Division of Elections' 2016 General Election Media Guide now available

The Alaska Division of Elections has produced a Media Guide for the 2016 General Election. The guide is available on our website at: http://elections.alaska.gov/pub_mp.php

The media guide includes a wide range of election management topics, important dates, voting information, what's on the ballot and information about the counting schedule for early, absentee and questioned ballots.

A teleconference work session to answer media questions about the media guide and upcoming election is set for this Friday, November 4, 2016 at 11:00 a.m. If interested, please RSVP to: elections@alaska.gov to receive additional information as it becomes available. Elections staff will join Division Director Josie Bahnke to answer questions.

Online Posting of Election Results

The statewide summary of election results will be posted on the web in HTML, PDF and text formats beginning between 9:00 and 9:30 p.m. and updated approximately every 15-20 minutes on several public websites. The slight delay in posting results is due to the Division first counting and uploading Early ballots voted through 11/7/2016 and Absentee ballots received and reviewed by the Absentee Ballot Review Board through 11/1/2016. The statement of votes cast, which is a breakdown of results by individual voting precinct, will not be posted until the end of the evening when all precincts have reported.

In addition to public sites, Media Use Only website where results will be posted – do not give to public:
