Heather is committed to public service, and has listened to constituent's concerns regarding education, crime, the economy, and homelessness. She is ready to serve as a legislator and is determined to stand strong in prioritizing Alaskan's needs first.

Position Statement

My passion is to serve Alaskans, and my commitment is to protect our Alaskan way of life!

I was born and raised in Alaska, served my country as an Army Combat Medic, and now I have the opportunity to continue public service as a legislator.

I will protect Alaska's people, our right to responsibly develop resources and land, and pave a path for a bright economic future.

Alaska's People

- I will prioritize the needs of Alaskans first!
- Champion public safety and advocate for adequate training/resources for police officers and first responders.
- Advocate for legislation and policy that effectively combats crime.
- Defend the second amendment and Alaskan's ability to protect their family and property.

Alaska's Right to Responsibly Develop Resources

- I will work toward removing unnecessary regulations that impede resource, business, and land development.
- Partner with legislators to find solutions to ensure that our State is a viable option for investors.
- Advocate for subsistence as a priority.

Alaska's Future

- I will advocate for an education system that prepares our children for college and career opportunities.
- Work with and listen to small business owners to lessen regulations that are needless and burdensome.
- Champion fiscal responsibility in the State budget, protect the PFD, and oppose an income tax.
