Position Statement:

It's been an honor to represent much of Chugiak-Eagle River/JBER in the State House for eight years. I'd like to keep working to serve all of our community, as your state Senator.

I'm a lifelong Republican and conservative, believing in limited government, strong national defense, individual liberty, and a loving God. I'm pro-business, pro-family, pro-gun and pro-life. Our family has deep roots in Chugiak-Eagle River, and works to make it a better home for everyone.

As your legislator I've focused on developing Alaska's resources for a strong economy and family-wage jobs -- supporting military families and bases -- cutting government spending -- and giving vulnerable Alaskans the chance for better lives. I'm proud to have passed many bills advancing these goals.

Our state faces tough challenges: high crime rates, big government spending, stubborn deficits, reduced oil production, and threats to our natural resources and their responsible use. But finger-pointing won't solve our problems. It's critical for Chugiak-Eagle River to have an accomplished, effective Senator who shares your values, and who can work productively with others to solve our problems.

I'm proud to have delivered results in the Legislature: helping cut $1.18 billion in state spending as Finance vice-chair; strengthening crime laws while supporting full repeal of SB 91; voting consistently for full PFDs and state spending cuts; passing legislation to improve Alaskans' lives; and carrying the conservative torch in public debate.

I respectfully ask for your vote, and the chance to continue serving you and our entire community. Thank you!
