Touch Screen Voting Demonstration

(Fairbanks) - Lieutenant Governor Loren Leman, Division of Elections Director Whitney Brewster and Election Supervisor Shelly Growden demonstrate the State's new touch screen voting machines on Tuesday, June 13, 2006 at noon in the Region III Fairbanks Election Office located at 675 7th Avenue, Suite A2.

Touch screen machines are designed to be user-friendly for Alaska's visually impaired and disabled voters and will be used in the upcoming primary and general elections. The public is welcome to attend the demonstration however, the voting machines are intended for use by members of the visually impaired and disabled community. Tuesday's demonstration explains how to vote on the machines and highlights their accessible features.

For additional information on the touch screen units, please visit the Division of Elections website at: www.elections.state.ak.us. If you do not have access to the Internet, or if you have questions or need assistance, please contact the Fairbanks Regional office at (907) 451-2835, or the Elections Director's office in Juneau at (907) 465-4611.
