Position Statement:
I am a fifth generation Alaskan and lifelong conservative, because I believe the core principles of conservatism are best equipped to solve our societal problems. Capitalism and entrepreneurship bring people out of poverty better than government does.

I have fought for those principles and recognized the need to work with Alaskans and state leaders of different political affiliations to find solutions that best serve the interests of our neighbors. We worked together to repeal SB91 - the catch and release crime bill, and will always advocate for laws that protect victims, not criminals.

I will continue to fight for a responsible spending cap that limits government growth to a sustainable level and focus public dollars on our constitutional obligations.

As a mother it has been a priority for me to provide the best education we can to our most important resource, our children, which is why I championed innovative legislation to increase broadband internet access to students across the state. This allows for different ways to deliver education, including distance and virtual programs from the best teachers across our state.

I did not run for office so I could tell my constituents what I want to do in District 22. I listened to the issues that were important to our community and followed through on my commitments to our neighbors. I strive to make sure everything I do in Juneau improves the overall, long-term positions of Alaskans, and gives future generations every opportunity to succeed.
