, before the state can spend money to move the Legislature, voters must be informed of the total costs - as would be determined by a neutral commission - and approve a bond issue for all bondable costs of a move.
- Under Ballot Measure 2, you would lose your right to know and vote on the costs of a legislative move. It would be like giving lawmakers a blank check because you would not know the costs.
- The Alaska Democratic Party passed a resolution opposing this initiative and the Republican Party of Alaska passed a resolution reaffirming the right of Alaskans to know and vote on the costs of a legislative move as stated in the FRANK Initiative.

Can Alaska afford Ballot Measure 2?

- Alaskans could pay for moving the Legislature twice because, if facilities fit for the Legislature cannot be found in the Mat-Su Borough, Ballot Measure 2 would require two moves - first to Anchorage, then to the Mat-Su.
- The state faces billion-dollar deficits. Is this the time to give up your right to know and vote on the costs of a legislative move?
- Don't we have better things to do with our money - such as schools, roads, and public safety?
- Don't Alaskans deserve to know what we would have to pay to move the Legislature and to vote on those costs?

Read your ballot carefully.

It's a question of rights.

Maintain your right to know the costs.

Maintain your right to vote on the costs.

Vote NO on Ballot Measure 2.

Ballot Measure 3 - Initiative Petition

Gas Pipeline Development Authority

BALLOT LANGUAGE

This bill would create the Alaska Natural Gas Development Authority (Authority) as a public corporation of the State. The Authority would acquire and condition North Slope natural gas, and construct a pipeline to transport the gas. The Authority's powers would include buying property or taking it by eminent domain, and to issue state tax-exempt revenue bonds. The gasline route would be from Prudhoe Bay to tidewater on Prince William Sound and the spur line from Glennallen to the Southcentral gas distribution grid. The Authority would operate and maintain the gas pipeline, ship the gas, and market the gas.

SHOULD THIS INITIATIVE BECOME LAW?

YES

NO

BALLOT MEASURE SUMMARY

Prepared by the Legislative Affairs Agency

This measure proposes a new public corporation. It would be called the Alaska Natural Gas Development Authority. It would have a seven-member board of directors appointed by the governor. The board is required to design, construct, operate, and maintain a natural gas pipeline system. That system or project would transport North Slope natural gas. It would move the gas to Prince William Sound and to the Southcentral Alaska gas distribution system. The board could market and ship gas. It could acquire property by purchase or eminent domain. To meet project costs, the board could issue revenue bonds. To build the project, it would have to enter into project agreements with labor unions. It also must use Alaska contractors and suppliers to the greatest extent possible. The measure requires the board to prepare a development plan for the project within one year. It declares a goal of having the project operate by 2007.

FULL TEXT OF PROPOSED LAW

"(The All-Alaskan Gasline Initiative) An Act Establishing the Alaska Natural Gas Development Authority, to maximize revenues for Alaska and jobs and Gas for Alaskans."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. The uncodified law of the State of Alaska is amended by adding a new section to read:

FINDINGS AND INTENT. (a) The people find that

(1) The Phillips-Marathon liquefaction facility at Nikiski has been supplying Cook Inlet natural gas to Japan and Southcentral Alaska at great profit and without interruption since 1969;

(2) Cook Inlet gas supplies are dwindling rapidly with shortfalls anticipated as early as the winter of 2003;

(3) Alaska's North Slope contains vast proven reserves of natural gas that have been known for at least 25 years but have never been developed;

(4) these gas resources have never been offered for sale, because there has been no way to transport them to market;

(5) multiple markets in North America and Asia have recently expressed an interest in receiving a proposal from Alaska for the purchase of Alaska gas;

(6) if developed, these natural gas resources could represent substantial economic benefits to Alaskans in jobs, state revenue, and gas for Alaska citizens and businesses;

(7) the major North slope leaseholders have competing gas reserves in other parts of the world vying for the same markets, creating a conflict of interest for them in advancing the sales of Alaska gas;

(8) the North slope Producers agreed in 1991 to strand North Slope gas until at least 2005;

(9) given the producer's conflicts of interest and their historic refusal to make North Slope natural gas available it may be necessary to take the gas back;

(10) the permits necessary for an Alaskan gasline project have been pledged to the Alaska Natural Gas Development Authority, operating as a port authority, to facilitate the development of the project;

(11) there is sufficient gas for an all-Alaskan gasline project;

(12) the Alaska Natural Gas Development Authority offers substantial tax benefits that improve the economics of a gasline project;

(13) state ownership of the pipeline and associated facilities has the potential to provide substantial revenues to the state and the Alaska Permanent Fund; and

(14) Alaska's constitution requires that Alaska's resources are developed, utilized, and conserved for the maximum benefit of Alaska's people.

(15) an all-Alaskan gasline maximizes jobs for Alaskans, revenues for the Alaskan treasury, and access to gas for Alaskans.

(b) It is the intent of this Act to create the All-Alaskan Natural Gas Development Authority for the purpose of developing, constructing, managing, and operating a gas pipeline from the North Slope of Alaska and a spur line to the Southcentral Alaska natural gas distribution grid.

Sec. 2. AS 41 is amended by adding a new chapter to read:

(f) If an officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature appears on a bond, note, or coupon attached to them ceases to be an officer before the delivery of the bond, note, or coupon, the signature or facsimile is valid to the same extent as if the officer had remained in office until delivery.

Sec. 41.41.310. Covenants. In a resolution of the authority authorizing or relating to the issuance of bonds or bond anticipation notes, the authority has power by provisions in the resolution that will constitute covenants of the authority and contracts with the holders of the bonds or bond anticipation notes to

(1) pledge to a payment or purpose all or a part of its revenues to which its right then exists or may thereafter come into existence, and the money derived from the revenues, and the proceeds of bonds or notes;

(9) covenant as to the redemption of bonds or notes and privileges of their exchange for other bonds or notes of the authority;

(10) covenant to create or authorize the creation of special funds of money to be held in pledge or otherwise for operating expenses, payment or redemption of bonds or notes, reserves, or other purposes;

(11) establish the procedure, if any, by which the terms of a contract or covenant with or for the benefit of the holders of bonds or notes may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds or notes the holders of which must consent to amendment or abrogation, and the manner in which the consent may be given;

(12) covenant as to the custody of property or investments, their safekeeping and insurance, and the use and disposition of insurance money;

(13) agree with a corporate trustee that may be a trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or outside the state as to the pledging or assigning of revenue or funds to which or in which the authority has rights or an interest; the agreement may further provide for other rights and remedies exercisable by the trustee as may be proper for the protection of the holders of a bond or note of the authority and not otherwise in violation of law and may provide for the restriction of the rights of an individual holder of bonds or notes of the authority;

(14) appoint and provide for the duties and obligations of a paying agent or paying agents or other fiduciaries as the resolution may provide within or outside the state;

(15) limit the rights of the holders of a bond or note to enforce a pledge or covenant securing the bonds or notes;

(16) make covenants other than and in addition to the covenants expressly authorized in this section of like or different character, and to make covenants to do or refrain from doing acts and things as may be necessary or convenient and desirable in order to better secure bonds or notes or that, in the absolute discretion of the authority, will tend to make bonds or notes more marketable, notwithstanding that the covenants, acts, or things may not be enumerated in this section.

Sec. 41.41.320 Limitations of issuance of bonds. (a) The authority may not issue bonds in an amount that exceeds the amount of bonds authorized to be issued by the legislature.

(b) This section does not apply to the issuance by the authority of refunding bonds or to the issuance by the authority of bonds the proceeds of which are intended to be used to refinance the loans held by the authority.

Sec. 41.41.330. Independent financial advisor. In negotiating the private sale of bonds or bond anticipation notes to an underwriter, the authority may retain a financial advisor. A financial advisor retained under this section must be independent from the underwriter.

Sec. 41.41.340 Validity of pledge. (a) The pledge of assets or revenue of the authority to the payment of the principal or interest on an obligation of the authority is valid and binding from the time the pledge is made, and the assets or revenue become immediately subject to the lien of the pledge without physical delivery or further act. The lien of a pledge is valid and binding against all parties having claims in tort, contract, or otherwise against the authority, irrespective of whether those parties have notice of the lien of the pledge.

(b) This section does not prohibit the authority from selling assets subject to a pledge, except that a sale may be restricted by the trust agreement or resolution providing for the issuance of the obligations.

Sec. 41.41.350. Capital reserve funds. (a) For the purpose of securing one or more issues of its obligations, the authority may establish one or more special funds, called "capital reserve funds," and shall pay into those capital reserve funds (1) money appropriated and made available by the state for the purpose of those funds, (2) proceeds of the sale of its obligations, to the extent provided in the resolution or resolutions of the authority authorizing their issuance, and (3) other money that may be made available to the authority for the purposes of those funds from another source. All money held in a capital reserve fund, except as provided in this section, shall, subject to appropriation, be used as required solely for the payment of the principal of obligations or of the sinking fund payments with respect to those obligations; the purchase or redemption of obligations; the payment of interest on obligations; or the payment of a redemption premium required to be paid when those obligations are redeemed before maturity. However, money in a fund may not be withdrawn from that fund at any time in an amount that would reduce the amount of that fund to less than the capital reserve requirement set out in (b) of this section, except for the purpose of making, with respect to those obligations, payment, when due, of principal, interest, redemption premiums, and the sinking fund payments for the payment of which other money of the authority is not available. Income or interest earned by, or increment to, a capital reserve fund due to the investment of the fund or other amounts in it may be transferred by the authority to other funds or accounts of the authority to the extent that the transfer does not reduce the amount of the capital reserve fund below the capital reserve fund requirement.

(b) If the authority decides to issue obligations secured by a capital reserve fund, the obligations may not be issued if the amount in the capital reserve fund is less than a percent, not exceeding 10 percent, of the principal amount of all of those obligations secured by that capital reserve fund then to be issued and then outstanding in accordance with their terms, as may be established by resolution of the authority, called the "capital reserve fund requirement," unless the authority, at the time of issuance of the obligations, deposits in the capital reserve fund from the proceeds of the obligations to be issued or from other sources an amount that, together with the amount then in the fund, will not be less than the capital reserve fund requirement.

(c) In computing the amount of a capital reserve fund for the purpose of this section, securities in which all or a portion of the funds are invested shall be valued at par or, if purchased at less than par, at amortized costs as the term is defined by resolution of the authority authorizing the issue of the obligations or by some other reasonable method established by the authority by resolution. Valuation on a particular date must include the amount of interest earned or accrued to that date.

(d) To assure the continued operation and solvency of the authority for the carrying out of its corporate purposes, provision is made in (a) of this section for the accumulation in capital reserve funds of an amount equal to their capital reserve fund requirement.

(e) The chair of the authority shall annually, not later than January 2, make and deliver to the governor and chairs of the house and senate finance committees a certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore a capital reserve fund to the capital reserve fund requirement. The legislature may appropriate that sum, and all sums appropriated during the current fiscal year by the legislature for the restoration shall be deposited by the authority in the appropriate capital reserve fund.

(f) This section does not create a debt or liability of the state.

Sec. 41.41.360. Remedies. A holder of obligations or coupons attached to them issued under the provisions of this chapter, and a trustee under a trust agreement or resolution authorizing the issuance of the obligations, except as restricted by a trust agreement or resolution, either at law or in equity, may enforce all rights granted hereunder or under the trust agreement or resolution, or under another contract executed by the authority under this chapter, and may enforce and compel the performance of all duties required by this chapter or by the trust agreement or resolution to be performed by the authority or by an officer of it.

Sec. 41.41.370 Negotiable instruments. All obligations and interest coupons attached to them are negotiable instruments under the laws of this state, subject only to applicable provisions for registration.

Sec. 41.41.380 Obligations eligible for investment. Obligations issued under the provisions of this chapter are securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the state and its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies, banking associations, investment companies, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. These obligations may be deposited with a state or municipal officer of an agency or political subdivision of the state for a purpose for which the deposit of bonds, notes, or obligations of the state is authorized by law.

Sec. 41.41.390. Refunding bonds. (a) The authority may provide for the issuance of refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding an obligation then outstanding that has been issued under the provisions of this chapter, including the payment of redemption premium on them and interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of the obligations. The issuance of the bonds, the maturities and other details of them, the rights of the holders of them, and the rights, duties, and obligations of the authority in respect of them are governed by the provisions of this chapter that relate to the issuance of obligations insofar as those provisions may be appropriate.

(b) Refunding bonds may be sold or exchanged for outstanding bonds issued under this chapter, and, if sold, the proceeds may be applied, subject to appropriation and in addition to another authorized purpose, to the purchase, redemption, or payment of the outstanding obligations. Pending the application of the proceeds of refunding bonds, with any other available funds, to the payment of the principal, accrued interest, and redemption premium on the obligations being refunded, and, if so provided or permitted in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds or in the trust agreement securing them, to the payment of any interest on the refunding bonds and expenses in connection with the refunding, the proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of, or obligations the principal of and the interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by, the United States that mature or that will be subject to redemption, at the option of the holders of them, not later than the respective dates when the proceeds, together with the interest accruing on them, will be required for the purposes intended.

Sec. 41.41.400. Credit of state not pledged. (a) Obligations issued under the provisions of this chapter do not constitute a debt, liability, or obligation of the state or of a political subdivision of the state or a pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of a political subdivision of the state but are payable solely from the revenue or assets of the authority. Each obligation issued under this chapter must contain on its face a statement that the authority is not obligated to pay it or the interest on it except from the revenue or assets of the authority and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state or of a political subdivision of the state is pledged to the payment of the principal of or the interest on the obligation.

(b) Expenses incurred by the authority in carrying out the provisions of this chapter are payable from funds provided under this chapter, and liability may not be incurred by the authority in excess of these funds.

Sec. 41.41.410. Officers not liable. A member or other officer of the authority is not subject to personal liability or accountability by reason of having executed or issued an obligation.

Article 4. Property of the Authority.

Sec. 41.41.450. Property of the authority. The authority may acquire, by purchase, lease, or gift, upon terms that it considers proper, land, structures, real or personal property rights, rights-of-way, franchises, easements, and other interests in land it considers necessary or convenient for the financing of the project or a part of the project.

Article 5. Project Construction.

Sec. 41.41.500. Contract terms relating to use of Alaska resources. (a) The authority shall enter into one or more pre-hire project term agreements with labor organizations that (1) contain no-strike clauses; and (2) secure timely completion of the project and maximum employment opportunities for state residents.

(b) To maximize the economic benefits of the project to Alaskan businesses, the authority shall use Alaska contractors and suppliers to the maximum extent possible to take advantage of the Alaska experience in Arctic engineering and construction.

Article 6. General Provisions.

Sec. 41.41.900. Tax exemption. All obligations issued under this chapter are declared to be issued by a body corporate and public of the state and for an essential public and governmental purpose, and the obligations, and the interest and income on and from the obligations, and all fees, charges, funds, revenues, income, and other money pledged or available to pay or secure the payment of the obligations, or interest on the obligations, are exempt from state taxation except for transfer, inheritance, and estate taxes.

Sec. 41.41.990. Definitions. In this chapter,

- (1) "authority" means the Alaska Natural Gas Development Authority;
- (2) "board" means the board of directors of the Alaska Natural Gas Development Authority;
- (3) "project" means the gas transmission pipeline, together with all related property and facilities, to extend from the Prudhoe Bay area on the North Slope of Alaska to tidewater at a point on Prince William Sound and the spur line from Glennallen to the Southcentral gas distribution grid, and includes planning, design, and construction of the pipeline and facilities as described in AS 41.41.010(a)(1) - (5).

2. two members shall be appointed to two-year terms; and
3. two members shall be appointed to one-year terms.

STATEMENT IN SUPPORT

Last year more than 40,000 Alaskans signed an initiative petition to place the choice to develop Alaska's gas in the hands of the owners of the gas: Alaska's people. If adopted, this would establish the Alaska Gas Development Authority supporting a project to build a natural gas pipeline from Prudhoe Bay to Valdez, keeping it completely in Alaska and not going through Canada. It only makes sense to keep the jobs and revenues within Alaska and within America. In addition, the potential for value added processing of Alaskan gas into petrochemicals should also be within Alaska, not in Canada or Chicago.

Building the gasline to Valdez gives us the option to diversify our markets into Asia and our own U.S. West Coast. Equally important, an All-Alaska gas project will make it feasible to bring cheap, clean energy to Alaskans in other parts of the state including Southcentral, which is projected to start having gas shortages within the next 10 years.

Alaska's gas has been stranded on the North Slope for almost 30 years now and the oil companies seem no closer to building a gasline than ever. They all seem to have different worldwide agendas and can't seem to work together to develop Alaska's North Slope gas. If the oil companies won't do it, this initiative at least gives us the option to do it ourselves with the spirit that built Alaska in the first place.

The Authority this initiative would establish would be similar to the Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation with a governing board to set policy, a small administrative structure and the actual work to design and build the project contracted out by bid to private companies who are experts in their field and who are held strictly accountable.

The initiative is not a guarantee that the project would be built. It requires that, within a year, the permits that already exist for the All-Alaskan route would be acquired, gas supply contracts would be secured from the North Slope producers, and an economic model would be completed to take to the market to seek sales contracts. At least our gas would be presented for sale to the market, which has never been done before.

The section of the initiative entitled "Credit of state not pledged" (Sec. 41.41.400) was carefully written so that the project would stand alone based on this project's revenues. This is not another Delta barley project. Nothing will be built until markets for the gas are secured.

Development of Alaska's gas represents a major stake in the future of all Alaskans. As Alaska now faces an impending fiscal crisis in coming years, the marketing of its gas in the most prudent and lucrative manner is paramount. Wouldn't it be better to solve our fiscal problems through an in-state project such as this rather than taxing Alaskans or taking your Permanent Fund dividend? We think so. Please vote YES on ballot measure # 3.

Gas Pipeline Development Authority

STATEMENT IN OPPOSITION

The All-Alaska Gasline Initiative will force the State of Alaska to create a new, inefficient government bureaucracy that will compete and interfere with private enterprise. By law, the state's first task would be to expend state funds restudying an expensive, risky project that has already been shown to not be feasible. Therefore, this initiative should be defeated.

A recent report commissioned by the Legislature and completed by the Administration states that The All-Alaska Gasline Initiative is not in the best interest of the State. The report found that - should the State undertake construction of such a project - the financial risks are substantial. Except for the Permanent Fund, there is no ready source of investment money. Given the scope of such a project the potential for permit and construction delays leading to cost overruns, Alaska's entire savings account could be jeopardized. The State's credit rating would be put at risk because of the reliance on debt, thus devaluing any bonds should they be issued to finance the project. In addition, it is unlikely that State ownership would automatically add value.

The argument that the State of Alaska should do more to discharge its constitutional obligation to develop natural resources for the benefit of all Alaskans rings hollow. The State has long discharged its obligations by regulating the extraction and use of gas consistent with its existing lease agreements. The State also realizes profits from ongoing production through taxes and royalties.

The Initiative is restricted to a pipeline and liquefied natural gas (LNG) project in Valdez. Industry studies show that this restriction proves less feasible in the foreseeable future due to inadequate markets and the financial demands of the project. The market for such a project will be oversupplied by almost a factor of 2 from cheaper sources through at least 2010. This oversupply recently resulted in the first downturn of LNG prices into Japan since the business began in the late 1960's. The All-Alaska Gasline Initiative specifies that the State can only consider the most expensive project. Current estimates indicate that capital costs of an Alaskan LNG project will be at least double that of competing new supplies.

The Government lacks the technical expertise and experience for this big, risky project, especially at a time when smaller, more efficient government is needed to strengthen Alaska's long-term economic health. Just the feasibility study of the project would cost the State $200 million. Since there is no assurance that it will be built, such a cost is likely a waste of money that the State can ill afford. It makes more sense for the State to support private industry efforts to commercialize North Slope Gas rather than create a bloated State-Owned project that could end up costing more to build and run than it would generate in revenue.

ALASKA LIBERTARIAN PARTY: LEGALIZE FREEDOM!

We, the Alaska Libertarian Party, hold that all individuals have the right to own and control their own lives and property; and to live in whatever manner they choose, so long as they do not forcibly interfere with the equal rights of others.

Therefore, we believe that a governing body's sole function is to protect the rights of individuals. As Libertarians, we believe in freedom of choice for the individual. We envision a society of free and prosperous individuals, where everyone can pursue his/her ambition to the full extent of his/her abilities.

Our platform, and more info about us, may be found at:

On the State Budget: Even though the Alaska state government's per-capita revenues are many times the national average, the state still expects to run a deficit. Politicians in Juneau are often likened to drug addicts: they are quick to deny they have a "problem," but they always crave more and more. Worse, they seek to spread their destructive habit by "hooking" ever more Alaskans into a dependence on government largess. It is sad to see once free and proud people sacrifice their independence and self-respect to a habit of living off other people's money.

The most dangerous government addicts are even today hungrily eyeing the pocketbooks and possessions of Alaskan families -- and like many other addicts, they are quite willing to forcibly take whatever loot they can in order to satisfy their cravings. Our government per capita already spends almost twice what any other state is spending. Your Alaska Libertarian Party says that the fact that Alaska has a budget crisis dramatically demonstrates that the politicians have indulged far, far too much already. We want to help break this destructive cycle of addiction and denial!

It is largely through the efforts of former Libertarian legislators Dick Randolph, Ken Fanning and Andre Marrou that Alaskans enjoy one of the lowest tax burdens in America today. Please help keep it that way! Vote for all the Libertarian candidates available. You won't be wasting your vote; Rather, a vote for either Democrat or Republican is wasted, for both will work to make government ever larger and more expensive. Both have a jones for big government. Just say "no" to them.

Register to vote (or re-register) with your party preference listed as "Libertarian." It doesn't cost you a dime, and will help to keep us as a fully-recognized political party in Alaska. And please consider sending $25 annual dues to be a paid member of the party. Call toll-free:

Community-based Economics · Grassroots Democracy · Ecological Wisdom · Future Focus · Decentralization Respect for Diversity · Feminism · Global Responsibility · Personal/Social Responsibility/Social Justice · Nonviolence

The Green Party is values-based, not beholden to corporate and other special interests.
We are in a unique position to take a holistic look at the serious issues facing Alaska

Fiscal Plan: Enact an oil windfall profits tax above $18 per barrel, equalizing state and oil company profits. There would be no budget gap had this been implemented the past two years. Additional revenues require everyone’s help—corporations, tourists, summer workers and residents. A summer sales tax, general sales tax or income tax, should be considered, if needed. Alaskans can no longer allow corporate control over state spending or legislative inaction and the unfair taxes that were proposed.

Health Care: Implement statewide access to healthcare and childcare for all Alaskans (including outpatient medications) as the Green Party first proposed in 1990. Education, intervention and treatment are integral parts of the plan for a healthier Alaska.

Green Economics: Gain additional economic self-sufficiency by creating value-added products from raw materials before export to reduce Outside economic control. Implement a product development corporation to help establish a sustainable, environmentally safe, small manufacturing economy.

Subsistence: Guarantee continuing access to subsistence resources—the core part of all Alaska Native cultures involving special skills and knowledge, sharing and other cultural values. Resource survival and subsistence economies are top priorities. Sport and commercial uses are secondary.

Energy: Alaskans can lead the nation to energy security through conservation, building the all-Alaska gas line that will also serve the rail belt, and developing hydrogen as a future fuel. Sun, wind, and geothermal energy provide additional potential.

Arctic Refuge: It makes no sense to open the Arctic Refuge. 30 to 40 years worth of oil are available in the areas already open. The state would lose 40% of the revenue on Refuge oil. Most natural gas lies outside the Refuge. Alaska can provide national energy security and keep the Arctic Refuge intact.

Corporate Reform: Create meaningful penalties for corporate crime such as jail time for corporate executives and repeal of corporate charters. Corporations should pay their fair share of taxes.

Democracy: Get big special interest money out of politics, implement public financing of elections, and eliminate corporate and special interest contributions. Outside contributions should not be allowed.

Law and Order: Spend largest sum of money on education, intervention and treatment to reduce the need for police enforcement and prisons. Implement conflict resolution, youth courts and tribal courts as better alternatives to the current adversarial court proceedings. For profit prisons should not be allowed.

Defense: Stop military expenditures for unworkable, programs like the “Star Wars” National Missile Defense System. Such military pork provides only temporary chump change jobs while defense contractors make billions, and gives some to our Congressional Delegation. Alaska becomes a nuclear military target, and is left with toxic waste.

Alaska Permanent Fund

REPORT TO ALASKANS

A public trust investing for Alaska's future.

Fiscal year 2002 was a tough year for investors, but the Alaska Permanent Fund weathered it better than most. Despite double-digit negative returns from the U.S. stock market, the well-diversified Fund managed to moderate its losses by earning significant positive returns in bonds and real estate and ended the year down only 2.2 percent, thus out-performing both its benchmark (-3.7 percent) and the average public pension fund (-5.2 percent).

Investing for generations

For the 20th consecutive year, Fund principal was fully inflation-protected in 2002, its long-term purchasing power kept whole so that the Fund can continue to provide real benefits to future generations. For the benefit of the current generation, the Fund was able to provide sufficient income to fully pay the 2002 Permanent Fund dividends - thanks to a large earnings reserve account built up and retained during the good years.

The earnings reserve, which acts as a cushion against poor financial markets, ended the fiscal year with a June 30 balance, after accounting for dividends and inflation-proofing, of $1.6 billion. Two years ago, this account totaled $6.5 billion.

What caused the $4.9 billion decline in the earnings reserve? About one-quarter of it ($1.3 billion) was transferred to principal for inflation-proofing over the last two years. That money remains in the Fund, ensuring its long-term purchasing power. Another 40 percent of it has gone to dividends ($2 billion combined for 2001 and 2002). The rest, approximately one-third ($1.6 billion) reflects the depreciation in the market value of the Fund's investment portfolios, primarily stocks.

Corporate governance

The rash of accounting scandals in corporate America was another source of difficulty in fiscal 2002, particularly in June when, coupled with poor economic news, the Fund's performance actually turned from positive to negative after recovering from losses earlier in the year.

To fully protect the interests of Alaska shareholders, the Board has become increasingly engaged in corporate governance.

Permanent Fund's total return
Annualized for the past, present and future

Permanent Fund cumulative returns by asset class
Growth of $1 over the past 18.5 years

The increased involvement began last year with Board educational sessions on proxy voting practices in April 2001; fiduciary responsibilities in May 2001; class action litigation in February 2002; and external manager conflict of interest policies in March 2002.

The Board has also taken a number of actions: in November 2001, we established a Corporate Governance Committee chaired by the Attorney General; in February of this year, the Fund joined the Council of Institutional Investors, a shareholders' rights organization comprised of public, private and union pension plan sponsors; and in March and June, the Board adopted new policies on proxy voting and class action litigation.

The Board will continue to be active on corporate governance issues and we will do our best to hold the companies in which the Fund invests to high standards of accountability.

Support for complete and protected inflation-proofing

The Board and the staff were also engaged during the year in public policy debates. The Board recommended an important amendment to the state constitution which, while it has not yet been adopted by the legislature, has been widely discussed and supported by prominent Alaskans and newspaper editorial boards. This proposed constitutional amendment will again be proposed in 2003 as an essential part of any long-range fiscal plan for the State of Alaska.

Staying the course

While periodic market corrections are inevitable – and frequently healthy over the long term – they can challenge even the most focused, long-term investor. The Board's asset allocation policy balances the risks of negative returns in the short term against the rewards of higher positive returns over the long term.

For a patient investor with good diversification like the Alaska Permanent Fund – which as of June 30, 2002, held 34 percent of its assets in U.S. stocks, 16 percent in non-U.S. stocks, 11 percent in real estate and 39 percent in fixed income – risk is diminished over time. Although there is a one-in-four chance that the total Permanent Fund will earn a negative return in any single year, there is only a one-in-20 chance that the Fund will earn a negative return over a five-year holding period, and virtually no chance of a negative return over a 10-year period. That is the benefit of investment discipline and “staying the course.”

Sincerely,

Jim Sampson
