Other:

Alyse Galvin is a mom, a lifelong Alaskan, a community leader, and has been a fighter for people across Alaska throughout her career. She is a former small business owner and managed a large hotel. Alyse spent the last four years as a leader of Great Alaska Schools. In Congress, Alyse will put partisan politics aside and be an independent voice fighting for all Alaskans. Alyse will work for bipartisan solutions to our toughest problems and fight for Alaska's interests.

Alyse and her husband Pat are the proud parents of four amazing kids raised and educated in Alaska. Like any parent, she wants to make sure that Alaska is a place with the jobs, educational opportunities, and vibrant communities that will allow her children - and every child -- to live, work and raise families right here in Alaska.

Position Statement:

Alyse knows firsthand that Alaskans are struggling to find jobs with wages that keep up with rising costs. Alyse will work to revitalize the Alaskan economy and create the jobs of the future, championing legislation helping small businesses thrive, encouraging innovation and technology, establishing statewide high-speed broadband, investing in roads and ports for international trade, and reducing energy costs.

Everyone deserves healthcare. Our healthcare system is failing patients, led us into a recession and stands in the way of economic growth. Alyse will work to ensure every Alaskan has the healthcare they need, fighting to lower prescription costs, promoting stability and lower costs for coverage. Alyse will protect women's access to reproductive health care.

The strength of our economy begins with a strong education. Alyse has extensive experience improving educational opportunities to support children's school success from cradle to career. Alyse will fight for policies that bring our young people the skills to thrive in the future.

Alyse believes Congress must protect Social Security and Medicare, benefits seniors have paid for, earned and been promised after a lifetime of hard work. Alyse will be a champion for seniors and reach across party lines to allow Medicare to negotiate lower prices for prescriptions.

Alaska is facing a violent crime epidemic and substance abuse crisis that's left no family or community untouched. Alyse will address this emergency head-on, adding more law enforcement, treating opioid addiction as a public health crisis, improving access to drug treatment, and ensuring that every Alaskan feels safe.
