Position Statement:

I am running for House District 10 because I have simply HAD ENOUGH of fat cat politics and backroom deals including our elections. I'm pretty sure a lot of people are sharing that frustration. It's time for ordinary people to represent Alaskans. The legislature has been stuck for too long because of the influence of special interests and their various power brokers and yes they are in both parties. We need to break that hold and we have start to somewhere. It's about us as Alaskans. It's about our children and our grandchildren and the kind of community, state, and planet we leave them. Not interested in partisan politics, I aim to advance real discussions about what can be done to expand local economic opportunities, strong resilient communities, get special interests out of Juneau, and protect OUR interests. I want to move to ranked choice voting so we can experience a real choice. We are in this together - we are the solution we have been waiting for.

With years of unions and community building, I have a broad field of knowledge and skills including service on the Police, Tax, and Planning Commissions. I remain involved with many groups, including Elks, Lions, IBEW,. I am a lifelong advocate of workers' rights and accountability in leadership -- I will continue to be an advocate for workers and accountability. I will be an advocate for the changes Alaskans need, including a narrowly defined Conflict of Interest for legislators.

ENOUGH!!!! VOTE!!
