STATE OF ALASKA
Division of Elections
Office of the Lieutenant Governor

October 2008

Dear Alaskan Voter:

I am pleased to provide you with the 2008 Official Election Pamphlet, your guide to the November general election. This year's pamphlet contains information from candidates for the offices of President, Vice President, United States Senator, United States Representative, State Senator and State Representative.

Information about members of the judiciary who are seeking retention to the bench is also included. The Alaska Judicial Council has provided evaluation information on each of the judicial officers.

This pamphlet also contains information regarding the Bonding Proposition that will appear on the general election ballot.

I hope the information in this pamphlet will help you make informed choices when you go to the polls on November 4.

Alaska has a history of races that have been determined by just a handful of votes. Your vote does make a difference. I hope you will take the time to exercise your right and vote on November 4.

Sincerely,

Gail Fenuniai
Director of Elections

Voting Information

Election Day is November 4, 2008

Polling Places

The polls will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. To locate your polling place please call 1-888-383-8683. In Anchorage, please call 269-8683. The following information explains basic voting rights and will help voters with special needs.

Bring Identification to the Polls

You MUST be prepared to show one form of identification. You may use the following ID:

- Voter ID Card
- Driver's License
- State ID Card
- Current and valid photo ID Card
- Passport
- Military ID Card
- Birth Certificate
- Hunting or Fishing License

or, you may use an original copy of one of the following documents if it contains your name and current address:

- Current Utility Bill
- Government Check
- Bank Statement
- Pay Check
- Other Government Document

If you do not have identification when voting, you will be asked to vote a questioned ballot.

What Happens if Your Name is not on Register

If your name does not appear on the precinct register, you may vote a questioned ballot. Before receiving a ballot, you must complete a questioned ballot envelope. Your voted ballot will be placed in a secrecy sleeve and then the secrecy sleeve will be sealed inside the completed questioned ballot envelope. All questioned ballots are returned to the Election Supervisor for review and counting by the Questioned Ballot Review Board.

Marking the Ballot

When voting the ballot, completely fill in the oval next to the candidate or issue you wish to vote for. Fill in the oval like this:

You only have to mark the races or issues you choose to vote for. If you mark more than one choice in a race or issue, that section of the ballot will NOT be counted. The sections of the ballot that are properly marked will be counted.

If you make a mistake marking your ballot, DO NOT erase or correct the ballot. You may return the spoiled ballot to an election worker and request a new ballot. If you attempt to correct a mistake on the ballot, the corrected vote may not be counted. Note: You may only receive a replacement for a spoiled ballot 2 times.

Campaigning Prohibited Near Polls

Alaska law prohibits political persuasion within 200 feet of any entrance to a polling place during the hours the polls are open. This means you may not discuss or display campaign items for candidates or issues appearing on the ballot at that polling place.

Voter Rights, Assistance and Concerns

Questioned Voting

If your name is not listed on the precinct register or if you do not have identification, you have the right to vote a questioned ballot. The information you provide on the outside of the questioned ballot envelope will be used to determine your voting eligibility and to update your voter registration information. If for any reason your questioned ballot is not fully counted, you will be notified in writing.

Language or Other Assistance While Voting

If you need assistance during the voting process, you may have a person of your choice provide any needed assistance as long as that person is not a candidate, your employer, agent of your employer or agent of a union you belong to. Assistance may be provided during each step of the voting process, including assistance inside the voting booth with reading or marking the ballot. You may also receive assistance from the election board. This is your right under federal law.

The Division of Elections provides for language assistance for Alaska Native and Filipino (Tagalog) voters who have limited English proficiency through the use of bilingual election workers and interpreters. Alaska Native language assistance is available on Election Day in many rural polling places throughout the state. Filipino (Tagalog) language assistance is available on Election Day in Kodiak. If you need language assistance, please contact the Division of Elections. Yup'ik language assistance is available by calling, toll-free, 1-866-954-8683.

Touch Screen Voting Option

There will be one touch screen voting unit in each polling place. Touch screen voting is intended for the blind, disabled, and for voters who do not read well. Alaska's touch screen voting unit allows disabled voters to vote unassisted through the use of magnified, high contrast and audio ballots. If you need to vote using the touch screen voting unit, let the election board know.

Visually Impaired Voters

Magnifying ballot viewers for the visually impaired will be available at all polling places and absentee voting sites.

Audio recording of this pamphlet is available at each Regional Election Office or from the Alaska State Library, Talking Book Center, located in Anchorage. Telephone the library at (907) 269-6575 for information.

Hearing Impaired Voters

The Division of Elections has a TTY telecommunications device, which allows hearing impaired voters to obtain general information about elections by calling (907) 465-3020.

Physically Disabled Voters

If you have difficulty gaining access to your polling place, or if you have accessibility questions about your polling place, please let the Division of Elections know. We make every effort to ensure that polling places are accessible to all Alaskans.

Concerns, Comments, Questions

If you have any concerns or comments about voting, if you have questions, or if you would like more information about our special services, please contact any regional elections office.

November 2008

Fellow military service member:

We volunteer to wear the uniform because it is a calling. A calling to defend freedom and to stand up for what we believe is right and just, not only in the United States of America, but wherever we are called to serve.

This election cycle, you may be deployed overseas, but that does not mean you have given up your right to vote. It is just as important that you vote now, while you are deployed, to choose who you believe will be the best person to serve in political office.

This is the foundation of freedom: the opportunity to vote.

If you do not have the opportunity to vote in person, hopefully you have already voted absentee by-mail. If you have not already voted, and will miss the mail application deadline, please vote by absentee-fax. It's quick, easy, and will ensure that your choice will be heard at home, no matter where you're serving in the world. Please take the following into account:

- By using this method you are voluntarily waiving your right to a secret ballot
- You must apply separately for each election. The fax application form will not be accepted until 15 days before the election. Print; completely fill in the form, sign. Then fax the completed form to the Alaska Division of Elections. When your application is approved, a ballot will be faxed to you.
- Vote your ballot, have your signature witnessed and fax (or mail) the ballot according to instructions.
- If you are returning your ballot by fax, it must be voted, witnessed and received by the appropriate fax machine in the Absentee Voting Office by 8:00 p.m. Alaska time on election day.

I encourage you to exercise your right to vote and speak out for who you believe will serve your community best.

Sincerely,

Maj. Gen. Craig E. Campbell

Commissioner of the Department of Military and Veterans Affairs

Absentee Voting

Early/In Person/By Mail/By Fax/Special Needs Voting

There are several absentee voting options available during each election. You may vote absentee in person, by mail, by fax or vote a special needs ballot through a personal representative.

Voting Early or Absentee In Person

Beginning October 20, 2008, you may vote at an absentee voting site. Ballots for all 40 districts are available at all Regional Elections offices. In addition to the Regional Elections offices, there are many other voting sites throughout Alaska that will have ballots for their house district. For more information or for a list of absentee voting locations visit our website or contact a Regional Elections office.

Special Needs Voting

If you are unable to go to the polls due to age, serious illness or a disability, you may have a personal representative pick up and deliver a ballot to you beginning 15 days before an election at an absentee voting site or on Election Day at the polling place. Your personal representative can be anyone over 18, except a candidate for office in the election, the voter's employer, an agent of the voter's employer, or an officer or agent of the voter's union.

Voting By Mail or By Fax

The Division of Elections Absentee Office handles all absentee by mail and fax applications. To vote by mail or by fax, you must submit an application.

Absentee By Mail

Absentee ballot applications can be submitted after January 1st of each election year. You can request a ballot for a specific election or for all elections in the year. Absentee by mail ballot applications for the General election must be received by October 25, 2008.

Apply early to ensure timely delivery of your ballot. Your voted ballot must be postmarked on or before Election Day.

Absentee By Fax

Voting by fax should be your last alternative for casting a ballot. You may apply for fax voting October 20, 2008 through 5:00pm Alaska Time on November 3, 2008. You may return your voted fax ballot by mail or by fax. If you return your voted ballot by fax, it must be received no later than 8:00pm Alaska Time on Election Day. If you return your voted ballot by mail, it must be postmarked on or before Election Day.

If you have questions about voting by mail or fax, please contact the Division of Elections Absentee By Mail/By Fax Section at (907) 375-6400.

E-MAIL: contact@baldwin2008.com

WEB SITE ADDRESS: www.baldwin08.com

OCCUPATION:

Founder and pastor of Crossroad Baptist Church, Pensacola, Florida, host of Chuck Baldwin Live radio show, columnist and author.

EDUCATION:

Graduated from Liberty Bible Institute at Liberty University and holds a master's degree from Christian Bible College. Two honorary doctor of divinity degrees from Christian Bible College and Trinity Baptist College.

OTHER:

Past chair of the Florida Moral Majority, 2004 Constitution Party Vice Presidential Candidate and a life member of Gun Owners of America. Chuck Baldwin's articles are featured regularly in newspapers and on many Internet news sites including World Net Daily.

Chuck Baldwin has preached in churches all over the United States and overseas. Many conservative political and values leaders have spoken in his church including Patrick J. Buchanan, Congressman Joe Scarborough, Ambassador Alan Keys and Judge Roy Moore.

Chuck and his wife Connie were married in 1973 and have three children and six grandchildren.

STATEMENT:

As president, I would measure every issue in light of the Constitution. I would start the process of bringing our troops home from Iraq and Afghanistan and the more than 130 countries in which they are stationed.

I would honor our veterans by ensuring them the best and most timely medical care and do everything in my power to locate all MIA's and POW's.

Instead of guarding borders around the world, I would make sure our borders at home are sealed and work to end the practice of hiring illegal aliens. There would no longer be taxpayer funded education, medical care or other benefits for those here unlawfully.

I would encourage Congress to pass Congressman Ron Paul's Sanctity of Life Act, which would declare the personhood of the unborn and remove abortion from the jurisdiction of the Court.

I would defend the Constitutional rights of gun owners and homeschoolers which have suffered egregious attacks on their rights.

I would work to overturn the so-called Patriot Act, which has gutted significant portions of our Constitution.

I would end all so-called "free trade" agreements like NAFTA, and GATT. The NAFTA Superhighway and the proposed North American Union would no longer be a threat to American sovereignty.

We must end our dependence on foreign oil, develop domestic sources and build refineries and nuclear power plants. Gas prices would reflect the wisdom of relying on our own natural resources.

Americans are counting on a return to limited, Constitutional government.

EDUCATION:

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:

SERVICE ORGANIZATION(S) MEMBERSHIP:

Board Member, National Rifle Association

STATEMENT:

Throughout his distinguished career, Bob Barr has proven that he is the leader Americans need to restore confidence of the American people in the future of their nation. Both working for the American people as a Congressman from Georgia and afterwards partnering with groups dedicated to protecting civil liberties, Bob has shown a commitment to shrinking government and returning liberty back to the people.

Americans know that the answer to today's problems is not more government, and Bob will work tirelessly to cut taxes, reduce government spending and restore our civil liberties lost during the Bush administration. Having seen the true nature of government from inside and out, only Bob Barr has the qualifications, the passion, and the commitment to work for the American people in their interest—not the government's.

Since leaving Congress where he served as the vanguard of the Second Amendment, Bob worked to increase individual liberty through such organizations as the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University and the American Conservative Union as the 21st Century Liberties Chair for Freedom and Privacy. For his work on protecting the privacy and civil liberties of all Americans, legendary New York Times columnist William Safire dubbed Bob "Mr. Privacy."

If there is one candidate who consistently comes down on the side of the American people's rights, it is Bob Barr. Bob knows the answer is less government, and has proven that he will deliver the real change necessary to lead America into a new era of prosperity and freedom.

United States Vice President

Wayne Allyn Root, Libertarian

E-MAIL: wayne@rootforamerica.com

WEB SITE ADDRESS: www.rootforamerica.com

OTHER:

Wayne Allyn Root's father was a butcher from Brownsville, Brooklyn. He graduated as Valedictorian from his high school, then graduated from Columbia University in 1983 as a Political Science major (in the same class as Democratic presidential nominee Barack Obama). He has been married to a former Miss Oklahoma, Debra Root, for over 16 years. The couple have four children: Dakota, Hudson, Remington, and Contessa.

Founder and Chairman of a successful small business, Wayne is a self-made businessman as well as an author and television producer. He started as an anchorman for what later became CNBC.

He has never done business with a lobbyist or worked with any state or federal government. Though constantly kept busy with business and politics, he has still made time to home school all of his children. He is a lifetime member of the Libertarian Party, and proudly dedicated to the cause of liberty.

STATEMENT:

Wayne supports smaller government, reduced spending, reduced entitlements, reduced bureaucracy, dramatically lower taxes, and greater personal freedom for individuals. In the area of education, he supports more parental control, more emphasis on school choice (moving education to the state and local level), and increased competition through vouchers.

Root and his wife choose to home-school their children. He is a strong supporter of gun rights for the individual. Root is a small businessman who believes the 2-party system is built on corruption, greed and bribery.

He believes that the two major parties both bribe the electorate to achieve power—thereby spending America and our children and grandchildren into bankruptcy. He is a fiscal conservative in the mode of his heroes Ronald Reagan and Barry Goldwater. He is socially tolerant, believing that most social issues should be determined on the state and local level.

Root calls for the repeal of the income tax and favors replacing all sources of federal tax revenues with a tax on each state in proportion to its population, with each state deciding for itself how to raise its share of the money.

Root holds that “the Iraq war is a disaster”. His way out is to “use the success of the surge to declare victory and make plans to get out of Iraq as soon as reasonably possible”. He also questions Central Intelligence Agency information on Iran, would use “any diplomatic means”, including the United Nations, in order to “avoid another war”.

United States President

John McCain, Republican

WEB SITE ADDRESS: www.johnmccain.com

John McCain has a remarkable record of leadership and experience that is evidenced by his lifelong commitment of putting his country first. After serving two terms in the U.S. House, John McCain's reform agenda propelled him to the United States Senate.

In the Senate John McCain has been a consistent leader to reform Washington, eliminate wasteful government spending and lower taxes. John has continually fought to close loopholes for special interests and save taxpayer dollars by working hard to end pork barrel spending. He has been a pioneer in advocating America's energy security by calling for the expansion of domestic oil exploration, producing more power and developing alternative energies.

During his service in Vietnam, John McCain was taken as a prisoner of war where he was aided by his faith and the friendships of his fellow POWs. Senator McCain and his wife Cindy have seven children and four grandchildren.

STATEMENT:

In war and peace, I have been a dedicated servant of our country. Whenever I faced an important choice between our country's interests, party politics or special interests, I chose our country.

I will continue to put our country first by ushering in a new era of reform, prosperity and peace. If I'm elected President, the era of the permanent campaign will end. The era of problem solving will begin. Washington is broken, and I intend to fix it. All you've ever asked of government is that it stand on your side, not in your way.

I will stand by your side to grow this economy, create more jobs and get America moving again. I will aggressively push to develop alternative energies while expanding our use of existing energy resources here at home. As President, I intend to provide future generations of Americans with a safer, more peaceful world than the one we inherited. We will achieve energy security and ensure that healthcare is affordable and available for all. It is incumbent on America, more than any other nation on earth, to lead in building the foundations for a stable and enduring peace.

I will put an agenda of reform, prosperity and peace for America before any partisan interest or special interest. I will keep that promise every hour of every day I am in office.

OTHER:

Attorney, author and consumer advocate Ralph Nader has been named by Time Magazine one of the "100 Most Influential Americans in the 20th Century". For more than four decades he has exposed problems and organized millions of citizens into more than 100 public interest groups advocating solutions. He led the movement to establish the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), the Consumer Product Safety Commission, and enact the Safe Drinking Water Act, the Motor Vehicle Safety Act, the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and countless other pieces of important consumer legislation. Because of Ralph Nader we drive safer cars, eat healthier food, breathe better air, drink cleaner water, and work in safer environments.

STATEMENT:

Corporations have wrested control of government, causing wasteful spending and sweetheart deals while disenfranchising average Americans. Power must be returned to the people, whose needs should be met before corporations: We must adopt a national, single-payer health care system to cover all citizens, provide free college education, and repair the crumbling infrastructure of our cities and schools, increasing both jobs and quality of life. Repeal the WTO and NAFTA, which drains jobs, and provide a living wage for workers - $10 minimum. Tax the things we like least such as pollution, Wall Street securities speculation, and excessive corporate executive pay, instead of taxing labor. Eliminate all payroll taxes up to $50,000. We need to crack down on corporate crime. Cut the bloated military budget, effect a total corporate and military withdrawal from Iraq and Afghanistan, and employ a sensible two-state Middle East solution. Get all money out of politics with full public financing of elections. Defend voter and candidate rights by making Election Day a federal holiday, enacting nationwide same-day voter registration, and halting ballot obstructionism. To solve the energy crisis, we must invest in renewable energies, like wind and solar, and adopt a carbon pollution tax, while halting subsidies for fossil fuels. End attacks on civil liberties like the PATRIOT act and the "war on drugs." Abolish the death penalty and end the private prison system. A free society must ensure that all Americans enjoy full and equal rights, socially, legally, and politically.

EDUCATION:

Stanford Law School, 1990.

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:

2000-2005 San Francisco Board of Supervisors
2003-2005 President of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors

BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS:

1991-2000 Deputy Public Defender, San Francisco

OTHER:

In 2000 he was elected to the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, representing a district of 80,000 and supervising a city with a budget of $6 billion. He is best known for having led the effort to implement Instant Run-off Voting in San Francisco, where it has been successfully implemented to obtain a majority outcome without the need for costly run-off elections. Additionally, Gonzalez fought to create a minimum wage in San Francisco which includes a mechanism for yearly cost of living adjustments. (Considered the highest in the country, currently $9.36 per hour). Since leaving office, Gonzalez has been practicing law in San Francisco, focusing on defending civil rights.

STATEMENT:

Americans need to take back their government. The federal budget must place human needs before corporate greed and militarism. We must ensure that every citizen has an equal voice through enacting electoral reforms: institute Instant Run Off Voting, where candidates are ranked so the true favorite wins, and allow same-day voter registration. Discontinue paperless electronic voting, which is susceptible to tampering; end gerrymandering and ballot obstructions. Presidential debates should be fair and open. Facilitate voter initiatives, where citizens can enact or reject proposed laws directly. Employ public campaign financing to assure clean and fair elections, and set congressional term limits so legislators stay responsive to their constituency. Oppose "tort reform," which denies victims' rights by placing arbitrary caps on court awards. Fix the pension system so that all Americans retire securely, and provide a minimum wage that responds to inflation and is livable. Cut exorbitant CEO profits and provide free choice health care for all. Ensure the constitutional and social rights of all citizens. Support the Equal Rights Amendment and assure women have reproductive freedom. Support tribal sovereignty for Alaskan natives, and honor all treaties. We must ensure the future of our planet. Preserve our national parks and wilderness zones — no drilling on protected lands. Defend food integrity and safety and support family farms. Invest in renewable energy sources and end fossil fuel reliance, which is environmentally destructive and endangers the ecosystem. Abandoning militaristic pursuits around the world will enable social and educational programs to be fully funded.

United States President

Barack Obama, Democrat

WEB SITE ADDRESS: ak.barackobama.com

OTHER:

Barack Obama was born in Hawaii in 1961. His father was from Kenya, and his mother grew up in small-town Kansas.

After college, Barack Obama took a job in Chicago as a community organizer helping families hurt when the local steel mills closed. After graduating from law school, he returned to Chicago to practice as a civil rights attorney.

As an Illinois State Senator, Obama worked with both Democrats and Republicans to cut taxes for working families by $100 million and expand early childhood education.

As a U.S. Senator, Obama worked across party lines to pass lobbying and ethics reform. Obama worked with Republican Senator Dick Lugar to pass legislation to lock down nuclear weapons and keep them out of terrorists' hands. On the Veterans Affairs Committee, he fought to get vets the benefits they were promised.

He is married to Michelle Obama. They have two daughters: Malia and Sasha.

STATEMENT:

America is at a crossroads. The politics of division are consuming Washington. Our economy is on the brink of a recession, energy prices are skyrocketing, and our nation's standing in the world has been weakened.

Rising costs for food and other expenses are squeezing Alaskans' budgets and stretching those on fixed incomes. In rural Alaska, where winter heating bills are often over $1,000 a month, extreme energy prices are forcing families to leave their homes.

The time has come for a president who will be honest about the choices and challenges we face as a nation.

I'm running for president to change politics-as-usual in Washington and to bring people together to get things done for Alaska.

I will work to:

- lower taxes for seniors and working families and provide a $1,000-per-family emergency energy rebate;
- pass equal pay laws that ensure women and men are paid at the same rate;
- invest in improving Alaska's students and schools, encouraging parents to stand up and take responsibility for their children's full education;

I respectfully ask for your vote, because together we can change our country and move America forward.

United States Vice President

Joe Biden, Democrat

WEB SITE ADDRESS: AK.barackobama.com

OTHER:

Joe Biden was born into a blue-collar family in Scranton, Pennsylvania, in 1942. He has established a reputation as a fighter for working families and a leader in national security.

Senator Biden has served in the U.S. Senate since 1972. He authored legislation to put 100,000 more cops on the streets to lower crime, and he spearheaded the push for the Violence Against Women Act in 1994.

Biden's international leadership is well-established. Senator Biden is Chair of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He has promoted democracy and improved relations in the Balkans, Russia, Georgia and more.

Joe's first wife and daughter died in an accident in 1972. As a single father, he raised two sons, Hunter and Beau, taking the train home from Washington to Delaware every night. Beau deploys to Iraq this fall. Joe remarried in 1977 to Jill Biden, a schoolteacher. They have a daughter, Ashley.

STATEMENT:

Barack Obama and I share a common story, a story that shows that there is no obstacle that can keep you from your dreams if you are willing to work hard and fight for it.

I'm an Irish Catholic kid from Scranton with a father who fell on hard times when the economy faltered. My mom and dad raised me to believe that what counts isn't how many times you get knocked down, but how quickly you get up.

Our country has fallen on some hard times. Barack Obama is a leader who will restore American prosperity and leadership in the world.

Barack Obama will wage the war that has to be won. An Obama administration will develop the capabilities and partnerships we need to take out the terrorists that threaten us. But he will also work to rebuild alliances to tackle the security challenges that we face in the 21st century.

And Barack Obama won't forget our brave troops when they return home. He'll strengthen and reform the Veterans Administration, and fully fund healthcare for veterans.

I respectfully ask for your support.

Born and raised in Alaska, I care deeply about the issues facing Alaska families. As a husband, father, small businessman and elected official, I understand the pressures Alaska families face today.

As Mayor, I eliminated a $33 million budget deficit, helped create more than 9,000 jobs, and invested in police, firefighters and schools.

As your Senator, I will work hard and do what's right for Alaska families. I will stand up for important Alaska issues such as developing ANWR and protecting our gun rights. I will fight for Alaska solutions on important issues:

- Lowering Energy Costs
- Guaranteeing Access To Affordable Health Care

- Taking Care Of Our Seniors

We must support our military families and keep our promises to our veterans who have bravely served this country and fully fund veteran's health care, education and disability benefits, and pensions.

STATEMENT:

The problems disturbing us did not happen overnight. An abandonment of the U.S. Constitution and its limited government philosophy is the source of our trouble. Most elected officials are ignorant of their obligation to the Constitution.

The two major parties will only offer more of the same policies, decorated as something new. People are beginning to understand this trick and I offer authentic change.

The message for Alaskans is simple, and deals with basic principles: "The Constitution and nothing but the Constitution."

The message looks attractive as long as we expect our neighbor to forego entitlements and handouts. It becomes controversial when we learn that it also applies to each of us. Yet freedom is far more desirable than control and dependency from federal programs.

We must:

- Rein in the federal judiciary and return troublesome social issues to the states.
- End the following: ethanol subsidies in gasoline; global military actions; and federal control of Alaska's lands. This is part of the solution to lowering prices in food and fuel.
- Defend America's sovereignty from the threat of global and corporate monopolies.
- Defy all attempts at gun control.
- Investigate the IRS, Federal Reserve Bank and all other entities that reduce our human and property rights.

The mistakes have been made for generations; the consequences are with us today; but the solution is at hand: the Constitution and nothing but the Constitution.

My wife Francoise and I are the only couple in American history to have pushed an entire wildlife Act (the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation) through a divided Congress in 1 year to unanimous passage with 60 cosponsors including 22 chairmen and leaders of both parties. We succeeded because we personified the legislation. We can open ANWR in the same way!

STATEMENT:

I am running for Senator for only one reason, to open ANWR. Nothing else is more important to Alaska's future. I am running for only one term to do one all-important thing for Alaska - open ANWR!

My U.S. Senate campaign is unique in several important ways:

I am the ONLY candidate with a NEW specific legislative and PR strategy that will open ANWR in the most beneficial way for Alaska, America, and wildlife.

I will introduce winning ANWR legislation in which ALL Alaskans can fully participate.

I am on the November 2008 election ballot as a NO-PARTY candidate.

I accept NO money from anyone - I will NOT be beholdng to anyone.

My wife Francoise and I are a 45-year team that is uniquely qualified to open ANWR.

We personify both the winning high middle WILDLIFE and OIL grounds on ANWR.

Please visit my Web Site at www.tedandfran.com for full details on my candidacy.

Our Alaska congressional delegation has talked ANWR for decades while they did pork, which benefited them and their families. They could have easily opened ANWR 13 years ago when we put the winning ANWR strategy in their hands. Whether they failed because of ignorance, arrogance, or incompetence, doesn't matter. They failed, and it can't be blamed on anyone other than them.

Enough of all the tired self-serving excuses! No other candidate is better qualified to open ANWR than I am. Elect me, and with your help, we WILL open ANWR!

STATEMENT:

David will listen to all Alaskans on every issue and legislate what is best for Alaska.

David will work to enforce Habeas Corpus and Posse Comitatus and to repeal the Patriot Act.

David will vote to get the Federal Government out of our children's education and put the locals back in charge.

David will never vote to raise your taxes, never.

David carries a gun and wants you to be able to carry one too.

David will introduce legislation to free non-criminals convicted of drug use from prison.

David will introduce legislation that will save our dropout children and make winners of them all.

David will not be fooled into a war with a ghost he knows the enemy, he has been there and spent the time to understand it.

David will never support earmarks; pork belly and other secret schemes.

David believes strongly in the right to life, but stands up for the mothers right to do as she chooses with that that is hers. God is the judge not the government and the government is not the solution. Government should endeavor to not be part of the problem.

Global warming is why I moved to Alaska (it is a half-full glass getting fuller) coming up, short water routes from Europe to Alaska.

"Universal Health Care" sounds good! I am all for it. How about "Universal Good Health"? Health foods, organic versus chemical treated food. Prevention health education is the solutions that needs to be sought with vigor.

STATEMENT:

It is an honor to represent Alaskans in the Senate. I have always worked hard to do what is best for Alaska. I will continue to create economic opportunity, jobs, and a secure future for Alaskan families.

I'm especially pleased to be of service when a government agency is unresponsive to an Alaskan.

Energy prices are much too high. We must increase domestic production, reduce speculation, and encourage alternate energy and conservation. Alaskans have proven that we can have resource development with good jobs and a clean environment.

Alaskans can count on me to move the gas line through the federal permitting process quickly and to continue to fight to open ANWR, the OCS and NPRA in a safe way.

Improving roads, airports, and ports remains essential. I will keep working to bring needed improvements to Alaska.

I have also worked to make our military the best-trained and best-equipped. I will make certain our troops have the tools and modern facilities they need on Alaska's bases. And I will continue to support our veterans.

Alaska health care has dramatically improved. I led the effort to increase Medicare reimbursements and expand Denali KidCare. We now also have new clinics and hospitals, better sanitation, and state-of-the-art telemedicine. But more needs to be done, and I will continue to work to increase health care access for all Alaskans.

I ask for and would appreciate your vote. I pledge to use my experience to continue to serve and protect Alaska in Washington, D.C.

STATEMENT:

It's time to put Alaska first. We've seen too much partisanship and too few solutions. It's time to stand up for what's right, to work across party lines, and to get things done for the good of all Alaskans.

ENDING THE ENERGY CRISIS

Soaring gas and home-heating costs threaten families and businesses across Alaska and America. Investments in energy independence — the natural gas pipeline, oil from ANWR and the North Slope, and developing renewable energy — will reduce costs, create jobs, respond to climate change, and strengthen national security.

GROWING THE ECONOMY

We must develop Alaska's resources on our terms and show the discipline to control the national debt. We need to build the infrastructure America needs to compete in a global economy and an educational system that brings out the potential of every student.

PROVIDING QUALITY HEALTHCARE

Everyone deserves access to quality healthcare and doctors should be paid when they provide it. Small businesses should be allowed to pool for cheaper coverage. We must expand Denali Kid Care, and promote wellness and prevention.

TAKING CARE OF OUR VETERANS

Congress must ensure that our troops have the equipment they need to defend themselves and protect our freedoms. The Veterans' Administration must have the means to provide top-quality healthcare and rehabilitation. Our heroes deserve nothing less.

I believe in Alaska. It is time for new energy, new vision, and a renewed commitment to the ideals that make America great. Working together, we will move Alaska forward.

STATEMENT:

It has been an honor to serve you in the U.S. House of Representatives these past 35 years.

Because of your support we have accomplished numerous important projects for our State - the Trans-Alaska Pipeline, new roads, bridges, and ports, medical and clean water facilities in rural areas, a strong military presence, and thousands of new jobs throughout Alaska.

Your continued support has enabled me to serve in top leadership positions, including as Chairman of the Natural Resources Committee and Transportation and Infrastructure Committee where I was able to pass laws to expand our economy and secure numerous projects requested by individual communities throughout Alaska.

There are 435 Members in Congress and as Alaska's only representative I believe it is my job to represent your needs in Washington, D.C..

During the past year, a lot has been written and speculated about my legal expenses. I can assure you that I love my family, the office I serve, and Alaska too much to intentionally and willfully bring any discredit or dishonor.

Working with the federal government requires legal representation, which in turn comes with both a dollar cost and an agreement not to discuss that in public. This is frustrating for me as I have always been known to speak my mind and be forthright and forthcoming.

Alaska's future is one of unlimited potential. By managing our resources wisely, we can provide for a healthy environment and a diverse economy - both for ourselves and future generations.

I ask for your continued support.

FRONT Card 45 SEQ# 1

Senate District C

Albert M. Kookesh, Democrat

I was born and raised in Alaska. I have spent most of my life in Angoon, Alaska and still live there with my wife Sally. We raised our five children in Angoon and are now helping to raise our grandchildren there. I have a law degree from the University of Washington and have served in the Alaska Legislature for twelve (12) years. Eight years (4 terms) in the House and one term in the Senate where I am a member of the majority and the Chairman of Transportation. I have lived and continue to live a subsistence lifestyle and am a strong believer in the right to subsist to survive. I was a commercial fisherman for most of my life and am a strong supporter of commercial fishing in Alaska.

STATEMENT:

Education: I have always supported maximum education funding including the implementation of the cost differential program for rural schools. The state has a responsibility to educate all children on an equal basis.

Power Cost Equalization: (PCE) I consistently support adding enough funding to include schools, businesses and clinics back into PCE. I've worked hard with others to put almost $400 million dollars to date in the PCE endowment.

Subsistence: I've always supported a Constitutional Amendment for subsistence protection. I believe that Alaska could manage its own resources within its boundaries if it would come into compliance with the U.S. constitution.

Energy: I support funding for an Alaska Energy plan which would outline a direction for Alaska as it relates to wind, hydro, gas, oil, and other alternative sources yet to be determined. Alaska has the resources to be energy self sufficient.

Fishing: I commercial fished all of my life. I completed my education and raised my family through commercial fishing. I will always be supportive of our commercial fishing industry.

Alaska Marine Highway: No matter how many roads are planned, argued about and—perhaps built eventually—the Alaska Marine Highway will always be needed. I strongly believe that the AMH should be a stand alone department with its own policy making board and directors. Until that happens, I will continue to support operating money for the AMH and any monies for ferry replacements.

STATEMENT:

Rural Alaska has been experiencing an energy crisis for many years due to economic disparity between urban and rural Alaska. Now that urban Alaska is experiencing what they think is an energy crisis more recognition may be generated in recognition of regional inequities. Alaska has the greatest potential for energy development in the United States. Energy cost equality should be a statewide goal. In most of the United States energy is least expensive closest to where it originates, in Alaska it is most expensive in the rural areas where it originates.

Energy:

Hydro power, clean coal, propane, wind and solar must be developed to create an energy balanced system for the state of Alaska.

Education:

Education is key to development of Alaska resources, including human and natural resources. Alaska's education system must be improved and broadened statewide. Without better education for rural Alaska rural populations are denied the freedom of choice available to urban Alaskans.

Safety and Security

Many areas of rural Alaska are seriously deficient in law enforcement. VPSO and AST services for rural Alaska must be improved.

Resources:

As the resources of Alaska are developed rural Alaska should benefit significantly. I will support the beneficial development of resources in Alaska and work to insure that rural Alaska is not short changed.

Senior Citizens:

Senior citizens of rural Alaska have been disproportionately impacted by cuts to state government programs. I will work to insure adequate services and benefits to our senior citizens.

STATEMENT:

Fairbanksans have long been spirited individualists, pulling together to get things done.

It's time to work together and find a solution to get our community through this winter. Immediate assistance must come now, before colder weather arrives. To avoid similar predicaments in the future, we need to expand our energy infrastructure by developing all of our resources. Small-scale renewable energy projects can come online within the next 3-5 years and provide the reliable, clean, affordable power Alaska needs for the years to come.

While the state looks forward, individuals must also take this problem into their own hands, weatherizing their homes and reducing their consumption. A balanced solution to this issue then becomes an opportunity to diversify and stabilize the economy of Fairbanks.

While oil prices remain high, Alaska will experience large budget surpluses. Legislators must make hard decisions, investing this money wisely in projects and infrastructure with long-term returns. The habit of shortsighted pork funding and special-interest pandering must stop. Much is at stake, and Alaskans deserve to have these funds invested in our future, maintaining low taxes and providing a high quality of life for generations to come.

I believe elected officials are public servants, and must work for the good of the entire community. I have a history of bringing people together to find efficient, cost-effective, creative solutions to difficult problems. I'm a good listener, a proven facilitator, I set high standards, and as a fellow spirited Fairbanksan I'm looking forward to serving you in Juneau.

STATEMENT:

Cherie and I grew up, graduated University and raised our family in Fairbanks. I've trucked your fuel, helped keep your lights on 24X7 as President and CEO of GVEA, and most recently carried passengers, mail and freight to Bush Alaska as pilot for Tanana Air Service. Community involvement is my way of life. I have served as President of the Board of Regents, United Way and the Chamber of Commerce and as trustee of our Community Hospital Foundation, the UA Foundation, the Denali State Bank Board and the American Hospital Association Governance Committee. My faith and family are important in my life; they center me and teach me to listen.

I am conservative and a passionate believer in the bright future of Alaska. I am wary of government, while understanding the greatness of our system. I believe in striving for accountability, honesty and efficiency in government. Alaska is brimming with potential, yet unfortunately our youth must often seek their life's work and happiness elsewhere. At the time of statehood our leaders recognized we Alaskans were few in this vast land. They understood the cost of government and infrastructure could not be borne on so few backs. Access to, ownership of and development of Alaska's resources would be key to our prosperity.

I love the Alaskan outdoors. I believe access, multiple use and helping the other guy is at the heart of the Alaskan way. Effective game management is hard science, not politics; and it moves toward plenty, away from scarcity.

STATEMENT:

I am firmly committed to the principles stated in Alaska's Constitution that the purpose of government is to secure and transmit to succeeding generations our heritage of political, civil, and religious liberty.

I support:

- Second Amendment Rights - these rights shall not be infringed
- Life - begins at conception
- Parental consent - parents are responsible for their children including in the time of an unplanned pregnancy
- Wise Resource Development - sustains Alaska; it is Alaska's future
- Balanced Environmental Conservation - the permitting process already accounts for environmental and public concerns
- Free Economy - monopolies should not be sanctioned by the state government
- State's Rights - in the Republic, state's must assert their rights, or the federal government will redefine these rights for the states
- Limited Government - with burdensome regulations, small businesses are at a disadvantage in the marketplace
- Funding prior commitments - Alaska made a prior commitment to fund retirements; we now have the opportunity to fulfill our moral obligation
- Energy development - the nature of a free market is to meet needs; an environment friendly to entrepreneurship will most efficiently meet Alaska's energy needs. How long has the government been discussing the gas pipeline?

The strength of Alaska is in its people. We must develop our resources for the maximum benefit of all Alaskans. Forging a strong economy to provide good jobs, quality education, and the services that people need and deserve are key to our future. Adopting and implementing a long range fiscal plan and a comprehensive energy policy are crucial: a plan that represents the broad spectrum of needs and interests in Alaska.

I will continue to work to increase school funding to provide our children with the highest quality education. Our children are our greatest resource; we must give them the tools to succeed.

I support funding the University above the Regents requested level. We must dream big and we need to sustain programs and promote new initiatives that attract students and faculty to keep Alaska moving forward.

We must develop our resources using principles that meet our constitutional obligation for the maximum benefit for Alaskans. Alaska hire is a must.

Alaska families are healthy and strong when they have good jobs with health and retirement benefits and can afford their energy needs.

"The moral test of government is how it treats those who are in the dawn of life, the children, those who are in the twilight of life, the aged. And those who are in the shadow of life, the sick, the needy and the handicapped,"

STATEMENT:

Fairbanks has been home to my family for 34 years and I care deeply about its future. It has been a great place to live, operate a small business, and raise our two sons. We must be proactive to ensure that Fairbanks remains an attractive place to live, work, and raise families. I want to take on that challenge, and that's why I am seeking your support in my bid for the State Senate.

We must elect strong legislators who listen and have the skills and experience to address our challenges and opportunities. My immediate concern is the high cost of energy in Fairbanks. Our state is wealthy, but residents of Fairbanks are struggling to pay for heating oil, gasoline and electricity.

It is imperative for Fairbanks to have a strong legislative delegation to support all issues of importance to Fairbanks and Alaska. The residents of this community trusted me to make decisions on the School Board and Borough Assembly. I worked very hard as an elected official and am proud of the contributions I made. Trust is the backbone of good government. I promise to work hard, every day, to earn and maintain that trust.

I care, I'm committed, and I'm optimistic about our future. I would be proud to represent Fairbanks in the Alaska State Senate.

STATEMENT:

I am proud of my deep roots in Fairbanks. My grandfather moved to Alaska before WWII and worked as a blacksmith in mining camps. My father, Tommy, founded the family business, Tommy's Elbow Room, in downtown Fairbanks with a GI loan in 1947.

I was born, raised, and have lived my adult life in Senate District E. Although my family has been engaged in nearly every aspect of our community, I have remained a political outsider until now.

As I go door-to-door, nearly every person tells me that the single most important issue is the high cost of heating oil. We need solutions now. I have proposed that consumers pay $2.50 per gallon for heating oil, while the state pays the balance directly to the distributors. This puts money where it's needed most: your fuel tank.

There is work to be done. We must maintain and expand our infrastructure. We need a more vibrant economy, which means building a gas line in the near future and putting money in the pockets of Alaskans by acquiring equity ownership in the gas line. Our children deserve a first rate education, which means smaller classes with competitive salaries and benefits for teachers. Long-term energy solutions will also be a priority.

This community has been good to my family and me. I hope you will allow me to work for you. I would appreciate your vote on November 4 so that we can get busy solving problems and creating a bright future for Alaskans.

STATEMENT:

I believe in Fairbanks - in our ability to reduce energy costs, create higher-paying jobs, educate our kids and help people thrive. Most of all, I believe that, with the right leadership, generations of Fairbanksans will have a brighter future.

Yet, if our delegation is weak, Fairbanks will be disadvantaged, while other communities prosper. We need proven leaders with the wisdom that real life experience brings. We need representatives who will speak up for us and get things done, not just say they did.

Raising a family, owning a business and serving in the community have taught me much. I know the challenges our community faces and how to work with others to create solutions. I know how to listen and how to turn ideas into action.

I will work for:

1. Our Energy - Eliminate the current energy crisis through short-term energy relief, conservation, pursuit of alternatives, low cost in-state gas and construction of the Susitna Hydro Project;
2. Our Jobs - Expand economic opportunity and prosperity for our people, so Alaskans are financially secure, not just our government.
3. Our People - Address the needs of our people through smart, targeted solutions, that foster personal responsibility, strong families and community connections - not big government, one-size-fits-all programs that don't work.

We need a stronger, more effective voice for District 9, someone who will speak up and get the job done. I have a 30-year track record of effective advocacy. I can't wait to go to work for you in Juneau!

STATEMENT:

Fairbanks deserves a leader who will act boldly and work hard to get the job done in Juneau. We deserve leader who will listen-not just talk. Listening to your concerns and being accountable to you has helped me to work for needed change in Juneau. If I am reelected, I will continue to stand up for what is right, work across party lines and advance needed solutions.

With high oil prices and large budget surpluses, we must have Legislators who can make the tough decisions and stand up to special-interests and political parties. The high cost of energy is stifling to the economy and family budgets. Yet in Juneau, while most families suffered with the high cost of energy, the legislative majority enacted the largest budget in history. Spending priorities are misplaced. That is why I voted against the budget. I will continue to fight for responsible spending in Juneau.

As a member of the House Resources Committee and the Oil and Gas Committee, I helped pass historic legislation to get a gasline moving forward. A gasline is still years away in construction to help with our current energy problems. Renewable energy projects, conservation and home weatherization are a mid-term solution. We also must help families with the cost of energy through short term solutions and sharing some of the state's oil wealth through a direct benefit plan.

It has been an honor to serve you for the last two years. I look forward to serving you in the future.

STATEMENT:

We need open, honest legislators who will work to regain the trust of the people we serve. If I am elected I will have an open door and open mind to all sides of the issues and vote for what is best for my district and the State of Alaska.

We have tremendous untapped natural resources in timber, minerals, coal, oil, and natural gas. I am committed to responsible development of our resources to the maximum benefit of all Alaskans. I am also committed to using an even more important resource, the people of Fairbanks and Alaska.

That means support for all education. I support fully funding education and the University of Alaska Fairbanks. It's time to work for our kids. Low graduation rates have hurt Fairbanks schools and businesses and we need to invest in educating, and training students to enter tomorrow's workforce. If our children are not ready to take the jobs we create Fairbanks and Alaska lose.

Affordable energy is key to attracting the development that brings good jobs to Alaska. We have the natural and financial resources to develop gas, hydro, clean coal, geo-thermal, wind and solar energy. All we need is the will. If we don't build a diversified energy infrastructure the high cost of doing business in Alaska will continue to hinder growth.

I want to listen to your needs and work with you to make Fairbanks and Alaska an even better place to live, work, and raise a family.

STATEMENT:

Having served in the Legislature for two terms now, I find that it allows an elected member of our community to do good things that can make our neighborhoods safer and healthier and the city of Fairbanks a better place to live and the state of Alaska more forward-thinking, prosperous and business-friendly.

As we go about pursuing the quiet enjoyment of our lives, the cost of energy in the form of heating our homes and kilowatts for our electrical use are making it mathematically impossible for the permanent residents and homeowners in Fairbanks to maintain the quality of life we are accustomed to and deserve. We didn't choose to live in Fairbanks to find economic hardship—we chose to live here because it's a charming, safe urban area with all the comforts and culture of the Lower 48.

To fulfill this dream, we must have good education, public safety, roads and essential government services—but we cannot afford to be without the basic building block of affordable energy. I am committed to delivering a small diameter pipeline to Fairbanks within the next five years. Creating formulas to provide short-term energy relief are okay, but with declining oil production—our answer lies in transitioning from an oil economy to a gas economy.

All of District 10 could convert to natural gas. We would have a safe, less expensive, long term solution that can restore hope and economic stability to our town. I stand for first gas in five years.

STATEMENT:

I came to Alaska when I was 14 with my father who opened the Safeway Store at Bently Mall. I have worked in the grocery business for almost 30 years. I have seen and personally experienced the ups and downs of a fluctuating economy.

We need to act decisively and develop a multi-faceted plan of action containing both short and long-term ways of impacting the rising costs of energy to ensure our economy remains stable.

I believe our State Government plays a positive and vital role in this process.

The future of Alaska lies in its people; we are our greatest resource. A well-trained, educated, work force provides the manpower to build a strong infrastructure and a well-diversified economy. In tandem, we need to responsibly utilize and manage our natural resources.

I support the following issues:

Energy -

- Implementing a system to encourage conservation & reduce our energy consumption & dependence on fossil fuels
- Developing natural gas and the completion of a gas pipeline
- Continuing research and implementation of alternative energy sources
- Developing sustainable recycling programs

For a Diversified Economy -

- Supporting worker rights
- Encouraging small business development
- Creating enough jobs and training opportunities so our children can remain in Alaska rather than going Outside to make a living

Improving Public Safety and Education

Increasing Access to Health Care

Let me be your Voice for Positive Change. Instead of limiting the role of government, I will ensure our state government works for you.

STATEMENT:

My gratitude is to the people of the North Pole Area for the privilege of serving as your Representative. I have enjoyed being a part of the policy process for Alaska during the last two years and am willing to continue working for our District.

Some of the things I believe are easier said than done but I commit to pushing forward with conservative principles, while respecting others views, I think our District has a voice that must be heard.

Limited Government, Maximum individual liberty, Traditional Family Values, godly heritage, Rule of law, and our Constitutional Republic based in our Declaration of Independence are my core beliefs.

I am pro-life. Choices are before conception - after this we are responsible to our creator as parents.

Education Starts with the family and is aided by government. A tendency is to turn that around unless we work at keeping the right balance.

Energy issues are important these days and we need to find short-term, mid-term and long-term solutions. First, get gas to us as inexpensively and quickly as possible, invest in the Susitna Hydro project and learn to conserve where we can. The state can help in all of these but I am not in favor of state ownership of large projects.

Our future is bright and the decisions weighty. We must manage our government well now, so we can enjoy the blessings of liberty. Then leave Alaska better than we found it so our children may also enjoy this great land.

STATEMENT:

I am honored to once again have the opportunity and privilege to serve my district and all the people across the entire state of Alaska within the state legislature.

As a fourth generation Alaskan, I feel a responsibility to help address and solve the issues facing our state and nation. The legislature has a role in addressing social and economic matters that can help improve our communities, and I enjoy meeting these challenges and opportunities.

My pledge is to work in a bi-partisan effort within the legislature to benefit our district and people throughout the state. When all Alaskans enjoy a stable economy - with good jobs, wages and benefits - then all communities can have quality schools, good teachers, and a system for opportunity and achievement.

Alaska will always be a natural resource state, and the legislature must assure ongoing development of our oil and gas, timber, agriculture, mining, seafood, tourism, and other opportunities. We have to do this in a way that makes sense both economically and environmentally.

I am asking for your vote. Thank you.

STATEMENT:

Alaska has given me the opportunity to build two small, family businesses while living amidst dynamic scenery, interesting people and a state where politicians used to listen. As I run for state house, I have traveled the more than 1800 miles of roads encompassing our district stopping to listen to the concerns of small business owners along the highway and in our small towns. I've enjoyed attending local fairs and personally calling many of you listening to your concerns about food and energy, schools and community libraries, the need to upgrade our highways and the high cost of imprisoning so many Alaskans.

Everywhere I am hearing that we need to work together for better government in Juneau. We need our gas in Alaska. We need pre-school education and more funding for K-12 and our University. We need grants and loans for renewable energy projects, not an unproven and prohibitively expensive experimental coal facility.

I'm running for State House to pursue strategies that will help individuals and small businesses, schools and communities to meet their goals to build a better future.

I'll work for-

- effective energy programs using rebates, price ceilings, weatherization and renewable resources that reduce the risks of global warming
- education and training that provides our young people the opportunity to live and work in Alaska at high paying jobs
- agricultural programs that support Alaska's farms & self-sufficient Victory Gardens
- successful solutions to Alaska's high crime rate and the pain it causes families and communities

By law, voters are allowed to decide if judges should be retained. Each judge in Alaska is subject to a retention election after a certain number of years on the bench. The number of years between retention elections depends upon the court in which the judge sits.

Supreme Court Justices: Voters decide if a judge should be retained for ten years.

Court of Appeals: Voters decide if a judge should be retained for eight years.

Superior Court: Voters decide if a judge should be retained for six years.

District Court: Voters decide if a judge should be retained for four years.

Alaska Judicial Evaluation and Retention System

www.ajc.state.ak.us

Alaskans choose their judges through a merit selection system and vote every few years on whether to keep them on the bench. The system assures that judges remain non-partisan and accountable to the public. The constitution requires that the Alaska Judicial Council nominate only the best-qualified people to the Governor for appointment to judgeships, and the state laws require that the Judicial Council evaluate each judge standing for retention elections. State law also requires that the Judicial Council publish its evaluations in the Voters' Pamphlet. The evaluations of judges standing in the November 2008 election appear on the following pages. Each judge also may pay for a page of biographical information that he or she prepares.

Judicial Evaluation Procedures

The Alaska Judicial Council, a non-partisan citizens commission established by the Alaska constitution, evaluates judges on a number of criteria that include legal ability, demeanor, diligence, ability to manage their caseloads, and fairness and integrity. The Council evaluates judges with the help of thousands of Alaska citizens — police and probation officers, attorneys, jurors, court employees, social workers and others who appear in court before the judges. In 2008, the Council surveyed these groups, asked for written and oral comments from the public throughout the state, and reviewed records about judges' workloads, conflicts of interest, and other aspects of performance.

Summary of Alaska Judicial Council Recommendations - In 2008 the Judicial Council evaluated ten trial court judges, one supreme court justice and one court of appeals judge. The Council found that eleven judges were QUALIFIED and recommends that voters retain them as judges. The Council found that Judge Dennis P. Cummings was UNQUALIFIED and recommends that voters not retain him as a judge.

Surveys - The Judicial Council surveyed all active members of the Alaska Bar Association, and all peace and probation officers in the state. In 2008, the Council sent surveys to 2,884 attorneys and 1,539 peace and probation officers. An independent contractor handled the surveys for the Judicial Council, to assure objectivity in the findings. Questions on the surveys asked about judges' legal abilities, fairness, integrity, temperament, diligence and overall performance. Similar surveys went to social workers and citizens who participated in helping Alaska's children in court as guardians ad litem and Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) volunteers. The Council asked jurors who had served on cases with the judges to comment on the judges' abilities to handle the trials fairly and capably. Court employees also received surveys to rate the judges.

Judge and Counsel Questionnaires - Each judge standing for retention returned a self-evaluation questionnaire to the Judicial Council. The questionnaire included lists of recent cases that the judge believed were important for evaluation, with an emphasis on jury and non-jury trials. The Council asked each attorney in each case to fill out an additional survey about the judge's performance in that particular case, including detailed comments about the judge's abilities.

Other Records - Council staff reviewed a series of other public records, including conflict of interest annual statements filed with the Alaska Public Offices Commission and separate forms filed with the court system; court case files; Commission on Judicial Conduct public files; and a report on any withheld salary warrants. The Council also reviewed performance related court data, such as the number of peremptory challenges filed against a judge and the number of reversals on appeal. The Council looked at performance related data carefully, because a judge's caseload type or location may play a major part in the numbers of challenges or appeals and reversals. For example, an Anchorage judge assigned 800 civil cases in one year may receive more challenges (and possibly more appellate reversals) than a rural area judge assigned a mixed caseload of 500 civil and criminal cases. The Alaska Judicial Observers, an independent group of community-based volunteer court observers, provided information to the Council about the retention judges in Anchorage who they had evaluated.

Public Hearings and Comment - The Council held statewide public hearings for all judges standing for retention, using the legislature's teleconference network and public meeting rooms. Statewide newspaper ads encouraged public participation. Public hearings gave citizens a valuable opportunity to speak out about their experiences with judges. They also provided a forum in which citizens could hear the opinions of others.

Investigation - Council staff investigated specific cases, listened to court proceedings, and interviewed judges, attorneys, court staff, and others.

Other Publicity and Input - The Council widely publicized the evaluation process and solicited comments about judges on its website. The Council balanced all the information it received from its many sources.

Results of Evaluations

Evaluation information for each retention judge appears on the following pages. Summaries of the attorney, peace and probation officer, juror, social worker and court employee survey scores are provided. The Alaska Judicial Observers evaluation, where available, also is summarized. Summaries of survey results are shown in tables. Survey ratings are on a five-point scale with "5" as the highest score, "1" as the least favorable score, and "3" as acceptable. The Council's Internet web pages contain survey results and performance information about each judge on the ballot this fall. (<http://www.ajc.state.ak.us>)

Judicial Council Members

Alaska's constitution establishes the membership of the Judicial Council as three non-attorney members appointed by the Governor, three attorney members appointed by the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association, and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Alaska who serves, ex officio, as chair. (The Chief Justice only votes when his or her vote can affect an outcome.) The Constitution provides that all appointments be made with "due consideration to area representation and without regard to political affiliation." A majority of both houses of the Legislature must confirm the non-attorney appointments, while the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association appoints the attorney members after conducting advisory elections among bar members within local judicial districts. Members serve six-year staggered terms. They receive no financial compensation for their work other than reimbursement for travel expenses.

Dana Fabe was chair of the Judicial Council when the Council conducted its evaluation and made its retention recommendations, by virtue of her position as Chief Justice of the Alaska Supreme Court. Justice Fabe was appointed to the supreme court in 1996. Before her appointment, she had served as a superior court judge. (Term: 2006 - 2009)

James H. Cannon is an attorney member from Fairbanks. Mr. Cannon is in private practice in Fairbanks. He previously served as a public defender in Fairbanks from 1980-2005. He has practiced law since 1975. (Term: 2006-2012)

Bill Gordon is a non-attorney member from Fairbanks. He is a lifelong Alaskan who served as Executive Assistant to Governor Hammond, served as chair of the Alcohol Beverage Control Board, and is a semi-retired consultant and part owner of public water and wastewater companies in interior Alaska. (Term: 2003 - 2009)

Louis James Menendez is an attorney member from Juneau. Mr. Menendez is in private practice in Juneau. (Term: 2007 - 2010)

Kevin Fitzgerald is an attorney member from Anchorage. He is a partner in Ingaldson, Maassen & Fitzgerald. (Term: 2008 - 2014)

Christena Williams is a non-attorney member from Ketchikan. She is a third generation Alaskan and newspaper co-publisher. She and her family own and operate Pioneer Printing Co., Inc. and the Ketchikan Daily News. (Term: 2005 - 2011)

At the time the Council made its recommendations, one non-attorney member position was vacant.

See www.ajc.state.ak.us for detailed judicial evaluation information.

STATEMENT:

It has been my privilege to serve on the Alaska Supreme Court since Governor Hickel appointed me in 1994. Each day brings fresh and intellectually challenging cases. I have worked hard to be the best justice I can. This means remaining impartial and open to the parties' arguments and the other justices' analyses. It means untangling and deciding the issues as the law requires, without regard to personal views on social or political ramifications of the issues. It means working hard to make my opinions clear and easily understood.

I have deep roots in Alaska and great regard for Alaska and its people. My father's father came to Nome as a mining engineer in 1900. My father was a lawyer and a territorial legislator. My mother's father began practicing law in Juneau nearly 100 years ago and was a constitutional delegate.

I have two particular interests: (1) making sure that race and ethnicity do not disadvantage anyone in the justice system; and (2) reducing delay on appeal. As to the first, I have been co-chair of the court's Fairness and Access Committee since 1998. As to the second, the court has adopted a number of my suggestions that significantly speed up appellate decision-making. We need to continue that improvement, without compromising decisional quality.

I hope voters will allow me to continue to serve.

Alaska Judicial Council Recommendation

Judge Dennis P. Cummings, District Court, Bethel

Judicial Council Recommendation

The Alaska Judicial Council, a non-partisan citizens commission established by the Alaska constitution, evaluates judges on a number of criteria, including their legal ability, their demeanor, their diligence, their ability to manage their caseloads, and their fairness and integrity. After receiving a number of reports and comments from those who work with and appear before Bethel District Court Judge Dennis Cummings, the Judicial Council undertook an additional investigation including a review of court records and interviews with forty people. The Council reviewed a complaint issued by the Alaska Commission on Judicial Conduct that found probable cause to allege that Judge Cummings had violated several Canons of Judicial Conduct relating to ex parte contact with a state witness in a criminal trial. The Council also reviewed Judge Cummings' response to that complaint. The Council considered ratings from attorneys statewide who rated Judge Cummings "below acceptable" in the areas of Legal Ability and Temperament. Among attorneys in the Fourth Judicial District, where Judge Cummings presides, the judge received ratings that were substantially "below acceptable" on Legal Ability, Impartiality, Temperament, and Overall Performance. Based on this investigation and a meeting with Judge Cummings in which he had an opportunity to respond, the Judicial Council had considerable concerns about Judge Cummings' lack of impartiality, inappropriate ex parte contact, inability to control the courtroom, inadequate legal knowledge, and lack of candor. The Judicial Council finds Judge Cummings to be Unqualified and recommends unanimously that the public vote "No" on his retention as a district court judge.

Judicial Council Evaluation

The Judicial Council surveyed 2,884 attorneys and 1,539 peace and probation officers, together with social workers/guardians ad litem, and child advocates, jurors, and court employees about the judges on the ballot. STATEMENT:

It has been my honor to have served as a district court judge for the past decade here in Fairbanks. It remains challenging and rewarding. Most of my caseload is criminal cases that involve abuse of alcohol. It remains a major challenge of our criminal justice system. Judge Downes and I have been involved in the creation of the Fairbanks Wellness Court which opened its doors last fall. This exciting project, based on successful court programs across the country and around Alaska, seeks to turn repeat DUI offenders through an intense 18 month program into productive citizens with a greatly reduced risk of harming others through drinking and driving.

I remain very active in bringing school children into the courtroom for mock trials, talking to classes everywhere from grade schools to UAF in our community, and working with the Fairbanks Youth Court. I was pleased to receive the 2007 Community Outreach Award from the Alaska Supreme Court for my efforts in this area. I also am involved as a training judge for several years with rural magistrates in our area. I serve on statewide committees on new judge training and the pattern criminal jury instructions.

Every day I continue to strive to be efficient and expeditious in handling the decisions that come before me. I have also been active in volunteering to handle many settlement conferences. I will continue to work hard to serve the citizens of our community in a fair and just manner.

ALASKA REPUBLICAN PARTY

"Government is not the giver of rights; only God confers these to the people. People create government, giving it certain and limited powers. Only eternal vigilance by the people will confine government to its proper role."

Joseph E. Vogler, Founder of the Alaskan Independence Party.

Although the origins of the Alaskan Independence Party date back to the early 1970s, it wasn't until 1984 that it became an "officially recognized" party by the State of Alaska. Advocating an "Alaska First" policy focused around land and resource development, AIP has since emerged as one of the most significant state-level third parties operating in the late 20th century.

The AIP believes full compliance with the Constitutions of the United States of America and the State of Alaska is necessary.

The AIP supports and defends States' Rights, Individual Rights, and the Equal Footing Doctrine as guaranteed by the constitutions of the United States of America and the state of Alaska.

The AIP supports amending the Constitution of the State of Alaska so as to re-establish the rights of all Alaskan residents to entry upon all public lands within the state, and to acquire private property interest therein, under fair and reasonable conditions. Such property interest shall include surface and sub-surface patent.

The AIP wishes to preserve and protect the Alaska Permanent Fund, earnings, and individual Permanent Fund Dividends.

The AIP supports a constitutional amendment abolishing and prohibiting all property taxes.

The AIP supports the right of the individual to keep and bear arms.

The AIP supports the complete abolition of the concept of sovereign or governmental immunity, so as to restore accountability for public servants.

We are the only Alaskan political party that is entirely comprised of Alaskans, staffed by Alaskans and financed by Alaskans.

We affirm that all political power is inherent in the people; that all government originates with the people, if founded on their will only, is instituted to protect the rights of the individual; that all persons have a natural right to life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness, and the enjoyment of the rewards of their own industry; that all persons are equal and entitled to equal protection under the law. We stand on a firm constitutional foundation.

The Alaskan Independence Party can be summed up in just two words: ALASKA FIRST!

ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION

WHY DOES APOC EXIST?

The mission of the Alaska Public Offices Commission is to encourage the public's confidence in their elected and appointed public officials by administering and enforcing Alaska's disclosure statutes and publishing financial information about election campaigns, public officials, lobbyists and lobbyist employers.

LAWS ADMINISTERED BY APOC

The Alaska Public Offices Commission administers and enforces four disclosure laws; AS 15.13 Campaign Disclosure, AS 24.45 Lobbying, AS 39.50 Public Official Financial Disclosure, and AS 24.60 Legislative Financial Disclosure. These laws require the disclosure of information that enables citizens to trace the influence of private interests on public decision-making. This disclosure helps to limit privileged influence through revealing special interests and exposing conflicts of interest. The laws are designed to develop accountability in government by giving the public access to information to judge the credentials and performance of public officials and candidates for public offices. The disclosure reports filed with APOC are public records.

WHO IS THE COMMISSION?

The two political parties whose candidates for governor received the most votes at the most recent gubernatorial election each nominate two commission members. The four members nominate a fifth member from applicants from the general public. The governor appoints and the legislature confirms the nominations. Terms are for five years, with a different term expiring each year. The commission currently consists of two Republican Party members, two Democratic Party members, and one public member. The commission has offices and staff in Anchorage and Juneau.

HOW CAN WE HELP YOU?

This agency is your source of information on all aspects of the disclosure laws. We are committed to fulfilling our mission by providing you with information. Most of this information can be accessed, free of charge, on the APOC Web site. You can find out who has contributed to a particular ballot group, which political action committees are spending the most, which lobbyists are working for which employers, who is contributing to candidates and how much is being given and spent to influence voters. APOC works with the public and those who file financial reports to make the disclosure process effective, efficient and transparent.

Visit our Web site or call us if you would like information about how to take advantage of the information required by the laws that APOC administers. If you have any observations, suggestions or ideas, please let us know.

This is your agency and we welcome the opportunity to make APOC work for you.

The Strength of Diversification

Alaska Permanent Fund • 2008

LETTER FROM THE CHAIR

What a difference a year can make. Last September, the Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation Board of Trustees had the pleasure of reporting that the Permanent Fund's investments had returned 17.1% for the fiscal year, and that every asset class had provided a positive return.

And then the storms came.

It is precisely because of times like these that the Board of Trustees takes a long-term view, building an all-weather portfolio for the Permanent Fund. We don't try to time the markets. Instead we build a portfolio that we believe will provide a more stable return under a variety of market conditions, to reach the conservative goal of a 5% rate of return over time above the rate of inflation.

Diversification is a very important part of building our portfolio. Last fiscal year's positive performance by every asset class was extremely unusual. Generally, different types of investments work in disharmony with one another, and as market conditions favor one type of investment, other investments will cycle down. The strength of diversification lies in its ability to help the Permanent Fund make healthy gains during up markets and limit losses during financial turmoil like we have experienced for the last year.

The experts suggest that there is still some rough weather in the near term. Fortunately, the Permanent Fund has the advantage of being a long-term investor, and we will continue to press forward on our path. The Trustees are very deliberate in the investment decisions that we make, and we can hold on to those investments as long as we continue to have faith in their underlying value, regardless of how the markets are performing.

One final note - I believe that Alaskans will always be richer for having the foresight 30 years ago to create this Fund. It will have its ups and downs in the future, as it has in the past, but with prudent management it will be here to benefit Alaskans in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Steve Frank

WHAT IS THE ALASKA PERMANENT FUND?

The Permanent Fund is an investment fund created by Alaskans in 1976 as a way to save a portion of our oil revenues for the needs of future generations. On June 30, 2008, the Fund was worth $35.9 billion.

WHO MANAGES THE PERMANENT FUND?

The Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation manages the day-to-day operations of the Fund and is overseen by a six-member Board of Trustees appointed by the governor and selected for their experience in finance, investments or other business-related fields.

A Two-Part Fund

HOW DOES THE FUND WORK?

The Fund is divided into two parts, principal and earnings, both of which are fully invested. The Alaska Constitution says that the principal may not be spent. The earnings in the earnings reserve account may be spent by the Legislature for any purpose it wishes. Currently, earnings are only used for the Permanent Fund Dividend and transfers to the Alaska Capital Income Fund.

HOW DOES MONEY GO INTO THE EARNINGS RESERVE ACCOUNT?

Realized earnings go into the earnings reserve account. This is the income from bond interest, real estate rent payments, stock dividends and the gains from assets that are sold at a profit. Unrealized earnings remain in principal until the assets are sold.

HOW IS THE FUND INVESTED?

Originally, the Fund was only invested in bonds. Now it is invested in a number of different asset classes, which earn income and can grow in value. By diversifying the Fund into these different assets, the Trustees ensure that it is better protected for the future. When one asset class has a down year, it is often balanced by good performance in other asset classes.

HOW DOES THE FUND GROW?

The Fund has three sources of potential growth each year, which are listed below. For FY08, the additions and subtractions from the Fund's total value are listed in the Sources of Change in Fund Value graph.

- The state Constitution directs that 25% of Alaska's mineral royalties and primarily oil royalties be deposited into the Fund.
- Income flows in from stock dividends, bond interest and real estate rental fees.
- Assets can increase (or decrease) in value over the original purchase price, whether they are sold or held in the portfolio.

HOW IS THE DIVIDEND DETERMINED?

On June 30 of each year, the statutory income of the Fund for the last five years is averaged together and half of that amount is available for the dividend. Then that amount is divided by the number of qualified applicants for the dividend.
