Voter Assistance and Concerns

Cucuklitulit Ukisqautekait Civuuratait-llu

Assistance While Voting

If you need language or other assistance during the voting process, you may have a person of your choice help you as long as that person is not a candidate for office in the election, is not your employer, agent of your employer or agent of a union you belong to. You can have help during each step of the voting process, including inside the voting booth with reading or marking the ballot. The election workers at the polling place are available to help you as well. This is your right under federal law.

Alaska Native Language Assistance

Bilingual outreach workers and poll workers have been hired by the Division of Elections to provide language assistance in rural areas where there are limited English proficient Alaska Native voters. Before Election Day, bilingual workers make announcements, provide election information to their community and are available to provide language assistance for any voting related activity, including voter registration, absentee voting and to assist with all information in this pamphlet. On Election Day, bilingual workers will provide language assistance at the polling place with the voting process, including translating the ballot.

If you need the name of the person who has been hired to provide language assistance in your community, please contact the Division of Elections. For Alaska Native language assistance call, toll free, 1-866-954-8683.

Touch Screen Voting Machine

On Election Day, each polling place will have a touch screen voting machine. The touch screen voting machine is intended for the blind, disabled, and for voters who do not read well. It allows voters to vote unassisted through the use of magnified, high contrast and audio ballots. In rural areas where there are limited English proficient Alaska Native voters, the touch screen voting machine will also have an audio translation of the ballot in Alaska Native languages. Voting an audio ballot may take 15 – 20 minutes. If you need to vote using the touch screen voting machine, let the election board know.

An Act Allowing Qualified Individuals to Register to Vote When Applying for a Permanent Fund Dividend.

This act would instruct the Division of Elections to register a qualified Alaskan to vote when applying for the permanent fund dividend (PFD). If a person registers to vote for the first time through a PFD application, the Division of Elections would compare the person's information to state records to ensure that the person is an eligible voter. The Division of Elections would let the citizen know if he or she has been added to the state registration list, or if the person's current voting address does not match the one provided on the PFD form. In that case, the person could change their voter registration address. The notice also would allow an applicant to request removal from the registration list. Thus, using the data from the PFD form, the Division of Elections would register a qualified Alaskan to vote unless he or she opts out. The notice would also allow a person to register with a political party. Voter information is already confidential under existing state law.

Should this initiative become law?

15PFVR Neutral Summary

This Act creates another method for a person to register to vote. A person could register using a permanent fund dividend (PFD) application. The person would have to attest that the information on the person's PFD form is true. Voter information on a PFD form would be provided to the Division of Elections. The division would check whether the person is eligible to vote. If the person is eligible, the person would be notified that the person will be registered to vote in this state. An out-of-state registration for the person would be canceled. The person has 30 days to respond to the notice and opt out. The Act provides that voter information on a PFD form would be as confidential as other voter information.

Every eligible citizen in Alaska should have an equal opportunity to have their voice heard in our democracy. By combining the secure PFD application process with voter registration, this proposition will help protect the fundamental right of every eligible Alaskan citizen to vote—whether they are a senior in Anchorage, an active duty member of the military deployed overseas, or an Alaska Native in a rural community.

PFD Voter Registration is a small common-sense update to Alaska's elections process that streamlines government and saves taxpayer dollars by combining the annual PFD application with simultaneous voter registration. If it passes, the information submitted to the 2017 PFD application would also be sent to the Division of Elections. While the State processes your PFD, the Division of Elections will register eligible new voters and update the addresses of established voters. New voters will receive a notification in the mail to either declare a political affiliation or opt-out of the voter registration process.

We make government more efficient and save taxpayer dollars. Citizens can fill out one less government form, saving municipal clerks countless hours of manually inputting hand-written information for each voter. Meanwhile, the State saves money by printing and distributing less paper ballots. And, we stretch our resources by using the existing secure PFD application process.

This is especially important for Alaskans serving in the military, residents living in rural communities, and Alaska Natives. It's estimated by the Division of Elections that approximately 70,000 eligible citizens living in Alaska could be registered to vote in just one year.

| It is a privilege and an honor to serve the State of Alaska as an Anchorage Superior Court judge. For the last 11 years, I have presided over criminal, civil, family, probate, juvenile delinquency and child-in-need-of-aid cases. I work hard to prepare for each case, give each side a fair opportunity to present its side of the story, and render timely and just decisions. I respect the people who serve as jurors and I run my trials efficiently to minimize the impact to each juror's other responsibilities. Many people come to court without an attorney and I am committed to providing them the same access to justice as those represented by an attorney. Integrity is a cornerstone of my profession and I strive to represent Alaska with honor. I diligently manage each case so there can be no question of my commitment to ensuring each person has a fair opportunity to present his or her case and be heard. I have served the State of Alaska to the best of my ability and look forward to serving the state and its citizens in the future. | Quyanarquq nanrarnaqluni-llu kevgiullra State of Alaska-m Anchorage-ami cuqcistenġulua qanercitaarviim quyinrani. | I have been honored to serve as a judge for over 15 years and I am still excited about the job. I am particularly interested in cases involving children and serve on two court committees that deal with improving the way the court handles Children in Need of Aid cases. One day a week I also act as a settlement judge for cases assigned to other judges. This work allows the public to more directly solve their own disputes.I believe that the law is held in trust for all people, not just the rich and powerful, and that justice should be the primary focus of our court system. I believe that all persons should have access to our courts, not just those who can afford a lawyer. I understand the legal system is very expensive for most people and have worked to improve access to the courts for those who cannot afford a lawyer. | My work as a judge at the Palmer court has been the most rewarding experience in my career. In fact, the rewards come nearly every day. On Monday, I might be helping a couple work through the break-up of their family in a respectful and child-centered way. On Tuesday, I might get to talk about the future with a young person who has been charged with a crime and watch that person begin to understand what it is going to take to turn his/her life around. Other days can include heartbreak for the people who come to court and for me, as well. Whether the day includes joy, despair, or perhaps a little of both, every moment that I have worked for this community has left me humbled by the responsibility my neighbors have vested in me. I hope I can continue to earn your trust and confidence.If I am retained, I will continue to work hard to manage the heavy caseload Palmer judges are assigned here in "the biggest little courthouse in Alaska." I will focus on insuring that every person who comes to my courtroom feels that I have listened and tried my best to make the right decisions about their lives, their family, and the Mat-Su Valley. | Callilqa cuqistengulua Palmer-am qanercitaarviani caliaksunaakenqurraaqaqa caliamni. ## Statement:

Since coming to Alaska in 2001, I have felt lucky to get to live and work in this amazing state. My work as an attorney in this state has exposed me to a variety of civil and criminal matters. While at the Anchorage District Attorney's Office, I prosecuted cases in the misdemeanor, drug, and violent crimes units, before supervising the misdemeanor unit. Following that work, I practiced in civil litigation, defending parties in matters that ranged from personal injury to contract to intellectual property cases. This background in both criminal and civil litigation provided excellent preparation for my work as a district court judge, where I have regularly presided over cases in both arenas.

It has truly been an honor to be allowed to serve my community as a district court judge during the last three years. I have been repeatedly
