Position Statement:
Hi, I’m Laddie Shaw. I’ve lived in Alaska for the last 39 years – and I’ve spent most of it outdoors, enjoying all Alaska offers.
In the Navy SEALs, they teach how to work as a team and how to achieve objectives. That’s what I bring to Juneau:

- Married 29 years
- 24 years in uniform, most as a US Navy Seal
- Two tours of service in Vietnam
- Over 20 years state experience improving public safety and helping veterans
- A lifetime of standing up for our values
- Two years as your State Representative

Here’s what I stand for:

• Safe, crime-free neighborhoods. When I ran two years ago, I said that public safety was my highest priority – and pledged to vote to repeal Senate Bill 91. I kept my promise – and SB 91 is history. We all need to feel safe in our homes, neighborhoods, and places of business. I will make sure criminals are put in jail and kept there.

• A strong Alaskan economy. Alaskans deserve a strong, growing economy. I will continue to work hard to make that a reality for all Alaskans.

• Smaller, sustainable government. Government should live within its means before taking money out of the pockets of hard-working Alaskans.

• Keeping our promises to Alaska’s veterans and seniors. I believe that all veterans and seniors should receive the benefits and care promised to them.
