Statement:

Alaska's strength is her people. We must develop our resources for their maximum benefit, not corporations, not political ideologies, but for all Alaskans. We must foster a healthy economy that helps to create good jobs, and offers a top-notch education, and delivers services that Alaskans need and deserve.

To face today's fiscal crisis every segment of our society must carry their share, not just working Alaskans. The permanent fund is one of Alaska's greatest assets and we need to let it do its job. It belongs to our grandchildren as much as it belongs to us.

I want to increase school funding to provide Alaska's children the highest quality education. Alaska's youth hold unlimited potential and are truly our greatest resource. We must give them the tools to succeed.

I support dependable funding for the University of Alaska. We must dream big: we must sustain successful programs and promote new initiatives to attract the brightest students and best faculty. The university is a powerful intellectual and economic engine. We need to keep Alaska moving.

With four generations of my family having lived in Alaska I understand strong families, good jobs and good benefits.

"The moral test of government is how it treats those who are in the dawn of life; those who are in the twilight of life, the aged; and those who are in the shadow of life, the sick, the needy and the handicapped."

Hubert Humphrey
