

DeLena M. Johnson—Republican-Senate District F

Statement:

My name is DeLena Johnson and I am currently serving a second term as Mayor of Palmer. I am a forty-seven year Alaskan resident. My husband Steve and I call the Valley our home and have raised our five children here. I graduated from UAA with a BA in mathematics and Mat-Su College with an AA in electronics. In addition I have experience in the education system through my children ranging from independent Home school, Charter school, Public school, Public Universities, and Military academies. I started and own Ethos Llc an award winning property development company specializing in unique Alaska properties. I have operated a business through good and bad times and understand what it means to put your own capital and sweat at risk. I am fiscally responsible, pro-Life, and a lifetime NRA member. I am an Alaskan in heart and mind and will always remain an Alaskan.
