

FOR AN ACT ENTITLED:

An Act to define criminal penalties for public officials who regulate or legislate competitive advantages for, or direct appropriations to favored persons and fail to recuse themselves when defined conflicts of interest exist.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Alaska: Public officials who regulate or legislate competitive advantages for, or direct appropriations to themselves; business partners; clients; immediate family; past, present; or sought-after employers or contributors; donors to independent expenditures supporting their election; and persons profiting from inducing public officials to violate this statute, commit a class A felony.
