Statement:

I am a lifelong Alaskan with a passion for this place and its people. From small town mayor to Permanent Fund manager, I know that polarizing partisanship is not how solutions are achieved. It takes leadership and hard work. I have a 50-year bi-partisan track record of bringing people together to tackle complicated issues. This campaign is about building a better Alaska and who's best prepared to get us there.

Priorities:

Education: My first priority is education: it grows everything else. From universal, voluntary pre-K services to timely, predictable K-12 funding to expecting excellence in the classroom to reducing student loan interest rates, a strong education system attracts and keeps residents and grows the economy. It's the best investment we can make.

Energy: Energy costs are crippling . My first day on the job I will appoint an energy chief to coordinate and consolidate efforts to bring affordable power and fuel to all Alaskans, with an emphasis on innovation and conservation. While there's no single answer, there can and should be a singular focus on energy at the highest level.

The Economy: Alaska faces critical choices -- not in 10 or 20 years -- but now. Our state is in a dangerous situation: revenues don't cover costs and savings will be depleted within five years. Balancing the books while supporting vital public services is fundamental and urgent. Thirty years as a CEO and director of profit and non-profit organizations have prepared me well to work toward a balanced bottom line.
