Other (Biographical Information):

As a lifelong Alaskan, I've personally witnessed the neglect our land and people often face from both federal and state governments. This has fueled a passion within me to advocate for greater liberty for all Alaskans. It's crucial that we hold our elected officials accountable and strive for a future where Alaskans have more autonomy over their lives and land. This is why I am dedicated to fighting for a free market, education free of bureaucratic insanity, safeguarding the rights of every Alaskan, and preserving Alaskan culture.

Position Statement

As a candidate running to represent District 5, I want to make clear some issues we face and stances I hold that I believe you will find important.

I am a supporter of a full PFD and will fight to ensure the continued theft of Alaskans' money comes to an end.

I am a supporter of the free market and, therefore, support our fishing, mining, oil, and tourism industries.

I believe taxes, fees, and licensing have been and continue to be used as tools by the government to harm small businesses and the many Alaskans who depend on them.

Less than one percent of land in Alaska is privately owned. The federal government must be held accountable. I want Alaskan land in the hands of Alaskans, not the state and not the federal government.

I want to be the representative for District 5 because we need someone willing to fight for what matters to District 5, and I know I can be that person. With your support and vote, we can bring more liberty to the lives of Alaskans and reduce government bureaucracy.
