Position Statement:
As your U.S. Senator, I’ve had the honor of working with Alaskans to help us realize our enormous potential – potential that has too often been thwarted by the federal government.

Thanks to your support, and Congress and the Executive Branch working together, we’ve advanced critical priorities for Alaska. We’ve brought jobs and new energy production to the North Slope, and finally opened ANWR. We wrestled back Alaska’s rights to manage fish and game. We’re improving infrastructure like clean water projects, roads, and ports.

We’ve secured historic funding for public safety, helped people struggling with addiction, and empowered survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault with more resources.

We’ve made great strides in improving healthcare for veterans and Alaska families. We enhanced the rights and opportunities for Alaska Native communities. We passed the most significant ocean clean-up legislation in Senate history and increased opportunities for Alaska fishermen. We’re building icebreakers and rebuilding our military, with over $1.6 billion in new investments for our state. America is safer because of this.
We’ve made significant progress, but we’re facing new challenges with the COVID-19 pandemic. The strength of our economic recovery and future will depend dramatically on this election. My vision for Alaska is one of opportunities for all, where the federal government is a partner in opportunity, not an obstacle. Together, we can build on our successes and continue working towards a brighter future for our kids. I’m convinced our best days are ahead of us. I’d be honored by your vote.
