STATE OF ALASKA
Division of Elections
Office of the Lieutenant Governor

October 2008

Dear Alaskan Voter:

I am pleased to provide you with the 2008 Official Election Pamphlet, your guide to the November general election. This year's pamphlet contains information from candidates for the offices of President, Vice President, United States Senator, United States Representative, State Senator and State Representative.

Information about members of the judiciary who are seeking retention to the bench is also included. The Alaska Judicial Council has provided evaluation information on each of the judicial officers.

This pamphlet also contains information regarding the Bonding Proposition that will appear on the general election ballot.

I hope the information in this pamphlet will help you make informed choices when you go to the polls on November 4.

Alaska has a history of races that have been determined by just a handful of votes. Your vote does make a difference. I hope you will take the time to exercise your right and vote on November 4.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Gail Fenumiai".

Gail Fenumiai
Director of Elections

Voting Information

Election Day is November 4, 2008

Polling Places

The polls will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. To locate your polling place please call 1-888-383-8683. In Anchorage, please call 269-8683. The following information explains basic voting rights and will help voters with special needs.

Bring Identification to the Polls

You MUST be prepared to show one form of identification. You may use the following ID:

- Voter ID Card
- Driver's License
- State ID Card
- Current and valid photo ID Card
- Passport
- Military ID Card
- Birth Certificate
- Hunting or Fishing License

or, you may use an original copy of one of the following documents if it contains your name and current address:

- Current Utility Bill
- Government Check
- Bank Statement
- Pay Check
- Other Government Document

If you do not have identification when voting, you will be asked to vote a questioned ballot.

What Happens if Your Name is not on Register

If your name does not appear on the precinct register, you may vote a questioned ballot. Before receiving a ballot, you must complete a questioned ballot envelope. Your voted ballot will be placed in a secrecy sleeve and then the secrecy sleeve will be sealed inside the completed questioned ballot envelope. All questioned ballots are returned to the Election Supervisor for review and counting by the Questioned Ballot Review Board.

Marking the Ballot

When voting the ballot, completely fill in the oval next to the candidate or issue you wish to vote for. Fill in the oval like this:

You only have to mark the races or issues you choose to vote for. If you mark more than one choice in a race or issue, that section of the ballot will NOT be counted. The sections of the ballot that are properly marked will be counted.

If you make a mistake marking your ballot, DO NOT erase or correct the ballot. You may return the spoiled ballot to an election worker and request a new ballot. If you attempt to correct a mistake on the ballot, the corrected vote may not be counted. Note: You may only receive a replacement for a spoiled ballot 2 times.

Campaigning Prohibited Near Polls

Alaska law prohibits political persuasion within 200 feet of any entrance to a polling place during the hours the polls are open. This means you may not discuss or display campaign items for candidates or issues appearing on the ballot at that polling place.

Voter Rights, Assistance and Concerns

Questioned Voting

If your name is not listed on the precinct register or if you do not have identification, you have the right to vote a questioned ballot. The information you provide on the outside of the questioned ballot envelope will be used to determine your voting eligibility and to update your voter registration information. If for any reason your questioned ballot is not fully counted, you will be notified in writing.

Language or Other Assistance While Voting

If you need assistance during the voting process, you may have a person of your choice provide any needed assistance as long as that person is not a candidate, your employer, agent of your employer or agent of a union you belong to. Assistance may be provided during each step of the voting process, including assistance inside the voting booth with reading or marking the ballot. You may also receive assistance from the election board. This is your right under federal law.

The Division of Elections provides for language assistance for Alaska Native and Filipino (Tagalog) voters who have limited English proficiency through the use of bilingual election workers and interpreters. Alaska Native language assistance is available on Election Day in many rural polling places throughout the state. Filipino (Tagalog) language assistance is available on Election Day in Kodiak. If you need language assistance, please contact the Division of Elections. Yup'ik language assistance is available by calling, toll-free, 1-866-954-8683.

Touch Screen Voting Option

There will be one touch screen voting unit in each polling place. Touch screen voting is intended for the blind, disabled, and for voters who do not read well. Alaska's touch screen voting unit allows disabled voters to vote unassisted through the use of magnified, high contrast and audio ballots. If you need to vote using the touch screen voting unit, let the election board know.

Visually Impaired Voters

Magnifying ballot viewers for the visually impaired will be available at all polling places and absentee voting sites.

Audio recording of this pamphlet is available at each Regional Election Office or from the Alaska State Library, Talking Book Center, located in Anchorage. Telephone the library at (907) 269-6575 for information.

Hearing Impaired Voters

The Division of Elections has a TTY telecommunications device, which allows hearing impaired voters to obtain general information about elections by calling (907) 465-3020.

Physically Disabled Voters

If you have difficulty gaining access to your polling place, or if you have accessibility questions about your polling place, please let the Division of Elections know. We make every effort to ensure that polling places are accessible to all Alaskans.

November 2008

Fellow military service member:

We volunteer to wear the uniform because it is a calling. A calling to defend freedom and to stand up for what we believe is right and just, not only in the United States of America, but wherever we are called to serve.

This election cycle, you may be deployed overseas, but that does not mean you have given up your right to vote. It is just as important that you vote now, while you are deployed, to choose who you believe will be the best person to serve in political office.

This is the foundation of freedom: the opportunity to vote.

If you do not have the opportunity to vote in person, hopefully you have already voted absentee by-mail. If you have not already voted, and will miss the mail application deadline, please vote by absentee-fax. It's quick, easy, and will ensure that your choice will be heard at home, no matter where you're serving in the world. Please take the following into account:

- By using this method you are voluntarily waiving your right to a secret ballot
- You must apply separately for each election. The fax application form will not be accepted until 15 days before the election. Print; completely fill in the form, sign. Then fax the completed form to the Alaska Division of Elections. When your application is approved, a ballot will be faxed to you.
- Vote your ballot, have your signature witnessed and fax (or mail) the ballot according to instructions.
- If you are returning your ballot by fax, it must be voted, witnessed and received by the appropriate fax machine in the Absentee Voting Office by 8:00 p.m. Alaska time on election day.

I encourage you to exercise your right to vote and speak out for who you believe will serve your community best.

Sincerely,

Maj. Gen. Craig E. Campbell

Commissioner of the Department of Military and Veterans Affairs

Absentee Voting

Early/In Person/By Mail/By Fax/Special Needs Voting

There are several absentee voting options available during each election. You may vote absentee in person, by mail, by fax or vote a special needs ballot through a personal representative.

Voting Early or Absentee In Person

Beginning October 20, 2008, you may vote at an absentee voting site. Ballots for all 40 districts are available at all Regional Elections offices. In addition to the Regional Elections offices, there are many other voting sites throughout Alaska that will have ballots for their house district. For more information or for a list of absentee voting locations visit our website or contact a Regional Elections office.

Special Needs Voting

If you are unable to go to the polls due to age, serious illness or a disability, you may have a personal representative pick up and deliver a ballot to you beginning 15 days before an election at an absentee voting site or on Election Day at the polling place. Your personal representative can be anyone over 18, except a candidate for office in the election, the voter's employer, an agent of the voter's employer, or an officer or agent of the voter's union.

Voting By Mail or By Fax

The Division of Elections Absentee Office handles all absentee by mail and fax applications. To vote by mail or by fax, you must submit an application.

Absentee By Mail

Absentee ballot applications can be submitted after January 1st of each election year. You can request a ballot for a specific election or for all elections in the year. Absentee by mail ballot applications for the General election must be received by October 25, 2008.

Apply early to ensure timely delivery of your ballot. Your voted ballot must be postmarked on or before Election Day.

Absentee By Fax

Voting by fax should be your last alternative for casting a ballot. You may apply for fax voting October 20, 2008 through 5:00pm Alaska Time on November 3, 2008. You may return your voted fax ballot by mail or by fax. If you return your voted ballot by fax, it must be received no later than 8:00pm Alaska Time on Election Day. If you return your voted ballot by mail, it must be postmarked on or before Election Day.

If you have questions about voting by mail or fax, please contact the Division of Elections Absentee By Mail/By Fax Section at (907) 375-6400.

WEB SITE ADDRESS: www.baldwin08.com

OCCUPATION:

Founder and pastor of Crossroad Baptist Church, Pensacola, Florida, host of Chuck Baldwin Live radio show, columnist and author.

EDUCATION:

Graduated from Liberty Bible Institute at Liberty University and holds a master's degree from Christian Bible College. Two honorary doctor of divinity degrees from Christian Bible College and Trinity Baptist College.

OTHER:

Past chair of the Florida Moral Majority, 2004 Constitution Party Vice Presidential Candidate and a life member of Gun Owners of America. Chuck Baldwin's articles are featured regularly in newspapers and on many Internet news sites including World Net Daily.

Chuck Baldwin has preached in churches all over the United States and overseas. Many conservative political and values leaders have spoken in his church including Patrick J. Buchanan, Congressman Joe Scarborough, Ambassador Alan Keys and Judge Roy Moore.

Chuck and his wife Connie were married in 1973 and have three children and six grandchildren.

STATEMENT:

As president, I would measure every issue in light of the Constitution. I would start the process of bringing our troops home from Iraq and Afghanistan and the more than 130 countries in which they are stationed.

I would honor our veterans by ensuring them the best and most timely medical care and do everything in my power to locate all MIA's and POW's.

Instead of guarding borders around the world, I would make sure our borders at home are sealed and work to end the practice of hiring illegal aliens. There would no longer be taxpayer funded education, medical care or other benefits for those here unlawfully.

I would encourage Congress to pass Congressman Ron Paul's Sanctity of Life Act, which would declare the personhood of the unborn and remove abortion from the jurisdiction of the Court.

I would defend the Constitutional rights of gun owners and homeschoolers which have suffered egregious attacks on their rights.

I would work to overturn the so-called Patriot Act, which has gutted significant portions of our Constitution.

I would end all so-called "free trade" agreements like NAFTA, and GATT. The NAFTA Superhighway and the proposed North American Union would no longer be a threat to American sovereignty.

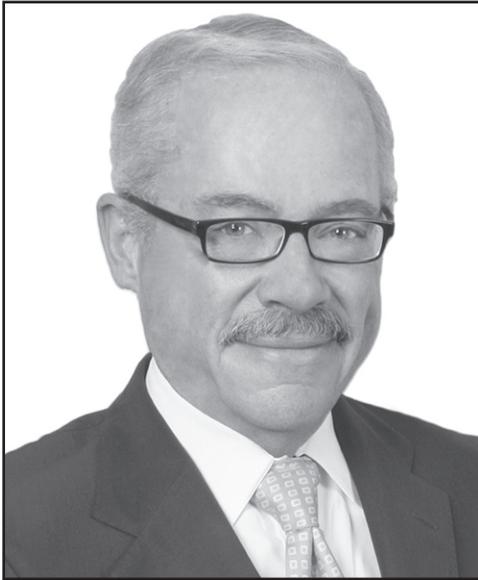

We must end our dependence on foreign oil, develop domestic sources and build refineries and nuclear power plants. Gas prices would reflect the wisdom of relying on our own natural resources.

Americans are counting on a return to limited, Constitutional government.

EDUCATION:

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:

Analyst for the Central Intelligence Agency (1971-78), United States Attorney for the Northern District of Georgia (1986-1990), U.S. House of Representatives (1995-2003)

SERVICE ORGANIZATION(S) MEMBERSHIP:

Board Member, National Rifle Association

STATEMENT:

Throughout his distinguished career, Bob Barr has proven that he is the leader Americans need to restore confidence of the American people in the future of their nation. Both working for the American people as a Congressman from Georgia and afterwards partnering with groups dedicated to protecting civil liberties, Bob has shown a commitment to shrinking government and returning liberty back to the people.

Americans know that the answer to today's problems is not more government, and Bob will work tirelessly to cut taxes, reduce government spending and restore our civil liberties lost during the Bush administration. Having seen the true nature of government from inside and out, only Bob Barr has the qualifications, the passion, and the commitment to work for the American people in their interest—not the government's.

Since leaving Congress where he served as the vanguard of the Second Amendment, Bob worked to increase individual liberty through such organizations as the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University and the American Conservative Union as the 21st Century Liberties Chair for Freedom and Privacy. For his work on protecting the privacy and civil liberties of all Americans, legendary New York Times columnist William Safire dubbed Bob "Mr. Privacy."

If there is one candidate who consistently comes down on the side of the American people's rights, it is Bob Barr. Bob knows the answer is less government, and has proven that he will deliver the real change necessary to lead America into a new era of prosperity and freedom.

United States Vice President

Wayne Allyn Root, Libertarian

E-MAIL: wayne@rootforamerica.com

WEB SITE ADDRESS: www.rootforamerica.com

OTHER:

Wayne Allyn Root's father was a butcher from Brownsville, Brooklyn. He graduated as Valedictorian from his high school, then graduated from Columbia University in 1983 as a Political Science major (in the same class as Democratic presidential nominee Barack Obama). He has been married to a former Miss Oklahoma, Debra Root, for over 16 years. The couple have four children: Dakota, Hudson, Remington, and Contessa.

Founder and Chairman of a successful small business, Wayne is a self-made businessman as well as an author and television producer. He started as an anchorman for what later became CNBC.

He has never done business with a lobbyist or worked with any state or federal government. Though constantly kept busy with business and politics, he has still made time to home school all of his children. He is a lifetime member of the Libertarian Party, and proudly dedicated to the cause of liberty.

STATEMENT:

Wayne supports smaller government, reduced spending, reduced entitlements, reduced bureaucracy, dramatically lower taxes, and greater personal freedom for individuals. In the area of education, he supports more parental control, more emphasis on school choice (moving education to the state and local level), and increased competition through vouchers.

Root and his wife choose to home-school their children. He is a strong supporter of gun rights for the individual. Root is a small businessman who believes the 2-party system is built on corruption, greed and bribery.

He believes that the two major parties both bribe the electorate to achieve power—thereby spending America and our children and grandchildren into bankruptcy. He is a fiscal conservative in the mode of his heroes Ronald Reagan and Barry Goldwater. He is socially tolerant, believing that most social issues should be determined on the state and local level.

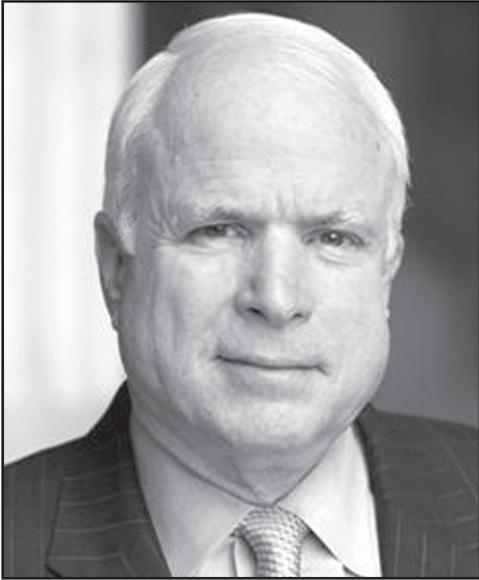

Root calls for the repeal of the income tax and favors replacing all sources of federal tax revenues with a tax on each state in proportion to its population, with each state deciding for itself how to raise its share of the money.

Root holds that “the Iraq war is a disaster”. His way out is to “use the success of the surge to declare victory and make plans to get out of Iraq as soon as reasonably possible”. He also questions Central Intelligence Agency information on Iran, would use “any diplomatic means”, including the United Nations, in order to “avoid another war”.

United States President

John McCain, Republican

WEB SITE ADDRESS: www.johnmccain.com

John McCain has a remarkable record of leadership and experience that is evidenced by his lifelong commitment of putting his country first. After serving two terms in the U.S. House, John McCain's reform agenda propelled him to the United States Senate.

In the Senate John McCain has been a consistent leader to reform Washington, eliminate wasteful government spending and lower taxes. John has continually fought to close loopholes for special interests and save taxpayer dollars by working hard to end pork barrel spending. He has been a pioneer in advocating America's energy security by calling for the expansion of domestic oil exploration, producing more power and developing alternative energies.

During his service in Vietnam, John McCain was taken as a prisoner of war where he was aided by his faith and the friendships of his fellow POWs. Senator McCain and his wife Cindy have seven children and four grandchildren.

STATEMENT:

In war and peace, I have been a dedicated servant of our country. Whenever I faced an important choice between our country's interests, party politics or special interests, I chose our country.

I will continue to put our country first by ushering in a new era of reform, prosperity and peace. If I'm elected President, the era of the permanent campaign will end. The era of problem solving will begin. Washington is broken, and I intend to fix it. All you've ever asked of government is that it stand on your side, not in your way.

I will stand by your side to grow this economy, create more jobs and get America moving again. I will aggressively push to develop alternative energies while expanding our use of existing energy resources here at home. As President, I intend to provide future generations of Americans with a safer, more peaceful world than the one we inherited. We will achieve energy security and ensure that healthcare is affordable and available for all. It is incumbent on America, more than any other nation on earth, to lead in building the foundations for a stable and enduring peace.

I will put an agenda of reform, prosperity and peace for America before any partisan interest or special interest. I will keep that promise every hour of every day I am in office.

OTHER:

Attorney, author and consumer advocate Ralph Nader has been named by Time Magazine one of the "100 Most Influential Americans in the 20th Century". For more than four decades he has exposed problems and organized millions of citizens into more than 100 public interest groups advocating solutions. He led the movement to establish the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), the Consumer Product Safety Commission, and enact the Safe Drinking Water Act, the Motor Vehicle Safety Act, the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and countless other pieces of important consumer legislation. Because of Ralph Nader we drive safer cars, eat healthier food, breathe better air, drink cleaner water, and work in safer environments.

STATEMENT:

Corporations have wrested control of government, causing wasteful spending and sweetheart deals while disenfranchising average Americans. Power must be returned to the people, whose needs should be met before corporations: We must adopt a national, single-payer health care system to cover all citizens, provide free college education, and repair the crumbling infrastructure of our cities and schools, increasing both jobs and quality of life. Repeal the WTO and NAFTA, which drains jobs, and provide a living wage for workers - $10 minimum. Tax the things we like least such as pollution, Wall Street securities speculation, and excessive corporate executive pay, instead of taxing labor. Eliminate all payroll taxes up to $50,000. We need to crack down on corporate crime. Cut the bloated military budget, effect a total corporate and military withdrawal from Iraq and Afghanistan, and employ a sensible two-state Middle East solution. Get all money out of politics with full public financing of elections. Defend voter and candidate rights by making Election Day a federal holiday, enacting nationwide same-day voter registration, and halting ballot obstructionism. To solve the energy crisis, we must invest in renewable energies, like wind and solar, and adopt a carbon pollution tax, while halting subsidies for fossil fuels. End attacks on civil liberties like the PATRIOT act and the "war on drugs." Abolish the death penalty and end the private prison system. A free society must ensure that all Americans enjoy full and equal rights, socially, legally, and politically.

Stanford Law School, 1990.

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:

2000-2005 San Francisco Board of Supervisors
2003-2005 President of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors

BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS:

1991-2000 Deputy Public Defender, San Francisco

OTHER:

In 2000 he was elected to the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, representing a district of 80,000 and supervising a city with a budget of $6 billion. He is best known for having led the effort to implement Instant Run-off Voting in San Francisco, where it has been successfully implemented to obtain a majority outcome without the need for costly run-off elections. Additionally, Gonzalez fought to create a minimum wage in San Francisco which includes a mechanism for yearly cost of living adjustments. (Considered the highest in the country, currently $9.36 per hour). Since leaving office, Gonzalez has been practicing law in San Francisco, focusing on defending civil rights.

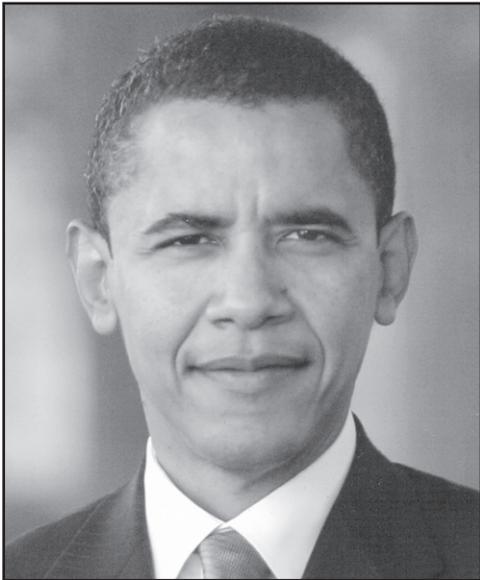

STATEMENT:

Americans need to take back their government. The federal budget must place human needs before corporate greed and militarism. We must ensure that every citizen has an equal voice through enacting electoral reforms: institute Instant Run Off Voting, where candidates are ranked so the true favorite wins, and allow same-day voter registration. Discontinue paperless electronic voting, which is susceptible to tampering; end gerrymandering and ballot obstructions. Presidential debates should be fair and open. Facilitate voter initiatives, where citizens can enact or reject proposed laws directly. Employ public campaign financing to assure clean and fair elections, and set congressional term limits so legislators stay responsive to their constituency. Oppose "tort reform," which denies victims' rights by placing arbitrary caps on court awards. Fix the pension system so that all Americans retire securely, and provide a minimum wage that responds to inflation and is livable. Cut exorbitant CEO profits and provide free choice health care for all. Ensure the constitutional and social rights of all citizens. Support the Equal Rights Amendment and assure women have reproductive freedom. Support tribal sovereignty for Alaskan natives, and honor all treaties. We must ensure the future of our planet. Preserve our national parks and wilderness zones — no drilling on protected lands. Defend food integrity and safety and support family farms. Invest in renewable energy sources and end fossil fuel reliance, which is environmentally destructive and endangers the ecosystem. Abandoning militaristic pursuits around the world will enable social and educational programs to be fully funded.

United States President

Barack Obama, Democrat

WEB SITE ADDRESS: ak.barackobama.com

OTHER:

Barack Obama was born in Hawaii in 1961. His father was from Kenya, and his mother grew up in small-town Kansas.

After college, Barack Obama took a job in Chicago as a community organizer helping families hurt when the local steel mills closed. After graduating from law school, he returned to Chicago to practice as a civil rights attorney.

As an Illinois State Senator, Obama worked with both Democrats and Republicans to cut taxes for working families by $100 million and expand early childhood education.

As a U.S. Senator, Obama worked across party lines to pass lobbying and ethics reform. Obama worked with Republican Senator Dick Lugar to pass legislation to lock down nuclear weapons and keep them out of terrorists' hands. On the Veterans Affairs Committee, he fought to get vets the benefits they were promised.

He is married to Michelle Obama. They have two daughters: Malia and Sasha.

STATEMENT:

America is at a crossroads. The politics of division are consuming Washington. Our economy is on the brink of a recession, energy prices are skyrocketing, and our nation's standing in the world has been weakened.

Rising costs for food and other expenses are squeezing Alaskans' budgets and stretching those on fixed incomes. In rural Alaska, where winter heating bills are often over $1,000 a month, extreme energy prices are forcing families to leave their homes.

The time has come for a president who will be honest about the choices and challenges we face as a nation.

I'm running for president to change politics-as-usual in Washington and to bring people together to get things done for Alaska.

I will work to:

- lower taxes for seniors and working families and provide a $1,000-per-family emergency energy rebate;
- pass equal pay laws that ensure women and men are paid at the same rate;
- invest in improving Alaska's students and schools, encouraging parents to stand up and take responsibility for their children's full education;

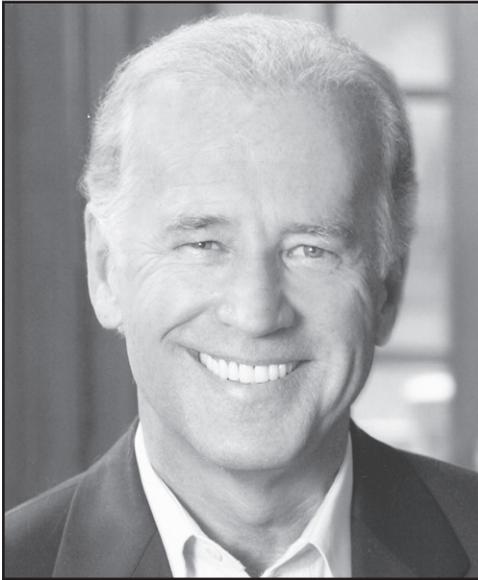

I respectfully ask for your vote, because together we can change our country and move America forward.

United States Vice President

Joe Biden, Democrat

WEB SITE ADDRESS: AK.barackobama.com

OTHER:

Joe Biden was born into a blue-collar family in Scranton, Pennsylvania, in 1942. He has established a reputation as a fighter for working families and a leader in national security.

Senator Biden has served in the U.S. Senate since 1972. He authored legislation to put 100,000 more cops on the streets to lower crime, and he spearheaded the push for the Violence Against Women Act in 1994.

Biden's international leadership is well-established. Senator Biden is Chair of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He has promoted democracy and improved relations in the Balkans, Russia, Georgia and more.

Joe's first wife and daughter died in an accident in 1972. As a single father, he raised two sons, Hunter and Beau, taking the train home from Washington to Delaware every night. Beau deploys to Iraq this fall. Joe remarried in 1977 to Jill Biden, a schoolteacher. They have a daughter, Ashley.

STATEMENT:

Barack Obama and I share a common story, a story that shows that there is no obstacle that can keep you from your dreams if you are willing to work hard and fight for it.

I'm an Irish Catholic kid from Scranton with a father who fell on hard times when the economy faltered. My mom and dad raised me to believe that what counts isn't how many times you get knocked down, but how quickly you get up.

Our country has fallen on some hard times. Barack Obama is a leader who will restore American prosperity and leadership in the world.

Barack Obama will wage the war that has to be won. An Obama administration will develop the capabilities and partnerships we need to take out the terrorists that threaten us. But he will also work to rebuild alliances to tackle the security challenges that we face in the 21st century.

And Barack Obama won't forget our brave troops when they return home. He'll strengthen and reform the Veterans Administration, and fully fund healthcare for veterans.

I respectfully ask for your support.

How the Electoral College Works

Each state gets a number of electors equal to its U.S. Congressional representation.

Alaska has three electors.

The electors from the state cast the Electoral College vote which ultimately elects the President and Vice-President of the United States.

State law determines how the names of the electors are chosen. In Alaska, each political party selects their electors, equal in number to the state's electoral vote, by the state party convention or in another manner prescribed by the party's bylaws. Third party and independent candidates merely designate their electors.

The names of the electors are submitted to the director of the Division of Elections by September 1st of the presidential election year. Members of Congress and employees of the federal government are prohibited from serving as electors. In Alaska, each elector must “pledge” that as an elector the person will cast his or her electoral vote for the candidate of the party.

When voters go to the polls on Election Day, they are really voting for electors to serve in the Electoral College. The vote marked for the President and Vice-President candidate on the ballot is considered and counted as a vote for the electors of the party. Whichever presidential candidate wins the popular votes in the state wins all the “pledged” votes of the state’s electors. (The two exceptions to this are Maine and Nebraska, where two electors are chosen by statewide popular vote and the remainder by the popular vote within each Congressional district).

On the Monday following the second Wednesday of December (as established in federal law) each state’s electors meet in their respective state’s and cast their electoral votes. Each elector gets one vote. The electoral votes are then sealed and transmitted from each state to the President of the Senate who, on the following January 6, opens and reads them before both houses of Congress.

Currently, there are 538 electors in the nation and the votes of the majority of them - 270 votes - are required to be elected.

STATEMENT:

Dear Alaskan,

Born and raised in Alaska, I care deeply about the issues facing Alaska families. As a husband, father, small businessman and elected official, I understand the pressures Alaska families face today.

As Mayor, I eliminated a $33 million budget deficit, helped create more than 9,000 jobs, and invested in police, firefighters and schools.

My top priority is to help working families deal with skyrocketing energy costs. We must put an end to market manipulation to lower gas prices. We need responsible oil and gas development that includes building the gasoline and a strong push for renewable energy, conservation and energy efficiency.

As your Senator, I will work hard and do what's right for Alaska families. I will stand up for important Alaska issues such as developing ANWR and protecting our gun rights. I will fight for Alaska solutions on important issues:

- Lowering Energy Costs
- Guaranteeing Access To Affordable Health Care
- Creating New Jobs
- Improving Our Education System
- Strengthening National Security
- Taking Care Of Our Seniors

We must support our military families and keep our promises to our veterans who have bravely served this country and fully fund veteran's health care, education and disability benefits, and pensions.

As your Senator, I will be as independent as Alaska and will fight for Alaska families - not special interests. I will provide open, honest and ethical leadership for Alaska in the U.S. Senate.

I respectfully ask for your vote on Election Day.

STATEMENT:

The problems disturbing us did not happen overnight. An abandonment of the U.S. Constitution and its limited government philosophy is the source of our trouble. Most elected officials are ignorant of their obligation to the Constitution.

The two major parties will only offer more of the same policies, decorated as something new. People are beginning to understand this trick and I offer authentic change.

The message for Alaskans is simple, and deals with basic principles: "The Constitution and nothing but the Constitution."

The message looks attractive as long as we expect our neighbor to forego entitlements and handouts. It becomes controversial when we learn that it also applies to each of us. Yet freedom is far more desirable than control and dependency from federal programs.

We must:

- Rein in the federal judiciary and return troublesome social issues to the states.
- End the following: ethanol subsidies in gasoline; global military actions; and federal control of Alaska's lands. This is part of the solution to lowering prices in food and fuel.
- Defend America's sovereignty from the threat of global and corporate monopolies.
- Defy all attempts at gun control.
- Investigate the IRS, Federal Reserve Bank and all other entities that reduce our human and property rights.

The mistakes have been made for generations; the consequences are with us today; but the solution is at hand: the Constitution and nothing but the Constitution.

My wife Francoise and I are the only couple in American history to have pushed an entire wildlife Act (the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation) through a divided Congress in 1 year to unanimous passage with 60 cosponsors including 22 chairmen and leaders of both parties. We succeeded because we personified the legislation. We can open ANWR in the same way!

STATEMENT:

I am running for Senator for only one reason, to open ANWR. Nothing else is more important to Alaska's future. I am running for only one term to do one all-important thing for Alaska - open ANWR!

My U.S. Senate campaign is unique in several important ways:

I am the ONLY candidate with a NEW specific legislative and PR strategy that will open ANWR in the most beneficial way for Alaska, America, and wildlife.

I will introduce winning ANWR legislation in which ALL Alaskans can fully participate.

I am on the November 2008 election ballot as a NO-PARTY candidate.

I accept NO money from anyone - I will NOT be beholden to anyone.

My wife Francoise and I are a 45-year team that is uniquely qualified to open ANWR.

We personify both the winning high middle WILDLIFE and OIL grounds on ANWR.

Please visit my Web Site at www.tedandfran.com for full details on my candidacy.

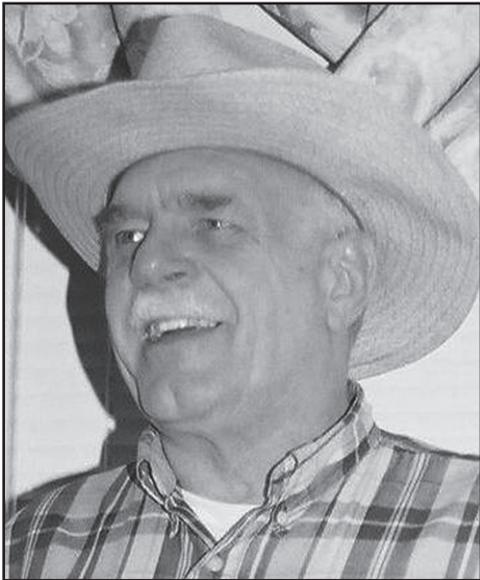

Our Alaska congressional delegation has talked ANWR for decades while they did pork, which benefited them and their families. They could have easily opened ANWR 13 years ago when we put the winning ANWR strategy in their hands. Whether they failed because of ignorance, arrogance, or incompetence, doesn't matter. They failed, and it can't be blamed on anyone other than them.

Enough of all the tired self-serving excuses! No other candidate is better qualified to open ANWR than I am. Elect me, and with your help, we WILL open ANWR!

STATEMENT:

It is an honor to represent Alaskans in the Senate. I have always worked hard to do what is best for Alaska. I will continue to create economic opportunity, jobs, and a secure future for Alaskan families.

I'm especially pleased to be of service when a government agency is unresponsive to an Alaskan.

Energy prices are much too high. We must increase domestic production, reduce speculation, and encourage alternate energy and conservation. Alaskans have proven that we can have resource development with good jobs and a clean environment.

Alaskans can count on me to move the gas line through the federal permitting process quickly and to continue to fight to open ANWR, the OCS and NPRA in a safe way.

Improving roads, airports, and ports remains essential. I will keep working to bring needed improvements to Alaska.

I have also worked to make our military the best-trained and best-equipped. I will make certain our troops have the tools and modern facilities they need on Alaska's bases. And I will continue to support our veterans.

Alaska health care has dramatically improved. I led the effort to increase Medicare reimbursements and expand Denali KidCare. We now also have new clinics and hospitals, better sanitation, and state-of-the-art telemedicine. But more needs to be done, and I will continue to work to increase health care access for all Alaskans.

I ask for and would appreciate your vote. I pledge to use my experience to continue to serve and protect Alaska in Washington, D.C.

STATEMENT:

It's time to put Alaska first. We've seen too much partisanship and too few solutions. It's time to stand up for what's right, to work across party lines, and to get things done for the good of all Alaskans.

ENDING THE ENERGY CRISIS

Soaring gas and home-heating costs threaten families and businesses across Alaska and America. Investments in energy independence — the natural gas pipeline, oil from ANWR and the North Slope, and developing renewable energy — will reduce costs, create jobs, respond to climate change, and strengthen national security.

GROWING THE ECONOMY

We must develop Alaska's resources on our terms and show the discipline to control the national debt. We need to build the infrastructure America needs to compete in a global economy and an educational system that brings out the potential of every student.

PROVIDING QUALITY HEALTHCARE

Everyone deserves access to quality healthcare and doctors should be paid when they provide it. Small businesses should be allowed to pool for cheaper coverage. We must expand Denali Kid Care, and promote wellness and prevention.

TAKING CARE OF OUR VETERANS

Congress must ensure that our troops have the equipment they need to defend themselves and protect our freedoms. The Veterans' Administration must have the means to provide top-quality healthcare and rehabilitation. Our heroes deserve nothing less.

I believe in Alaska. It is time for new energy, new vision, and a renewed commitment to the ideals that make America great. Working together, we will move Alaska forward.

STATEMENT:

It has been an honor to serve you in the U.S. House of Representatives these past 35 years.

Because of your support we have accomplished numerous important projects for our State - the Trans-Alaska Pipeline, new roads, bridges, and ports, medical and clean water facilities in rural areas, a strong military presence, and thousands of new jobs throughout Alaska.

Your continued support has enabled me to serve in top leadership positions, including as Chairman of the Natural Resources Committee and Transportation and Infrastructure Committee where I was able to pass laws to expand our economy and secure numerous projects requested by individual communities throughout Alaska.

There are 435 Members in Congress and as Alaska's only representative I believe it is my job to represent your needs in Washington, D.C..

During the past year, a lot has been written and speculated about my legal expenses. I can assure you that I love my family, the office I serve, and Alaska too much to intentionally and willfully bring any discredit or dishonor.

Working with the federal government requires legal representation, which in turn comes with both a dollar cost and an agreement not to discuss that in public. This is frustrating for me as I have always been known to speak my mind and be forthright and forthcoming.

Alaska's future is one of unlimited potential. By managing our resources wisely, we can provide for a healthy environment and a diverse economy - both for ourselves and future generations.

I ask for your continued support.

STATEMENT:

I believe that all Alaskans deserve open, honest government and that all elected officials should work for and listen to all people. Above all, Alaskans can work together to accomplish great things. We need real leadership to face the challenges ahead of us:

Renewable Energy - Long-term investment in smart renewable energy projects, such as tidal, geothermal, in-stream hydroelectric and biomass projects, can help us create good-paying Alaskan jobs and provide affordable energy to Alaskans throughout the state.

Healthcare - All Alaskans deserve access to high-quality, affordable healthcare, and I will fight to ensure that no Alaskan family ever has to choose between healthcare and other necessities.

Transportation - As our population grows, especially in the Valley, we must provide adequate, affordable transportation options. We must ensure that our roads meet the demand, and we must actively pursue other alternatives, such as commuter rail.

Social Justice - Victims of domestic violence and sexual assault must have access to support services for both themselves and their families. I will champion these programs at the state level whenever possible.

STATEMENT:

The last four decades I have had the privilege to connect with a large cross-section of the people in the Mat-Su Valley and around the State of Alaska. This has allowed me to listen and learn what issues are important to the people of this district and how we could work together to address their concerns and accomplish the goal of resolving them. Over the years I have been able to create a great network of resources to draw from in making decisions that affect the community and the state as a whole. As a member of the Mat-Su Borough School Board for twelve years, I shared the responsibility with fellow board members overseeing policies and financial decisions guiding the direction of the school district. In many ways this mirrors the responsibility of the legislature in determining the direction of the state. My work in the education, service, and health fields, as well as my positions in the business world, have given me the experience and knowledge to make responsible and educated decisions regarding the future of our dynamic State of Alaska.

I support and will advocate for revenue sharing for municipalities; adequate funding for education; ensuring safe communities; sensible economic development; improving the infrastructure across the Mat-Su Borough; promotion of tourism in the Valley; regulations conducive to all commercial, sport, and person-use fishing; and recognition of our veterans and military.

My wife Melissa and I started a bookstore seven years ago in downtown Palmer. People thought it couldn't be done, but we made a go of it. We now have six permanent employees on our team, and the store has become an active, bustling part of our community.

STATEMENT:

I am running because we need a Representative with the leadership and vision to fight for a better future:

- Mat-Su residents face a transportation and economic crisis. People are giving up good jobs in Anchorage because they can no longer afford the high cost of gasoline. We should have initiated commuter rail years ago. I will continue to fight for commuter rail, for road improvements and for other transportation priorities.
- The recent surge in local property values has resulted in an increased property tax burden. To reduce this burden, I support using some of the state's surplus to offset more of the cost of education. In order to improve the quality of teacher recruitment and retention we also need to reject changes to benefits made under the Murkowski administration. We have a hidden jewel in the Valley: the Ma-Su College. It's time for the state to recognize what a great economic resource advanced and technical education can be.
- Economic development is vital to the success of our region. We are momentarily blessed with a huge surplus in the state budget. It is vital that we have leadership to invest these new revenues wisely. I heartily support a natural gas pipeline with a spur to the Mat-Su. I will work with other legislators, the governor and private enterprise to ensure that this new economic boom gives rise to a robust, diverse, and stable economy. I especially support developing renewable energy resources.

STATEMENT:

- The fundamental element of good state government lies in the moral values and integrity of the Alaska citizens being represented. The PEOPLE create the government that governs them by approval and maintenance of the Alaska Constitution—and by electing politicians who reflect their values. Voter apathy is the biggest threat to our representative form of government.
- It is the responsibility of an elected official to be accessible and responsive to constituent input and feedback and to transparently apply decision standards based on consistent values so voters will have concrete reasons to support or not support a candidate.
- Some (not all) values you get with me include (in general terms): Constructionist interpretation of the Constitution (state and federal); necessity of balance of power between branches of government; policy based on market driven inducements (competition, and profit motive); traditional family values (including parental rights and responsibilities, one man-one woman marriage); protection of the innocent; provision for the helpless; grass roots control preference; emphasis on personal freedoms, ownership, choice, and responsibility; resource management for the maximum benefit of Alaskans; support for a quality education system accessible to all; prioritization of a quality state transportation and utility infrastructure; and, a robust law enforcement and corrections system. Those who want a 'nanny-government' that is overly involved in programs for controlling/ protecting/ reforming the masses should probably not vote for me.

STATEMENT:

The Alaska State constitution reads as follows: "We the people of Alaska, grateful to God and to those who founded our nation and pioneered this great land, in order to secure and transmit to succeeding generations our heritage of political, civil, and religious liberty within the Union of States, do ordain and establish this constitution for the State of Alaska". I pledge to protect and uphold the Alaska State Constitution as well as the United State Constitution.

Our great state has many renewable resources benefiting all Alaskans, the responsibility to develop these resources without harm to our wildlife and environment will be one of my highest priorities.

I support democracy in the workplace through collective bargaining. Fair employee compensation (wage, health benefits, retirement) will assist the growth of our local economy.

Some might say I'm new to the political scene. I believe that my political inexperience and freshness is exactly what qualifies me. Can someone fairly and objectively vote on an issue if their campaign coffers are full of money from special interest groups? Can they fairly represent the people? Alaska can't afford any more "Experienced Politicians".

I have never felt more proud of my country than at this time and I stand for the freedom that America offers its people. Alaska needs straight talk and common sense. When you go to the polls this year, bring a balance to representation in the Mat-Su Valley.

Respectfully,
Lew Dischner III

STATEMENT:

I would appreciate your vote in this election. It has been an honor serving as your representative in the Alaska State Legislature and I look forward to the continued challenge.

Gas Pipeline: Supports a natural gas pipeline that will benefit all Alaskans with emphasis on Alaskan hire and attributes that provide access for Alaskans, while delivering the gas to markets in a safe and efficient manner.

Public Safety: Supported the opening of the new troop-er detachment in Meadow Lakes and provided additional funding to local fire stations so that homeowners would feel relief from local taxes and insurance rates.

Education: Supported a significant increase in the funding for local K-12 education, averting proposed cuts to Valley schools at a time when our community continues to grow at a substantial rate.

During the past two years, representing this geographically large and diverse district proved to be exciting and rewarding. I have spent many hours at public meetings held up and down the Valley, all of them attended by people interested in bettering our community and this wonderful state. The comments I've heard addressed concern over fiscal stability, responsible resource development, and a feeling of disconnect from our state government. I've had the opportunity to work with many of you to address these concerns and I look forward to continuing that relationship in the future.

Alaska's future will be bright and prosperous if we make the right decisions today. I ask for your support in this election.

STATEMENT:

I am running because we need a new voice in Juneau. I will be an advocate for children, seniors and all Alaskans by listening and representing you in the Legislature.

STATEMENT:

I am running for State Senate because I am the best candidate to represent our community in the Legislature. I am not a politician and I am not going to Juneau to play partisan games. I am a former U.S. Marine with two deployments in Iraq, and my focus is getting the job done right.

The upcoming legislature has many important obligations to Alaska's citizens. With the current surplus, one of its most important obligations is to find the right balance between saving for and investing in the future.

My priorities are:

- Lowering the cost of Health care: right now Alaska has regulations that do nothing more than drive up the cost of health care without improving the quality of service. Those regulations need to be relaxed or preferably, removed. Also, I would work toward ensuring all children have access to health care.
- Improving Education: we cannot invest in our future without investing in our children. We need a nurturing and challenging education system that includes pre-school, vocational classes and outstanding universities.
- Veterans Issues: As a veteran, I know the great personal sacrifices our service members make day in and day out. They deserve someone who will take care of them while they take care of us.

Alaska needs energetic legislators who will represent their whole community and their state. It needs legislators who are willing to reach across political divides to put Alaskans first; legislators who can compromise on issues without compromising themselves.

STATEMENT:

Our Constitution mandates democratically elected representatives craft laws and make budget decisions within the confines of the State and US Constitutions. I am committed to restoring public confidence by eliminating corruption and partisan politics.

Alaska's economy is driven by Natural Resources such as oil, gas, minerals, fish and timber. I have worked to make these industries grow responsibly. My past experience in Alaska's oil and commercial fishing industries has been helpful. I am now confident we will be able to build an Alaska Gas Pipeline.

A strong military is essential to protect our nation and values. I will continue to support a very strong U.S. military on a national and state level. I have supported every increase in veterans' benefits and treatment in Alaska and intend to increase my efforts on veterans benefits.

I passed legislation 6 years ago that requires the Alaska State Budget to be prioritized when it is presented to the legislature to facilitate cutting non-essential or ineffective activities. I also introduced legislation for a Spending Cap and Savings Plan. I will resubmit a bill to sunset every State Department every 10 years.

I support reductions in state spending and I will not support an income tax. Penalizing people for working is not good public policy. Protecting gun owner rights, privacy, families and children are very important to me.

My staff and I will always assist people in our district as they deal with government at every level.

STATEMENT:

Eagle River has witnessed significant growth during my ten years of elected public service. Teamwork and cooperation have been key elements of my career. By working together, we have a new high school, renovations to Chugiak High, a recycling center, funding and more control for our local road service area and improved lighting on the Glenn Highway. It has been my honor to work with the Eagle River delegation towards these community improvements.

I have sponsored and co-sponsored legislation that prohibits fundraising by a legislator during a regular legislative session; provided free hunting/sport fishing licenses for disabled veterans and active members of the Alaska National Guard and Military Reserves; and strengthened Alaska's laws on requirements for reporting child pornography. I have also supported the Alaska Personal Information Protection Act and a Renewable Energy Grant Fund and Task Force. In addition, we have taken on the responsibility of years of underfunding the State's PERS/TERS retirement system.

I will continue to work for responsible development of Alaska's resources, safe neighborhoods, quality education for our children and good jobs for all Alaskans both now and well into the future. My focus for all actions will be fiscal accountability to you the voters.

Together we have made a difference for Eagle River. I'm asking for your vote so we can continue working together for our community.

STATEMENT:

It has been an honor to represent House District 18 -
Government Hill, Muldoon, Eagle River, Elmendorf Air Force Base and Fort Richardson Army Base - for the past 6 years.

Being your community advocate is a rewarding and challenging experience and one I wish to continue with your support. To do just that, I stand strong in our values of ensuring healthy families, quality education, safe neighborhoods, good jobs, and personal freedoms.

With the blessings of high oil prices our state surplus has grown and will be ripe for the taking. We must be prudent when building next year's budget. We have an incredible opportunity to pay down unfunded PERS and TRS liabilities, address needed deferred maintenance projects across the state, forward fund education so our school districts can plan accordingly and actively control the growth of government so we can maintain its size and needs when oil prices drop. Above all, we must put a significant portion of the surplus away in savings for our future generations. In addition, this year provides a unique challenge to look for ways to reduce the cost of energy to Alaskans by building efficient energy infrastructure that is affordable to all Alaskans. As the owners of our rich resource, we must find a way to provide energy to our residents at an affordable rate - first and foremost.

This job really is about people - you! I would be honored to earn your support and vote in the upcoming General Election.

STATEMENT:

I came to Alaska 27 years ago because of the freedom and opportunities this great state offered. I am running to represent my neighbors in Juneau to ensure Alaska remains and land of opportunity for hardworking families. I will work hard every day to keep your trust, and I will not tolerate corruption. I will stand up for hardworking Alaskans, and my priorities will be:

Honesty and Ethics: I will follow the spirit, not just the letter, of all ethics laws. You will always know that I am working for you, and when I make a promise — I will keep it.

Energy Relief: I will fight to use the budget surplus to provide relief for Alaskan families who are struggling to pay their bills, and to invest in new energy sources for long-term solutions to lower energy costs.

Improving our schools: I will fight to increase funding for neighborhood schools, improve UAA, and restore competitive pay and benefits so that we can hire the best teachers for our students.

Tax Relief: I will work to lower property taxes by increasing revenue sharing.

Fiscal Responsibility: As a small business owner, the first thing I did every month was post a budget on my bulletin board. I worked hard to stick to our budget.

Build the Gasline: I will continue the fight for an Alaska gas pipeline.

Protecting the Permanent Fund: I will oppose any effort to use the Permanent Fund to pay for government spending.

I would appreciate your vote.

STATEMENT:

Many Alaskans have lost faith in their elected officials to truly represent their best interests. I will apply the same work ethic of honest, hard work that proved successful for me as a teacher, community leader and business owner to build trust in the Legislative process.

Deliberations must continue regarding the best plan to market Alaska's natural gas. We only have one opportunity to get the process right. We can not afford to tie our hands for 30 - 45 years on a process that doesn't have guaranteed results or has withstood court challenges that could result from a profits based method of taxation. We must invest the time and effort to get this right.

The Legislature needs to get back to the discussion of a long term fiscal plan while the coffers are full and not wait for the next desperate financial crisis. As a result of developing such a financial plan, we can continue to move forward with support for adequate funding of education. It would allow for long range neighborhood road and transportation improvement projects that have often been overlooked and ignored.

Great strides have been made in improving order and safety in our neighborhoods, but much more can be done to deliver punishment to the offenders, to enforce our existing laws and to eliminate gang activity. Identifying the problem isn't enough. Solving it is the only acceptable result.

STATEMENT:

Alaska has the country's largest budget surplus, but the cost of living is so high that our people are desperate. Alaskans need immediate assistance to survive the winter.

In response to the greatest ethical scandal since statehood, the legislature passed a tough new ethics law and increased state oil and gas revenues, bringing over $5 billion more to the state. It rejected the Murkowski proposed gas pipeline contract, providing the opportunity to consider better alternatives.

These enormous challenges require exceptional leadership - statesmen with integrity and intelligence, vision and courage. Leaders who will listen, forge consensus, and solve problems - people with experience and innovative ideas. These are not easy to find. You can help by electing the best candidates and giving them good advice.

As your representative, I've worked for ethics reform and supported enhanced state oil and gas revenues and a gas line that will employ thousands of Alaskans - one which will bring billions more to the State and supply energy to America.

I've helped our district receive funding for the Bragaw-Glenn Interchange, the new Clark Middle School, a new Fire Station 3, and the new Mountain View Services Center (the old Sadler Building).

I strengthened state arson laws and drafted Alaska's tough new distracted driving law. And my office has helped many people solve their problems with government - making government work for you.

Working together, we can solve our problems and meet the challenges of the future.

I'd appreciate your vote.

STATEMENT:

I have had the pleasure of working with many of you while directing the Mountain View Community Council Spring Clean-up and 4th of July picnic.

I am asking for your vote so I can be your full-time representative in District 20.

Trying to keep the streets clean is a start, but we have a lot of work to do to improve our good neighborhoods.

My goals are:

1. More sidewalks at Ptarmigan Elementary.
2. A working sound system at our supposed safe-haven: William Tyson Elementary.
3. Give our school principals "in loco parentis" - the power to press charges when students are attacked and intimidated on school property.

The reason Alaska is not as good as it could be is not because we have more people but because we have more government regulation. Our government is growing and becoming intrusive by passing too many laws. I will ask you to judge my service in the state house by how many laws I repeal, not how many knee-jerk laws I pass. I promise not to pass laws against using cell phones or DVD's in cars - we already have laws against distracted driving. Passing more and more laws is not the answer.

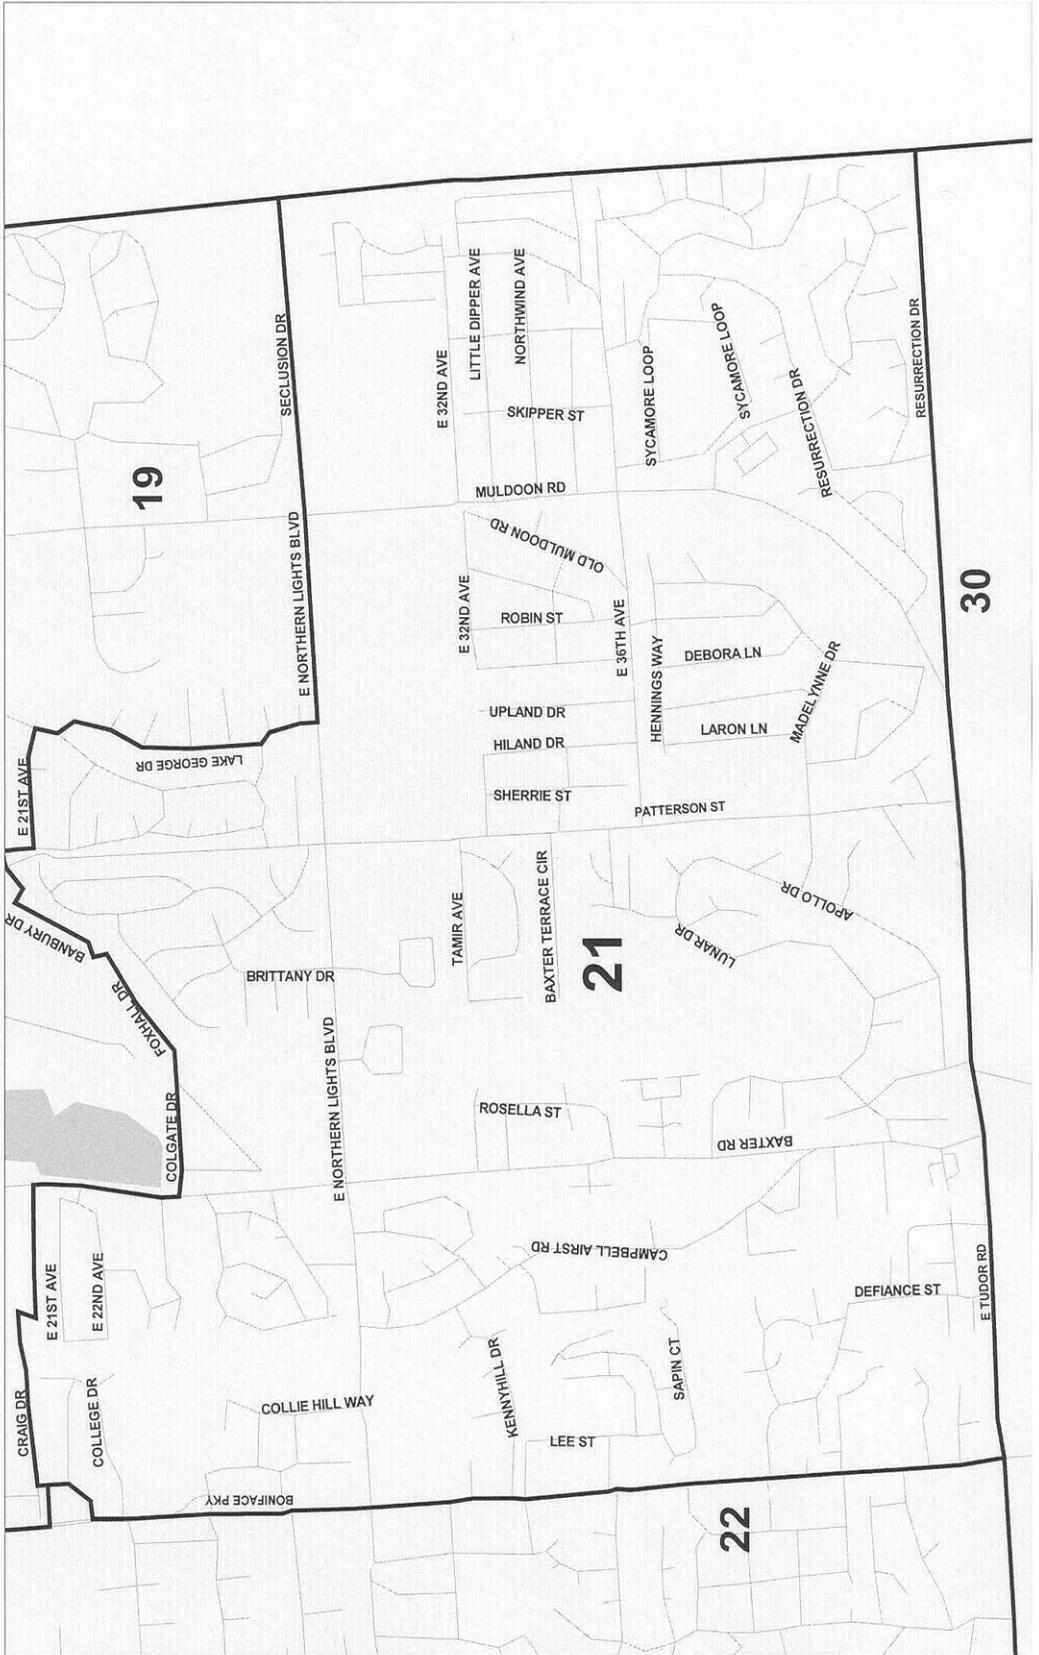

Many of our lawmakers have come to think their office is a birthright. Change will not come about from switching from one big political party to the other. Only dynamic, full-time leadership can achieve our goals. Give me the job of state representative so I may serve you with all my energy!

Thank-you.

STATEMENT:

"New Energy for East Anchorage," is the motto best reflecting my high level of volunteer activity in our community, my energy background and the energy challenges we Alaskans now face.

I focus on 'energy' because it sustains life and supplies the basic wealth for our state today and for our kids and grandchildren later. If we don't resolve Alaska's energy issues quickly and wisely, we jeopardize our own livelihoods and threaten Alaska's future.

A former commissioner of the Regulatory Commission of Alaska, I have carefully studied our natural gas and electricity supply issues. I've made many tough decisions on pipeline and utility rates and services. Those RCA deliberations prepared me to make solid and critical energy decisions in spite of personal and political pressures.

Here are my energy priorities:

- Base energy and all natural resource decisions on maximum benefit to all Alaska generations, not just current residents.
- Obtain secure energy supplies for residents, businesses and industry.
- Support North Slope gas pipeline project returning to Alaska the highest wellhead value.

Here are some of my philosophical principles:

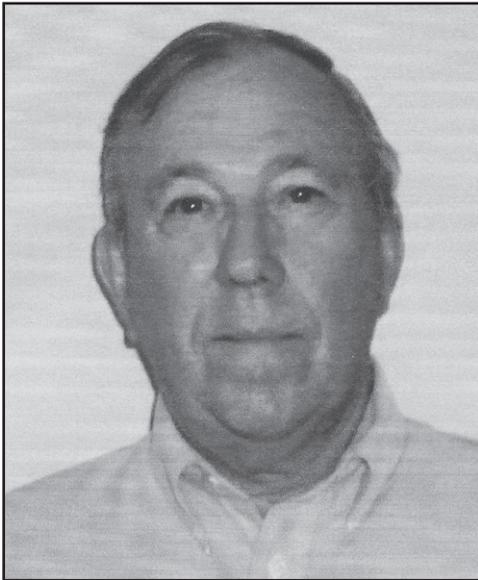

- Support American values, including reliance on God and free enterprise.
- Moderate taxes, spending and regulations to encourage investment, economic activity and job creation.
- Assure State funded capital projects make sense and improve the quality of life in East Anchorage.
- Lower crime by improving prosecution and increasing penalties.
- Forward funding of education can provide certainty to employees and relief to property taxpayers.

Thank you,
Dave Harbour

STATEMENT:

Gene Brokaw is running for the House seat in East Anchorage's District 21.

Gene's communications experience dates to his work with RCA on Alaska's White Alice Communication System. The White Alice project was a key component of America's national defense.

A Navy veteran, Gene served on the helicopter carrier USS Thetis Bay and then on the Admiral's staff at Commander Fleet Air Whidbey in Washington State. He is also a member of the American Legion.

Gene returned to Alaska in 1996, bought a home in District 21 in 1998, and has worked for GCI as a circuit design engineer for the past 11.5 years.

In addition to being a long-term employee in the communications industry, Gene has also owned a small electronics business. "I am quite aware of the challenges of Alaska's small business community," Brokaw stated.

A second cousin of famed newsman Tom Brokaw, this is Gene Brokaw's first step into Alaska's political process. "Alaska's Legislature is where the rubber meets the road for District 21 and all other Alaskan residents," Brokaw said. "I am eager to listen to issues from health to pot-holes, from roads to military and veterans affairs. We need to do a better job of helping our residents prosper and live safely."

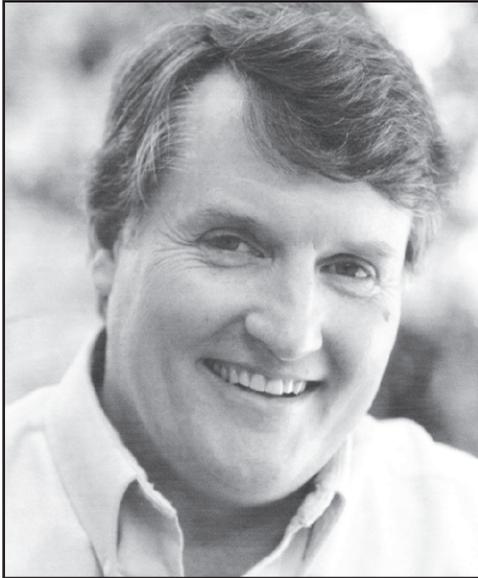

He is also a motorcycle enthusiast and enjoys camping in the family motorhome. Gene has two daughters and three grandchildren.

Gene views his responsibilities in the State House as advocating for fiscal conservatism. Gene is not under any special interest group's influence.

STATEMENT:

I can hardly believe two years have passed since I last wrote a statement for the election pamphlet. The days have flown by and I have truly enjoyed both the successes and struggles of this term. As I write this statement we are the closest we have ever been to building a gas pipeline, yet there is no time to relax.

I have ignored party lines in working with Gov. Palin and my fellow legislators to pass needed legislation and identify priorities for Alaska's future. I co-sponsored a Constitutional Amendment with Ralph Samuels to turn the Budget Reserve into an endowment. An endowment coupled with the surplus, we could provide a recurring revenue stream equivalent to discovering a Kuparuk-sized oil field that never runs dry.

Using my experience in the Legislative process and the relationships I've built in both parties, I was able to pass an Alcohol ID law that restricts repeat offenders from purchasing alcohol and I was also able to jumpstart the Fire Island Wind Project.

Ensuring Alaska's future by balancing our current needs with prudent investment in both Alaskans and infrastructure is my highest priority.

My pledge to you is that I will work to use Alaska's oil and gas wealth to free Alaskans from the burden of high energy costs by investing in alternatives that are not hostage to the world price of oil.

It has been an honor to represent you and I would very much appreciate your support on election day.

STATEMENT:

The loveliest parks in Anchorage, friendly and caring communities, with connecting bike/walking trails. This is the place that most of Alaska comes to for higher education and the entire range of quality health services and institutions with the know-how to solve many of the toughest health problems. I have been fortunate to live 30 years in our area of Anchorage as a neighbor, friend, parent, student, business-person, health counselor, park and school volunteer!

The enormous challenges our state faces on health fronts partially frame the duty our District Representative must fill. State Health & Social Services (DHSS) grew this year to over $2 billion. The largest single segment is Medicaid's growing chronic health conditions (many preventable) cost. Correct government health expenditure, focused on strengthening and protecting Alaskans, would lower costs and resulting damage.

Our whole state depends on the health of what our district hosts: the educational and health 'industries' that strengthen incentives for a healthier population. Our children, adults and seniors need that outcome. Also critical is finding citizen-focused solutions for quality, affordable health care, sufficient, quality investment in education, adequate attention to the needs of public safety and transportation. It demands watchfulness to improve and maintain our incredible wealth of recreation trails and parks. For the people of this district and of neighboring Alaska these needs must be met.

It has been a great privilege to work toward this end. I would be proud to continue to serve the people of our District as State Representative!

STATEMENT:

While serving Alaska as a member of it's Army National Guard, I have traveled throughout Alaska meeting and working with Alaskans in the best and worst of times. I have always been impressed with Alaskans' courage and commitment.

It is to honor that courage and commitment that I wish to be your representative.

My qualifications include:

- Analytical skills honed by years of researching and interpreting complex technical manuals and Army regulations.
- The ability to work effectively within diverse groups, recently proven by my work as president of Airport Heights community council and volunteer coordinator for Palin for governor 2006.
- Decision making ability sharpened by years of daily critical flight safety decisions and overseeing the flight safety decisions of others.

A few goals I would like to achieve while in the legislature are:

- Crime reduction through community policing
- Traffic management that considers neighborhoods
- K-12 education fully funded at the state level
- Provide for a 100 percent property tax exemption for owner-occupied properties
- Quality public sanitation and clean water for all Alaskans

I believe our state and federal constitutions must be adhered to. One of the few roles of government is to protect the rights of the minority from the tyranny of the majority and there is no smaller minority than the individual.

Life, liberty and property are essential to sustain free individuals and a robust society.

It is for this reason no food, water or shelter needed to sustain life should ever be taxed.

STATEMENT:

Alaskans deserve politicians who listen, and don't just talk. Listening to your concerns has helped me work for needed change in Juneau. I'll keep standing up for what's right, and working across party lines to push for solutions.

Since being elected in 2002 I've fought those who've tried to corrupt the legislature. I've called for legislators to address your needs, not the "wants" of special interests. In the past year I've worked to: pass a needed oil tax reform law; co-author a landmark, bi-partisan identity theft and social security number protection law; and help write early education, university financial aid, and domestic violence prevention legislation.

While the FBI has helped catch politicians who've violated the public's trust, I've written and helped pass ethics legislation making it a felony for politicians to trade votes for campaign donations; and, banning legislators from taking hidden "consulting" fees from those who have business before the legislature. I've worked to limit the influence of money in politics, and reversed a Murkowski-era law that made it easier for lobbyists to give money to legislators Working for a Better Future. Investing in needed renewable energy, and a gas pipeline will reduce our long term energy costs, and create needed hi-tech jobs in Alaska. I'll keep working to:

- expand health coverage, and get doctors who'll take Medicare patients;
- strengthen our schools, the university and job training;
- protect our fishing streams and outdoors; and,
- Strengthen the economy.

I'd be honored with your vote.

State legislators face high stakes decisions affecting our future. My business experience and my personal passions for education, for child and family well-being, and for communities serve as a springboard to work for the changes we need to prepare Alaskans for a solid future in this beautiful state.

- Develop our resources for the benefit of all Alaskans

- Improve our educational systems; including University & Vocational Education
- Increase access to healthcare for all Alaskans
- Assure public safety

My major accomplishments:

- Enhanced election security
- Tighter legislative ethics laws
- Improved consumer protection
- Enhanced public safety

My husband and I have lived 16 years in this district, raising our children, volunteering with schools and neighborhood groups and running our own businesses. My family and my roots are here. I understand my community and the community knows me to be independent, tough and fair.

I believe that a good government rests on a basis of honesty and openness, and that a legislator's first responsibility is to make state government work for the people represented. My pledge is to be responsive to my constituents. My cell phone number, good in Anchorage and Juneau is 223-9330. I'm Berta....and I'm listening.

If we work together, Alaska's best days are still ahead.

I'd appreciate your vote!

Uwe Kalenka, Republican

STATEMENT:

For some reason, the legislature will not listen to District 24. How long are we supposed to wait? We need better representation! We need better representation! The citizens have spoken; FIX LAKE OTIS AND TUDOR!

I appreciate our God-given freedoms, I'm grateful for Alaska. I love America! Some people say we can't say that anymore. I say they're wrong, we can shout it from the rooftop if we want! I grew up as a non-U.S citizen, I know what I'm talking about - we have so much to be thankful for here. I'm fed up with "political correctness" and noisy critics who focus on finding fault, and never see the good. I'm also opposed to "socializing" government programs. All over the world, experience has shown it's usually very expensive and almost never works. As your state representative, I promise to be frugal with your money, and represent the values of thrift, independence and loyalty. And I'll work hard to encourage other legislators to do the same. I ask that you give me a chance - I think you'll like the change."

Alaska elected a new administration in 2006 because we wanted a change in executive leadership. Now we need to make some changes in the state legislature as well.

Too many doctors will not accept seniors on Medicare. Alaska should consider supplementing the federal Medicare amount to (Pace Program) doctor so seniors will be able to have a choice for their medical care.

STATEMENT:

I am running for re-election because I believe that Alaska's best years are still ahead. I am excited about helping set a course for the state that fulfills our obligations to the next generation.

When I first ran for public office, I promised to work with both sides of the aisle to get things done. I believe the accomplishments of the 25th Legislature fulfilled that promise.

- We put $5 billion into savings, the largest deposit into savings in the state's history.
- We solved the persistent problem of regional equity in education funding and provided for early and full funding for our schools.
- We began paying down the state's unfunded liability owed to public employee's retirement.
- We made significant investments in alternative and renewable energy.

Most of this was made possible by the fulfillment of a Democratic effort that began in 2004 to reform our outdated oil taxation methodology, which culminated in the passage of ACES. That bill ensures that Alaskans enjoy the 'maximum benefit' of our natural resource wealth, as commanded by our state constitution.

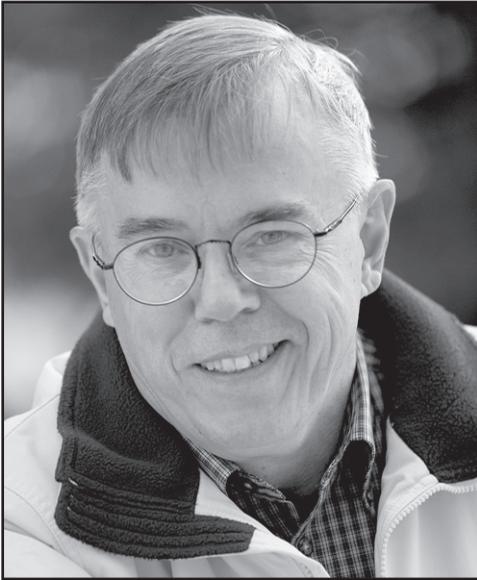

Significant challenges remain. We must see that a gas line is actually built. We must continue to combat our shameful rates of sex assault and abuse. We must strive to make our education system the envy of the nation.

I believe that these goals can be accomplished. I enjoy public service, and thank you for your past support. I am asking for your vote on Election Day.

Mike Doogan is a third-generation Alaskan. He was born in Fairbanks on June 7, 1948. He moved to Anchorage in 1964 and has lived here since. He graduated from West Anchorage High School in 1966 and from the University of San Francisco in 1970. In 1999, he received a Master of Fine Arts degree from the University of Alaska Anchorage.

Mike and his wife Kathy, have been married since 1970. They have two adult children, Matthew and Amy. Mike and Kathy have lived in House District 25 since 1973.

Mike has worked as a Teamster, teacher, janitor and legislative aide, but for most of his adult life was a journalist, including nearly 14 years as a columnist for the Anchorage Daily News. He has published a number of books of nonsense about Alaska and currently writes mystery novels. He was elected to the state House in 2006.

STATEMENT:

When I asked for your vote two years ago, I said that I would:

-- Work across party lines.

Did I? Yes.

I supported Gov. Sarah Palin on AGIA and oil taxes, and worked with Rep. Ralph Samuels to change the Constitutional Budget Reserve into a source of investment revenue for the state.

-- Work for open, honest government.

Did I? Yes.

I pushed for and voted for major changes to tighten the state's ethics laws. To this day, I haven't taken a free meal or a free drink from anybody.

-- Work to save windfall oil revenue.

Did I? Yes.

Each year, I sponsored bills to save more than $1 billion, and was pleased to be able to vote this year to save $4 billion.

-- Work to be sure the legislature attends to its constitutional responsibilities in education and health and welfare.

Did I? Yes. I was a strong voice for the senior assistance program, and am a supporter of my senator, Hollis French, in his attempts to bring health care to all Alaskans.

-- Work to foster jobs, job training and economic activity in Alaska.

Did I? Yes. Along with Rep. Harry Crawford, I helped secure a project labor agreement in the AGIA legislation as a way of guaranteeing jobs for Alaskans.

I didn't win on every issue. But I did what I said I'd do, and I'd like your vote on Nov. 4 to keep on doing it.

STATEMENT:

Lynda Placek was brought to Alaska by her family in 1969. At first she hated the move, having moved away from her friends below. Within two years was part of the very fabric of her new home, and could not be displaced from Alaska. When you are an Alaskan everything that concerns your home matters to you, as it matters to Lynda. I have had good times here along with the bad. I have lost many loved ones here, Step Dad, and brother, two sons, But God is still good. I live in Midtown with my husband Mark, and I still love my home, and want to see improvements. These improvements can be made as long as the People of Alaska work together honestly, and for everybody concerned I believe that unemployment is to high here and Alaskans should be trained for Alaskan Jobs, even up North, on the big money Jobs. I believe that Education is very important but so is Healthcare for everybody including our elderly (We all will get Old) I'm not sure what is the correct way; to get started getting these things accomplished, But I'm Ready to Rip into Action towards getting it done. Stand by me on Election Day, as I stand by you. Please vote for Lynda Placek.

STATEMENT:

I am running for re-election because I love Alaska, I believe in our future, and I want to ensure Alaska continues to be a land of opportunity.

I was born and raised in West Anchorage and graduated from West High School. My parents were active members of this community and they instilled in me a strong sense of community and public service. I care about the future of our community and our state.

One of my top priorities this year was to save the surplus, and we saved a record-setting $5 billion. We forward funded education, paid down a significant amount of the state retirement system debt, and shared the state's surplus with local communities through revenue sharing.

I sponsored successful crime legislation targeting repeat domestic violence offenders. Over the past two years, I helped put more computers into our local classrooms, and obtained funding to improve pedestrian and bicycle accommodations, reduce travel speeds, and decrease cut-through traffic in our neighborhoods.

There's still a lot more work to do.

After serving my first term in the Legislature, I continue to firmly believe that public service is about integrity, hard work and an honest concern for the future of all Alaskans.

Representing our community in Juneau has been a tremendous privilege. Together we can continue fighting for open and honest government, a gas pipeline, safe communities, a strong economy, reasonable long-term energy costs, quality education for our kids, and access to affordable healthcare.

I would appreciate your vote on Election Day.

STATEMENT:

We Alaskans are at a crossroads in choosing the priorities that will determine our quality of life for generations to come. The gas pipeline must be our #1 priority. However we cannot let the focus on gas and oil blind us to the need for renewable energy sources. Renewable energy from geothermal, solar, hydroelectric, wind, and tides, if developed with vision and imagination will someday supply low cost energy to all Alaskans for generations. Expanding current energy programs already underway, and developing new programs are what we need to satisfy our growing appetite for energy. Road maintenance in our neighborhoods and on main roads needs to be stepped up. We need a productive and strong educational system with emphasis on keeping our teachers in the system until retirement. We need and deserve a strong commitment to public safety. We need to increase access to health care for all Alaskans. These are my priorities if elected. I would like to join our legislature to help lead the way in forming long-term investment strategies and programs in these areas.

I believe in limited government and personal responsibility. As a business owner I understand the budget process, income, expenditures, and the impact taxes have on the individual and businesses alike. I want to take that experience to Juneau and put it to work for everyone in House District 27, and the State of Alaska.

OTHER:

My daughters attended Klatt Elementary, Mears Middle School and Dimond High. My special interest has been to be actively involved in their education and their lives.

STATEMENT:

For the past two years, it's been my honor to represent Southwest Anchorage in the legislature. My top priorities have been improving the quality of our schools, protecting our neighborhoods, securing funding for road and safety improvements and working to ensure Alaska's future - by making the gas pipeline a reality.

Like many, I came here seeking adventure and opportunity - and quickly fell in love with Alaska. Especially the 'can-do' spirit. With your support, I'll continue to work to realize Alaska's vast potential.

While our economy is strong, it's imperative to plan well ahead to ensure good jobs and opportunity for our children and future generations. Building the gas line is one key. Developing renewable alternative energy sources to help lower fuel costs is also important. And controlling the cost and size of government to attract new businesses - and keep our taxes low - is critical.

As a fiscal conservative, I'm committed to holding government accountable and will use my decades of business experience to make that happen. I'll also protect the Permanent Fund as our legacy to future generations.

Southwest Anchorage offers a truly unique quality of life. But as one of the city's fastest growing areas, we need strong representation in the legislature to make sure our voice is heard.

With over two decades of management experience, legislative seniority and 18 years residence in District 28, I believe I have the experience to provide strong leadership for Southwest Anchorage.

And I would very much appreciate your vote and continued support.

STATEMENT:

I would appreciate your vote on Election Day. I look forward to bringing my leadership and experience to the State Senate. As a state legislator, I have worked hard on the important issues facing our state:

Public Safety: Sponsored legislation that focused on combating underage drinking, protecting victims' rights, and providing the strongest penalties for egregious crimes, such as sexual assault and exploitation of children.

Education: Consistently voted to increase funding for K-12 education and the University of Alaska, secured forward funding of education, promoted vocational-technical education, and provided funding for critical upgrades to our local schools.

Public Finance: Worked to reduce the growth of government spending in the state operating budget, led the effort to save $5 billion in surplus revenues for the future, and opposed punitive taxes that would harm our economy.

Resource Development: Advocated for responsible development of our resources, supported efforts to move a natural gas pipeline forward, and emphasized the importance of local hire for all resource development projects in Alaska.

Protecting Our Quality of Life: Promoted funding for our local parks and trails, acquired funding for upgrades and maintenance to our swimming pools, and worked to increase recreational opportunities for Alaskans.

None of my accomplishments as a legislator would have been possible without the people that I represent. It has been an honor and a privilege serving you. I look forward to working together to ensure that Alaska is a great place to live, work, and raise a family. Thank you for your support!

STATEMENT:

Hard work, dedication, and the will to succeed are the values that built and pioneered Alaska. Throughout my life I have demonstrated these values. I have been working to make our community efforts succeed; fighting for better working conditions, building and repairing homes for the less fortunate, and supporting local schools. These are the reasons I want to be your representative.

As I go door to door talking with my neighbors, I notice families are concerned about the current direction of our state. We need a government that is connected with the people.

I am running because Alaska's future depends on better decision making in Juneau. Alaska needs legislators that will fight for working people. I've seen many friends and neighbors leave the state because Alaska does not offer enough education or job opportunities.

Alaska can be the place where ideas and innovations flourish, education is of the highest quality, the economy thrives, and jobs are rewarding.

As treasurer of the Anchorage School Board I bring a unique perspective on fiscal responsibility. High oil revenues will not last. We need a long term vision for future financial, industrial, and infrastructural investments. I will fight to provide necessary public services while living within our means.

Alaska is blessed with incredible natural resources and talented people and I am dedicated and will work hard to protect the best interest of all Alaskans. My only special interest is you!

Vote Chris Tuck for State House.

STATEMENT:

As a lifelong Alaskan, I am strongly committed to creating a prosperous and sustainable future for our state.
Moving forward, Alaska needs leaders with vision, energy, commitment and integrity. My experience in the private sector and the legislative/executive branches of government has provided me with a solid understanding of statewide issues, while volunteering in our community has given me important perspectives on our neighborhood issues. We need legislators who are sensible, reasonable, capable and willing to listen. I will bring an experienced voice and a conservative, common sense approach to Juneau. With your help, we will address:

Education

All students deserve a quality education, whether on a college track or planning to attend a vocational training program. A strong university and robust vocational programs are necessary to ensure that when jobs are created, Alaskans are equipped to fill them.

Energy

We must develop an energy plan for Alaska that includes development of renewable energy, continued development of our non-renewable resources and conservation.
Development based on sound science, supported by thorough state and federal permitting processes, with fair incentives and taxation systems that encourage new and continued investment in our state.

Economy

A state government that lives within its means signals a stable investment climate for businesses. In times of surplus revenue, we must ensure that we save responsibly to prepare ourselves for times of lower revenue. Alaska needs a competitive business climate, supporting the industries already here, while attracting new industry to our state.

I would appreciate your support.

WHAT I STAND FOR AS YOUR CANDIDATE

ETHICS:

I believe that honest, ethical leadership is the key to our state's continued growth. I will work hard to represent your interests in Juneau — good schools, good jobs, safe communities and responsible government.

EDUCATION:

I believe the future of our state depends on an educated, well trained workforce. We must make education a long-term investment for all our citizens from preschool to post-graduate and all levels in between. I strongly support education.

JOBS:

I support both a gas pipeline and alternative energy. I will work with fellow legislators to make both the pipeline and energy alternatives a reality and ensure that new jobs go to Alaskans.

RESPONSIBLE AND OPEN GOVERNMENT:

I believe elected officials are responsible to the citizens of this state and in particular, to the residents of their district. If elected, I will work to create a long-range fiscal plan that will benefit all Alaskans.

I believe it's time for legislators to work together to find answers to the state's problems rather than excuses. I will do just that.

For nearly 30 years I held leadership positions throughout Alaska in law enforcement and corrections, where I worked with Alaskans to keep our citizens safe. I know how to work with people in tough situations and get things done. In recent years I have continued to work as a small business owner and an associate broker/realtor.

I would appreciate your vote this November.

STATEMENT:

It is an honor serving our community as State Representative. During my six years in office I have repeatedly heard two requests: Rise above partisan rhetoric and address our fiscal challenges. I have a proven record of open-door leadership on these and the other important issues facing Alaska today.

My highest priority continues to be common sense fiscal policy balancing Alaska's budget without compromising the delivery of essential services. With vision and strong leadership we can strengthen our economy, control the cost of government, protect the Permanent Fund and sustain a responsible level of spending. Our solutions must be founded on fiscal discipline, but meet Alaska's growing needs.

There are always challenges achieving the future we want. Getting our natural gas to market, improving schools, making communities safer, assuring good career opportunities, promoting a growing economy and providing needed public services depends on electing legislators who can get the job done. I have the right combination of skills and experience to do it.

I have lived in our district 29 years and am the only legislator who has been a CPA and financial professional. As the senior Anchorage member of the House Finance Committee I have been able to stop wasteful spending while improving roads, police and fire protection, and human services throughout the communities in our district. My re-election assures our district continues to be represented by a proven and effective legislator who listens and works for you.

I appreciate your continued support and ask for your vote.

STATEMENT:

*Honest, Ethical Representation for District 32
-The Right Change for Alaska-*

Fifty years ago, when the Last Frontier became a state, Alaskans felt a great sense of pride in our potential. Unfortunately, the pride of 1958 has been diminished by the shame of corruption. Huge decisions worth trillions of dollars and affecting Alaskans for decades to come are being made by a Legislature tainted by corruption and scandal. Legislators involved with the corruption and scandal must be replaced.

I will serve you, listening to your concerns and focusing on issues that affect your lives everyday. I believe legislators should be open and honest with their constituents. You can count on me to pursue solutions that are best for Alaskans.

I will serve with integrity and high ethical standards; representing the common good, not the good of special interests.

My focus will be:

- ENERGY - reducing costs for Alaskan families and Alaskan businesses
- ECONOMY - supporting small business and value added industry
- ENVIRONMENT - fighting to protect our way of life by ensuring a healthy environment
- EDUCATION - creating a world class education system; early education through the university system
- ELDERLY - solving the Medicare crisis in Alaska
- CONSTRUCTION - begin building infrastructure necessary for a gasline

I will work to protect the world class quality of life we enjoy in District 32. Together, we can pass on to future generations a community that is environmentally intact and has ample opportunity for economic growth.

Please vote Mike Kenny for State House

Election Day is Tuesday, November 4, 2008

Alaska has four judicial districts. This pamphlet contains information for judicial retention candidates appearing on the ballots for House Districts 13-32 (Election Region II).

The following information can be used to determine which judicial retention candidates will appear on the ballots for House Districts 13-32.

Judicial Retention Candidates	Ballots Appearing On
Alaska Supreme Court Court of Appeals	All ballots statewide
Third Judicial District	All ballots in House Districts 13 - 32

If you need to find out which house district and precinct you are registered in, you can look on your voter registration card or at the mailing label of this pamphlet.

THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT
Superior Court Judge	District Court Judge
Judge Craig F. Stowers	Judge Pat Hanley

By law, voters are allowed to decide if judges should be retained. Each judge in Alaska is subject to a retention election after a certain number of years on the bench. The number of years between retention elections depends upon the court in which the judge sits.

Supreme Court Justices: Voters decide if a judge should be retained for ten years.

Court of Appeals: Voters decide if a judge should be retained for eight years.

Superior Court: Voters decide if a judge should be retained for six years.

District Court: Voters decide if a judge should be retained for four years.

Alaska Judicial Evaluation and Retention System

www.ajc.state.ak.us

Alaskans choose their judges through a merit selection system and vote every few years on whether to keep them on the bench. The system assures that judges remain non-partisan and accountable to the public. The constitution requires that the Alaska Judicial Council nominate only the best-qualified people to the Governor for appointment to judgeships, and the state laws require that the Judicial Council evaluate each judge standing for retention elections. State law also requires that the Judicial Council publish its evaluations in the Voters' Pamphlet. The evaluations of judges standing in the November 2008 election appear on the following pages. Each judge also may pay for a page of biographical information that he or she prepares.

Judicial Evaluation Procedures

The Alaska Judicial Council, a non-partisan citizens commission established by the Alaska constitution, evaluates judges on a number of criteria that include legal ability, demeanor, diligence, ability to manage their caseloads, and fairness and integrity. The Council evaluates judges with the help of thousands of Alaska citizens — police and probation officers, attorneys, jurors, court employees, social workers and others who appear in court before the judges. In 2008, the Council surveyed these groups, asked for written and oral comments from the public throughout the state, and reviewed records about judges' workloads, conflicts of interest, and other aspects of performance.

Summary of Alaska Judicial Council Recommendations - In 2008 the Judicial Council evaluated ten trial court judges, one supreme court justice and one court of appeals judge. The Council found that eleven judges were QUALIFIED and recommends that voters retain them as judges. The Council found that Judge Dennis P. Cummings was UNQUALIFIED and recommends that voters not retain him as a judge.

Surveys - The Judicial Council surveyed all active members of the Alaska Bar Association, and all peace and probation officers in the state. In 2008, the Council sent surveys to 2,884 attorneys and 1,539 peace and probation officers. An independent contractor handled the surveys for the Judicial Council, to assure objectivity in the findings. Questions on the surveys asked about judges' legal abilities, fairness, integrity, temperament, diligence and overall performance. Similar surveys went to social workers and citizens who participated in helping Alaska's children in court as guardians ad litem and Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) volunteers. The Council asked jurors who had served on cases with the judges to comment on the judges' abilities to handle the trials fairly and capably. Court employees also received surveys to rate the judges.

Judge and Counsel Questionnaires - Each judge standing for retention returned a self-evaluation questionnaire to the Judicial Council. The questionnaire included lists of recent cases that the judge believed were important for evaluation, with an emphasis on jury and non-jury trials. The Council asked each attorney in each case to fill out an additional survey about the judge's performance in that particular case, including detailed comments about the judge's abilities.

Other Records - Council staff reviewed a series of other public records, including conflict of interest annual statements filed with the Alaska Public Offices Commission and separate forms filed with the court system; court case files; Commission on Judicial Conduct public files; and a report on any withheld salary warrants. The Council also reviewed performance related court data, such as the number of peremptory challenges filed against a judge and the number of reversals on appeal. The Council looked at performance related data carefully, because a judge's caseload type or location may play a major part in the numbers of challenges or appeals and reversals. For example, an Anchorage judge assigned 800 civil cases in one year may receive more challenges (and possibly more appellate reversals) than a rural area judge assigned a mixed caseload of 500 civil and criminal cases. The Alaska Judicial Observers, an independent group of community-based volunteer court observers, provided information to the Council about the retention judges in Anchorage who they had evaluated.

Public Hearings and Comment - The Council held statewide public hearings for all judges standing for retention, using the legislature's teleconference network and public meeting rooms. Statewide newspaper ads encouraged public participation. Public hearings gave citizens a valuable opportunity to speak out about their experiences with judges. They also provided a forum in which citizens could hear the opinions of others.

Investigation - Council staff investigated specific cases, listened to court proceedings, and interviewed judges, attorneys, court staff, and others.

Other Publicity and Input - The Council widely publicized the evaluation process and solicited comments about judges on its website. The Council balanced all the information it received from its many sources.

Results of Evaluations

Evaluation information for each retention judge appears on the following pages. Summaries of the attorney, peace and probation officer, juror, social worker and court employee survey scores are provided. The Alaska Judicial Observers evaluation, where available, also is summarized. Summaries of survey results are shown in tables. Survey ratings are on a five-point scale with "5" as the highest score, "1" as the least favorable score, and "3" as acceptable. The Council's Internet web pages contain survey results and performance information about each judge on the ballot this fall. (<http://www.ajc.state.ak.us>)

Judicial Council Members

Alaska's constitution establishes the membership of the Judicial Council as three non-attorney members appointed by the Governor, three attorney members appointed by the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association, and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Alaska who serves, ex officio, as chair. (The Chief Justice only votes when his or her vote can affect an outcome.) The Constitution provides that all appointments be made with "due consideration to area representation and without regard to political affiliation." A majority of both houses of the Legislature must confirm the non-attorney appointments, while the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association appoints the attorney members after conducting advisory elections among bar members within local judicial districts. Members serve six-year staggered terms. They receive no financial compensation for their work other than reimbursement for travel expenses.

Dana Fabe was chair of the Judicial Council when the Council conducted its evaluation and made its retention recommendations, by virtue of her position as Chief Justice of the Alaska Supreme Court. Justice Fabe was appointed to the supreme court in 1996. Before her appointment, she had served as a superior court judge. (Term: 2006 - 2009)

James H. Cannon is an attorney member from Fairbanks. Mr. Cannon is in private practice in Fairbanks. He previously served as a public defender in Fairbanks from 1980-2005. He has practiced law since 1975. (Term: 2006-2012)

Bill Gordon is a non-attorney member from Fairbanks. He is a lifelong Alaskan who served as Executive Assistant to Governor Hammond, served as chair of the Alcohol Beverage Control Board, and is a semi-retired consultant and part owner of public water and wastewater companies in interior Alaska. (Term: 2003 - 2009)

Louis James Menendez is an attorney member from Juneau. Mr. Menendez is in private practice in Juneau. (Term: 2007 - 2010)

Kevin Fitzgerald is an attorney member from Anchorage. He is a partner in Ingaldson, Maassen & Fitzgerald. (Term: 2008 - 2014)

Christena Williams is a non-attorney member from Ketchikan. She is a third generation Alaskan and newspaper co-publisher. She and her family own and operate Pioneer Printing Co., Inc. and the Ketchikan Daily News. (Term: 2005 - 2011)

At the time the Council made its recommendations, one non-attorney member position was vacant.

See www.ajc.state.ak.us for detailed judicial evaluation information.

STATEMENT:

It has been my privilege to serve on the Alaska Supreme Court since Governor Hickel appointed me in 1994. Each day brings fresh and intellectually challenging cases. I have worked hard to be the best justice I can. This means remaining impartial and open to the parties' arguments and the other justices' analyses. It means untangling and deciding the issues as the law requires, without regard to personal views on social or political ramifications of the issues. It means working hard to make my opinions clear and easily understood.

I have deep roots in Alaska and great regard for Alaska and its people. My father's father came to Nome as a mining engineer in 1900. My father was a lawyer and a territorial legislator. My mother's father began practicing law in Juneau nearly 100 years ago and was a constitutional delegate.

I have two particular interests: (1) making sure that race and ethnicity do not disadvantage anyone in the justice system; and (2) reducing delay on appeal. As to the first, I have been co-chair of the court's Fairness and Access Committee since 1998. As to the second, the court has adopted a number of my suggestions that significantly speed up appellate decision-making. We need to continue that improvement, without compromising decisional quality.

I hope voters will allow me to continue to serve.

ALASKA REPUBLICAN PARTY

"Government is not the giver of rights; only God confers these to the people. People create government, giving it certain and limited powers. Only eternal vigilance by the people will confine government to its proper role."

Joseph E. Vogler, Founder of the Alaskan Independence Party.

Although the origins of the Alaskan Independence Party date back to the early 1970s, it wasn't until 1984 that it became an "officially recognized" party by the State of Alaska. Advocating an "Alaska First" policy focused around land and resource development, AIP has since emerged as one of the most significant state-level third parties operating in the late 20th century.

The AIP believes full compliance with the Constitutions of the United States of America and the State of Alaska is necessary.

The AIP supports and defends States' Rights, Individual Rights, and the Equal Footing Doctrine as guaranteed by the constitutions of the United States of America and the state of Alaska.

The AIP supports amending the Constitution of the State of Alaska so as to re-establish the rights of all Alaskan residents to entry upon all public lands within the state, and to acquire private property interest therein, under fair and reasonable conditions. Such property interest shall include surface and sub-surface patent.

The AIP wishes to preserve and protect the Alaska Permanent Fund, earnings, and individual Permanent Fund Dividends.

The AIP supports a constitutional amendment abolishing and prohibiting all property taxes.

The AIP supports the right of the individual to keep and bear arms.

The AIP supports the complete abolition of the concept of sovereign or governmental immunity, so as to restore accountability for public servants.

We are the only Alaskan political party that is entirely comprised of Alaskans, staffed by Alaskans and financed by Alaskans.

We affirm that all political power is inherent in the people; that all government originates with the people, if founded on their will only, is instituted to protect the rights of the individual; that all persons have a natural right to life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness, and the enjoyment of the rewards of their own industry; that all persons are equal and entitled to equal protection under the law. We stand on a firm constitutional foundation.

The Alaskan Independence Party can be summed up in just two words: ALASKA FIRST!

ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION

WHY DOES APOC EXIST?

The mission of the Alaska Public Offices Commission is to encourage the public's confidence in their elected and appointed public officials by administering and enforcing Alaska's disclosure statutes and publishing financial information about election campaigns, public officials, lobbyists and lobbyist employers.

LAWS ADMINISTERED BY APOC

The Alaska Public Offices Commission administers and enforces four disclosure laws; AS 15.13 Campaign Disclosure, AS 24.45 Lobbying, AS 39.50 Public Official Financial Disclosure, and AS 24.60 Legislative Financial Disclosure. These laws require the disclosure of information that enables citizens to trace the influence of private interests on public decision-making. This disclosure helps to limit privileged influence through revealing special interests and exposing conflicts of interest. The laws are designed to develop accountability in government by giving the public access to information to judge the credentials and performance of public officials and candidates for public offices. The disclosure reports filed with APOC are public records.

WHO IS THE COMMISSION?

The two political parties whose candidates for governor received the most votes at the most recent gubernatorial election each nominate two commission members. The four members nominate a fifth member from applicants from the general public. The governor appoints and the legislature confirms the nominations. Terms are for five years, with a different term expiring each year. The commission currently consists of two Republican Party members, two Democratic Party members, and one public member. The commission has offices and staff in Anchorage and Juneau.

HOW CAN WE HELP YOU?

This agency is your source of information on all aspects of the disclosure laws. We are committed to fulfilling our mission by providing you with information. Most of this information can be accessed, free of charge, on the APOC Web site. You can find out who has contributed to a particular ballot group, which political action committees are spending the most, which lobbyists are working for which employers, who is contributing to candidates and how much is being given and spent to influence voters. APOC works with the public and those who file financial reports to make the disclosure process effective, efficient and transparent.

Visit our Web site or call us if you would like information about how to take advantage of the information required by the laws that APOC administers. If you have any observations, suggestions or ideas, please let us know.

This is your agency and we welcome the opportunity to make APOC work for you.

The Strength of Diversification

Alaska Permanent Fund • 2008

LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

What a difference a year can make. Last September, the Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation Board of Trustees had the pleasure of reporting that the Permanent Fund's investments had returned 17.1% for the fiscal year, and that every asset class had provided a positive return.

And then the storms came.

It is precisely because of times like these that the Board of Trustees takes a long-term view, building an all-weather portfolio for the Permanent Fund. We don't try to time the markets. Instead we build a portfolio that we believe will provide a more stable return under a variety of market conditions, to reach the conservative goal of a 5% rate of return over time above the rate of inflation.

Diversification is a very important part of building our portfolio. Last fiscal year's positive performance by every asset class was extremely unusual. Generally, different types of investments work in disharmony with one another, and as market conditions favor one type of investment, other investments will cycle down. The strength of diversification lies in its ability to help the Permanent Fund make healthy gains during up markets and limit losses during financial turmoil like we have experienced for the last year.

The experts suggest that there is still some rough weather in the near term. Fortunately, the Permanent Fund has the advantage of being a long-term investor, and we will continue to press forward on our path. The Trustees are very deliberate in the investment decisions that we make, and we can hold on to those investments as long as we continue to have faith in their underlying value, regardless of how the markets are performing.

One final note - I believe that Alaskans will always be richer for having the foresight 30 years ago to create this Fund. It will have its ups and downs in the future, as it has in the past, but with prudent management it will be here to benefit Alaskans in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Steve Frank

WHAT IS THE ALASKA PERMANENT FUND?

The Permanent Fund is an investment fund created by Alaskans in 1976 as a way to save a portion of our oil revenues for the needs of future generations. On June 30, 2008, the Fund was worth $35.9 billion.

WHO MANAGES THE PERMANENT FUND?

The Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation manages the day-to-day operations of the Fund and is overseen by a six-member Board of Trustees appointed by the governor and selected for their experience in finance, investments or other business-related fields.

A Two-Part Fund

HOW DOES THE FUND WORK?

The Fund is divided into two parts, principal and earnings, both of which are fully invested. The Alaska Constitution says that the principal may not be spent. The earnings in the earnings reserve account may be spent by the Legislature for any purpose it wishes. Currently, earnings are only used for the Permanent Fund Dividend and transfers to the Alaska Capital Income Fund.

HOW DOES MONEY GO INTO THE EARNINGS RESERVE ACCOUNT?

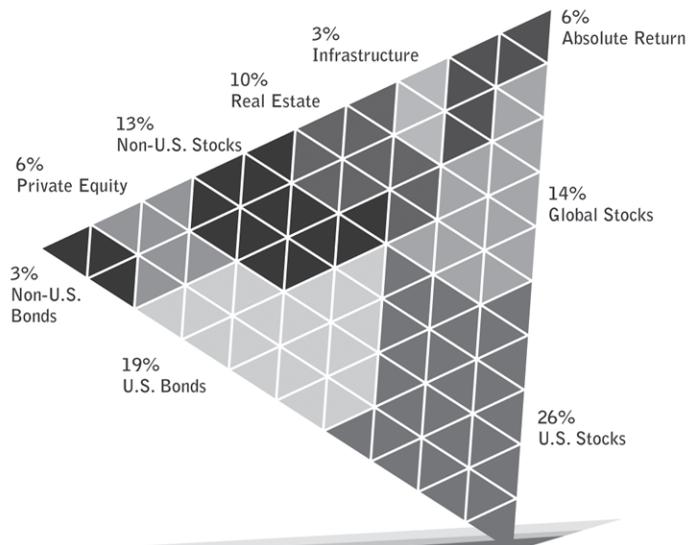

Realized earnings go into the earnings reserve account. This is the income from bond interest, real estate rent payments, stock dividends and the gains from assets that are sold at a profit. Unrealized earnings remain in principal until the assets are sold.

HOW IS THE FUND INVESTED?

Originally, the Fund was only invested in bonds. Now it is invested in a number of different asset classes, which earn income and can grow in value. By diversifying the Fund into these different assets, the Trustees ensure that it is better protected for the future. When one asset class has a down year, it is often balanced by good performance in other asset classes.

HOW DOES THE FUND GROW?

The Fund has three sources of potential growth each year, which are listed below. For FY08, the additions and subtractions from the Fund's total value are listed in the Sources of Change in Fund Value graph.

- The state Constitution directs that 25% of Alaska's mineral royalties and primarily oil royalties be deposited into the Fund.
- Income flows in from stock dividends, bond interest and real estate rental fees.
- Assets can increase (or decrease) in value over the original purchase price, whether they are sold or held in the portfolio.

HOW IS THE DIVIDEND DETERMINED?

On June 30 of each year, the statutory income of the Fund for the last five years is averaged together and half of that amount is available for the dividend. Then that amount is divided by the number of qualified applicants for the dividend.
