As we are approaching the August 19th Primary election, the Division of Elections is still trying to find individuals who are interested in working as election officials at the polls on Election Day.

It takes several thousand workers across Alaska to conduct the election and distribute ballots to voters. Prior to each election, the division recruits workers to assist voters in the polling place on Election Day. Being an election worker is an opportunity to serve your community and be involved in the electoral process, and, you get paid for your service!

Workers are still needed in Anchorage, Matanuska-Susitna area and Fairbanks. If you are interested in serving your community, contact the Region II Elections Office in Anchorage at 522-8683, or in Fairbanks, the Region III Election Office at 451-2835.
