Position Statement:

I grew up homesteading in Alaska, raised on the belief that hard work yields results, to use resources wisely, and not to be wasteful. That lifestyle made me the “CAN DO” person I am today. I am grateful to Alaska for the opportunities given to me. All Alaskans should have the same opportunity for prosperity. This is what drives me to represent Alaska. As a business person, it’s easy to recognize that government has room for improvement. I have served in the legislature, on the school board and am an experienced businesswoman. The state government has struggled with limiting its spending, being soft on crime and grabbing the PFD. Alaska is sinking and accountability to citizens is missing. We must address the root causes of crime with tenacity. Law abiding citizens must be a top priority. The footprint of government is large and your privacy is not being protected as it should. Our constitution protects our shared resource for “we the people”, not the government, but in Juneau, the attitude is different. Election irregularities are ongoing and never resolved. Why not? Alaska is struggling to sustain our wild fish and game as well. As your Lieutenant Governor, I will commit to; Making you a priority, not the government, Protecting your liberty, finding solutions for crime, cleaning up our elections process, restraining spending, protecting your PFD, rejecting taxes, and stopping the insanity that has become “politics first” mentality in Juneau.

I will represent Alaska by being fair, honest and committed.
