Candidates, Primaries, and Ranked Choice Voting - AS 15.58.020(13)

Each candidate may designate the political party or political group that the candidate is registered as affiliated with. A candidate's political party or political group designation on a ballot does not imply that the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party or political group or that the party or group approves of or associates with that candidate.

In each race, you may vote for any candidate listed. If a primary election was held for a state office, United States senator, or United States representative, the four candidates who received the most votes for the office in the primary election advanced to the general election. However, if one of the four candidates who received the most votes for an office at the primary election died, withdrew, resigned, was disqualified, or was certified as incapacitated 64 days or more before the general election, the candidate who received the fifth most votes for the office advanced to the general election.

At the general election, each candidate will be selected through a ranked-choice voting process and the candidate with the greatest number of votes will be elected. For a general election, you must rank the candidates in the numerical order of your preference, ranking as many candidates as you wish. Your second, third, and subsequent ranked choices will be counted only if the candidate you ranked first does not receive enough votes to continue on to the next round of counting, so ranking a second, third, or subsequent choice will not hurt your first-choice candidate. Your ballot will be counted regardless of whether you choose to rank one, two, or more candidates for each office, but it will not be counted if you assign the same ranking to more than one candidate for the same office.

Your vote only counts once, even if you rank a candidate more than once. When a candidate is eliminated in a round, they are eliminated from all future rounds.

RANKED CHOICE VOTING

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Round One:

The Division counts all first choices. If a candidate gets 50% + 1 vote in round one, that candidate wins and the counting stops. If not, counting goes to Round Two.

Round Two (and beyond):

The candidate with the fewest votes gets eliminated. If you voted for that candidate, your vote goes to your next choice and you still have a say in who wins.

If your first choice candidate was not eliminated, your vote stays with them. Votes are counted again.

This keeps happening in rounds until two candidates are left and the one with the most votes wins.

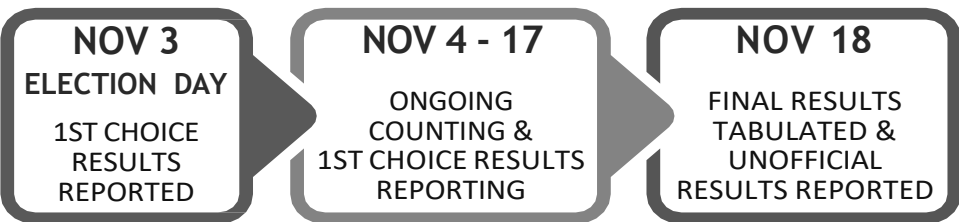

What happens if I only vote for one candidate?

Your vote is counted in round one and your vote stays with your candidate throughout tabulation.

GENERAL ELECTION COUNTING SCHEDULE

How will I know when and why my candidates were eliminated?

Results reports showing how many votes each candidate had in every round and how votes were transferred when candidates were eliminated will be available on the Division's website, in addition to a summary report showing the final votes tallied for the winning candidate.

Please visit www.elections.alaska.gov/rcv.php for more detailed information, sample ballots, explainer videos, and translated information.

Alaska's Ballot Counting System

Your Vote is Secure!

Alaska uses three different methods to count ballots:

- ◆ Hand-count
- ◆ Precinct Scanner
- ◆ Voting Tablet

Alaska's ballot tabulation system has a paper trail of every ballot cast. Each precinct receives paper ballots that are either hand-counted when the polls close or are scanned during the day as the voter inserts the ballot into the precinct scanner and the results are tabulated after the polls close. In addition, during federal elections, each precinct has a voting tablet which has a voter-verifiable paper trail.

The ballot tabulation system used in Alaska to produce and count ballots is federally certified and thoroughly tested prior to each election. It is a stand-alone system that is not connected to the internet or a network during the hours of voting.

Each precinct scanner and voting tablet, and their corresponding memory device are tested prior to the election. Two different logic and accuracy tests are performed, by two separate bi-partisan boards (the State Review Board and the Regional Counting Board) to ensure the devices are counting correctly. In addition to testing the ballot counting accuracy, before each election functionality tests are conducted on each piece of equipment to ensure each is in proper working order.

Prior to certification of the election, state law requires the State Review Board to conduct a hand count verification of random precincts that utilize precinct scanners. The randomly selected precinct must account for at least 5% of the total votes cast in each of the 40 house districts. If there is a discrepancy of more than 1% in the hand-count verification, a hand-count of all the ballots cast in the district is mandated. From implementation in 1998 to date, there has never been a discrepancy of 1% or greater.

While not required by law, the division has chosen to have the State Review Board also conduct a hand count verification on randomly selected house districts for the early voted ballots, absentee ballots, and questioned ballots with representation from each of the five regional offices.

After the State Review Board completes their audit, the election is certified and results are official. The process is intentionally slow and methodical so that accuracy is obtained. Additionally, because certain ballots can be counted on the 15th day after the general election, certification cannot be done before then.

The Alaska Division of Elections is dedicated to the security and accuracy of our election process. The Division recognizes that any election system is susceptible to fraud if security measures are not in place. Alaska has extensive procedures, including multiple layers of security that includes a combination of people, processes, and technologies that help us conduct secure, trustworthy, and accurate elections.

General Election Day is Tuesday, November 3, 2026

Polling Places

The polls are open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. To look up your polling place visit (myvoterportal.alaska.gov or www.elections.alaska.gov/poll-locator) or call 1-866-952-8683.

You MUST be prepared to show one form of identification. You may use the following ID:

- Voter ID Card
- Current and valid photo ID Card
- Birth Certificate
- Driver's License
- Passport
- Hunting or Fishing License
- State ID Card
- Military ID Card

Alternatively, you may use an original copy of one of the following documents if it contains your name and current address:

What Happens if Your Name is not on Register

If your name does not appear on the precinct register or if you do not have identification, you will be required to vote a questioned ballot. Your voted ballot will be placed in a secrecy sleeve and then sealed inside a completed questioned ballot envelope. The information you provide on the outside of the questioned ballot envelope will be used to determine your voting eligibility and to update your voter registration. If for any reason your questioned ballot is not fully counted, you will be notified in writing.

Marking the Ballot

When voting the ballot, completely fill in the oval next to the candidate or issue you wish to vote for. Fill in the oval like this:

You only have to mark the races or issues you choose to vote for. If you mark more than one choice in a race or issue, that section of the ballot will NOT be counted. The sections of the ballot that are properly marked will be counted.

If you make a mistake marking your ballot, DO NOT erase or correct the ballot. You may return the spoiled ballot to an election worker and request a new ballot. If you attempt to correct a mistake on the ballot, the corrected vote may not be counted. Note: You may only receive a replacement for a spoiled ballot 3 times.

Campaigning Prohibited

Campaigning is not allowed within 200 feet of any entrance to a polling place during the hours the polls are open. This includes any discussions about candidates or issues appearing on the ballot or displaying campaign items such as, but not limited to, hats, shirts, signs, bumper stickers or buttons. (AS 15.15.170)

Voter Assistance and Concerns

Assistance While Voting

If you need language or other assistance during the voting process, you may have a person of your choice help you. That person may not be a candidate in the election, your employer, an agent of your employer or an agent of your union. You can have help during each step of the voting process, including inside the voting booth with reading or marking the ballot. Election workers at the polling place are available to help you as well. This is your right under federal law.

Language Assistance

Under Section 203 of the Voting Rights Act, the Division of Elections provides language assistance to voters with limited English proficiency who are fluent in Alaska Native languages or Tagalog. On Election Day, bilingual election workers may be available at polling places to assist voters with the voting process, including explaining voting procedures and translating ballot materials as needed.

In communities covered by the Toyukak Settlement, bilingual outreach workers may be available prior to Election Day. These workers provide announcements, share election information within their communities, and assist voters with election-related activities such as voter registration, absentee voting, and understanding the information contained in this pamphlet.

If you need the name of the individual providing language assistance in your community, please contact the Division of Elections. Any voter may access language assistance by calling toll-free 1-866-954-8683.

Voting Tablet

On Election Day, each polling place has a voting tablet. The voting tablet is intended for the blind, disabled, and for voters who do not read well. It allows voters to vote unassisted using magnified, high contrast and audio ballots. In designated areas where there are limited English proficient voters, the voting tablet also has an audio translation of the ballot in Alaska Native Languages and Tagalog for applicable regions. Voting an audio ballot may take 15 – 20 minutes. If you need to vote using the voting tablet device, let the election board know.

Visually Impaired Voters

In addition to the voting tablet at each polling place, magnifying ballot viewers are available at all polling places and absentee voting sites. Audio recording of this pamphlet is available from the Alaska State Library, Talking Book Center, located in Juneau and on the Division of Elections website. Call the library at (907) 465-1315 for information.

Hearing Impaired Voters

For questions, you may contact the Division of Elections through our TTY telecommunications device by calling (907) 465-3020.

SPECIAL INTERESTS:
As a lifelong Alaskan, I spend the summer with my family putting up fish on the Kuskokwim River and at fish camp on Steamboat Slough.

STATEMENT:
As a lifelong Alaskan, a fisherman, and a military mom, I’m running for U.S. Senate because I’ve seen firsthand how DC is failing us.

Growing up, Alaska was a place of abundance. Now, we have scarcity. From Juneau to Utqiagvik, our state is struggling — prices are rising, fish runs are declining, schools are closing, roads and infrastructure are crumbling — and no one in DC is doing anything about it. I’m running to change that.

I’m in this fight to fix the rigged system in DC, lower gas, grocery, healthcare, and housing costs for hardworking Alaskans, restore our fisheries, and put Alaska first.

My only agenda in the Senate will be serving Alaskans. That means fighting for fish, family, and freedom.

Fish: restore our fisheries, ban factory trawling, and reduce bycatch.

Family: I’m fighting for an Alaska where young people can afford to stay and build a life. I will cut taxes, lower costs, and raise wages for hardworking families. I’ll push to lower housing, childcare, and energy costs, reverse harmful healthcare cuts, and fight to fund programs and infrastructure Alaskans depend on like the Marine Highway System, the Railbelt energy grid, public radio, and education.

Freedom: I will always protect Alaskans’ individual freedoms, including the right to privacy and the right to bear arms.

I will be an independent voice for Alaska — listening to Alaskans, not DC insiders. Together, we can restore abundance and deliver real relief for hardworking Alaskans.

STATEMENT:
As your U.S. Senator, I’ve had the honor of working with you for Alaska’s priorities. My vision for Alaska is one of opportunity for all, with more jobs, more money in your pockets, less taxes on hardworking Alaskans, safer communities and a stronger nation.

We’ve unleashed Alaskan energy production from NPR-A, ANWR, to Cook Inlet, and made historic progress on the Alaska LNG project to lower costs for Alaskans and create good paying jobs.

We’ve passed historic legislation to clean up our oceans, strengthen salmon runs, reduce bycatch, and ban the importation of Russian and Chinese trawl-caught fish, strengthening coastal communities and fisheries.
We’ve passed historic tax cuts for working families, small businesses, and our seniors.

We’ve delivered the largest military and Coast Guard build up in Alaska’s history, including a $7 billion recapitalization of JBER, four icebreakers homeported in Alaska, and reopening the Navy base at Adak —creating thousands of jobs. From the Ports of Nome and Anchorage, Barrow Sea Wall, and a historic broadband build out, we’ve undertaken billions in infrastructure investments to lower costs and create jobs.

We’ve secured the largest federal investment in Alaska’s healthcare system at $1.4 billion to lower costs.

We’re making Alaskans safer by securing the border, stopping the deadly flow of fentanyl, expanding free legal services to survivors of domestic violence, and investing in aviation safety.

More work lies ahead. Together we will build on this historic progress.

I’d be honored by your vote.

OTHER:

I grew up in a large, hardworking family that taught me the values of service, responsibility, and putting people before politics. I've spent my adult life working both blue-collar and professional jobs, raising a family, serving my community, and building a home in Alaska. As a teacher, forester, cancer survivor, and longtime Alaskan, I understand the challenges families face because I've lived them. I'm running for the U.S. Senate because Alaska deserves a senator who listens, shows up, and puts Alaska first every single day.

STATEMENT:

I am running for the U.S. Senate because Alaska deserves a senator who puts Alaska first. I grew up in a large family where hard work, personal responsibility, and service to others were a way of life, not political slogans. I have worked in logging, construction, forestry, and other blue-collar professions. Those experiences taught me the value of real work and gave me a firsthand understanding of the challenges facing Alaska's families, workers, and communities.

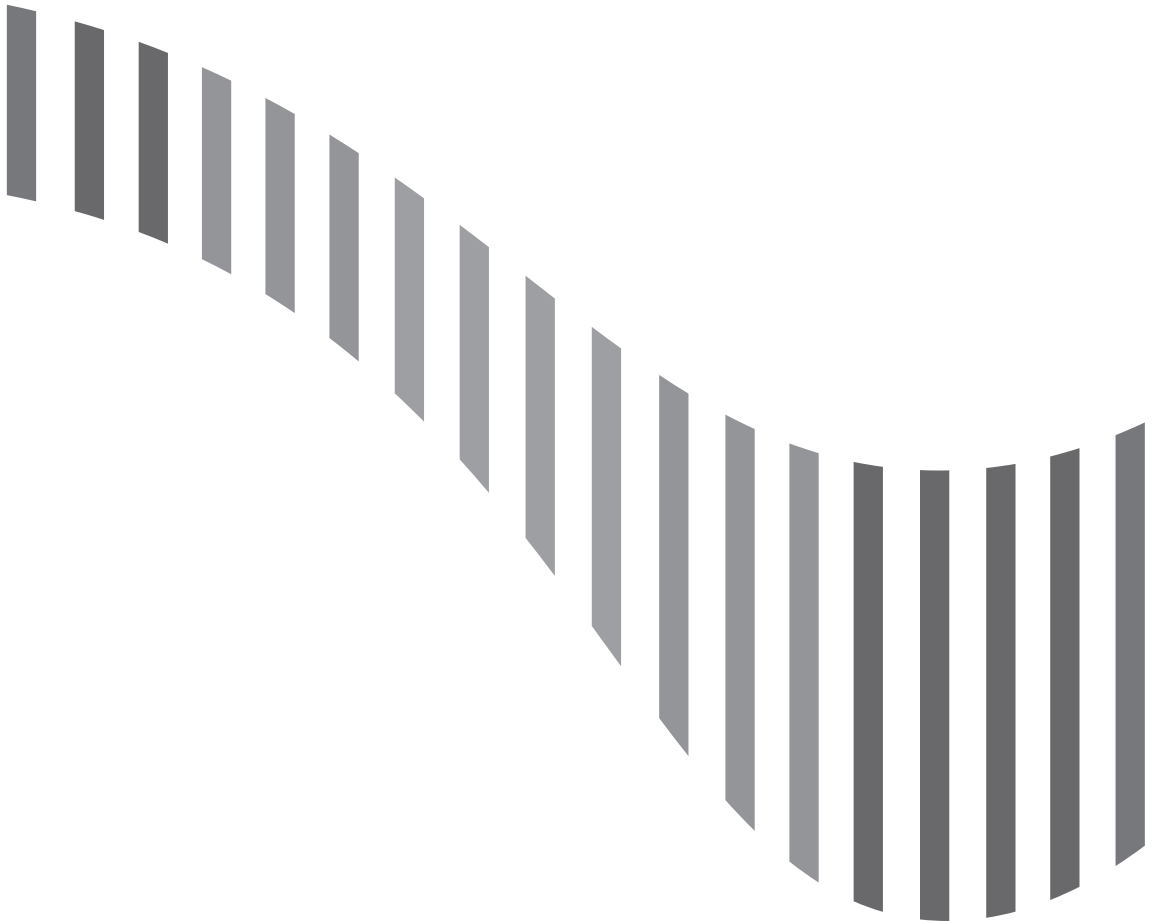

After building my life in Petersburg, working for the U.S. Forest Service, and later serving as an elementary school teacher, I became increasingly concerned that our sitting U.S. Senator has lost touch with the people he was elected to represent. Alaska needs independent, accountable leaders who seek out their constituents, listen, respond, and put the interests of Alaskans first.

Every qualified citizen should have the opportunity to seek public office. Our democracy is strongest when voters have choices and when elections are decided by the people, not parties or government officials. I will not stand by while professional politicians try to rig the system by intimidating regular guys like me from running for office by bullying us off the ballot. If elected, I will stand for fair elections, equal access to the ballot, and the right of every eligible American to participate in our democracy.

The future of Alaska belongs to its people. As your senator, I will work every day to earn your trust and fight for Alaska's future.

STATEMENT:

Nick Begich went to Washington to fight for Alaska, not to become part of the failed system. In Congress, Nick is focused on unlocking Alaska's resources, lowering costs for working families, creating Alaska jobs, protecting our communities, and making sure Alaskans have the freedom to chart our own course.

In his first term in Congress, Nick Begich helped pass major tax relief for working Alaskans, including no taxes on tips, no taxes on overtime, historic tax relief for seniors, and permanent relief for small businesses.

Nick also helped secure the most significant federal resource wins for Alaska in a generation. Through the Working Families Tax Cuts Act, Congress reopened major opportunities for responsible energy development in the National Petroleum Reserve-Alaska, Coastal Plains, Cook Inlet, and other resource areas critical to Alaska's future.

Nick also secured a stronger long-term deal for Alaska by increasing the state's share of certain federal resource revenues from 50 percent to 70 percent. This means more of Alaska's resource wealth stays with Alaskans, helping support PFDs, classrooms, roads, public safety, and essential services across the state.

As a businessman, Nick does not believe Alaskans should have to ask D.C. bureaucrats for permission to use the resources beneath our feet. His next fights are clear: advance the Alaska gasline, end the regulatory chokehold for good, and build a generation of high-paying jobs that keeps our kids and grandkids home.

STATEMENT:

America is at a crossroads that has ripped the heart of our country. Never before have we been so polarized spewing hate to fellow Americans. Previously, we have had differences but civility and common goal of "one nation" have prevailed.

My class exposure to "History of WWII" taught me first hand, hearing our veterans tell personal stories of sacrifice and horror, that war is to be avoided at all costs-not only for our valiant soldiers who selflessly gave their lives but for all families that are innocent bystanders of horror.

America has educational opportunities teaching all ages our histories and values. We are recently experiencing an awakening to realities that question what we have accepted as historical fact. Supporting EducationForAll brings truth out of the shadows. Be it reasons for why we have gone to war, why our Indigenous peoples are denied rights, why women should have the right to appropriate medical choices, what books we read, Black History, etc, continuing access to Higher EducationForAll is vital. We need EVERY talented American and teachers to bring our country forward.

Alaska is at the forefront for our environment crisis now manifesting its wrath on the Lower48-our universities and Indigenous communities have led awareness-our resources like ANWR are precious, not for short term exploitation.

Together we must unite in our goal, bringing communities together in problem solving, finding viable solutions for the good of all, not immediate greed.

Your vote will determine our direction.

STATEMENT:
Today, too many Alaskans feel abandoned by their government.

Families are getting crushed by rising costs. Crime is too high in our communities. Schools are failing our children. Businesses are fighting through red tape and high energy prices while young Alaskans leave the state looking for opportunity somewhere else. Government grows larger every year while delivering less.

As Governor, I will change course and put Alaska back on offense.

I will unleash aggressive resource development, expand access to land and housing, lower energy costs, build infrastructure, and create an economy where workers, tradesmen, miners, fishermen, small businesses, and families thrive again.

I will cut bureaucracy, restore accountability, back law enforcement, defend constitutional rights, strengthen election integrity, and rebuild trust in government. Alaska needs leadership that makes decisions, solves problems, and delivers results instead of excuses.

As a retired Air Force Lieutenant Colonel, commercial pilot, and former Mayor of Anchorage, I have spent my life leading in high pressure environments where failure carries real consequences. I understand responsibility, mission focus, and getting the job done.

Alaska’s best days are ahead of us, but they will not happen by accident. We will build them. We will grow this state again, restore opportunity, and create a stronger future for the next generation.

Governor

Jonathan S. Kreiss-Tomkins “JKT”, Registered Democrat

MAILING ADDRESS: PO Box 2185
Sitka, AK 99835

EMAIL: info@jktforak.com

WEBSITE: jktforak.com

AGE: 37

PLACE OF BIRTH: Sitka, AK

OCCUPATION: Former state representative, business owner

LENGTH OF RESIDENCY IN ALASKA: 37 years

ALASKAN COMMUNITIES LIVED IN:
Sitka (1989-2024), Anchorage (2025-present)

EDUCATION:
Sitka High School, Yale College (left without degree)

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:
Alaska State Representative, 2013-2023

SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS MEMBERSHIPS:
Eagle Scout

OTHER:
My name is Jonathan Kreiss-Tomkins - but most people call me JKT. I'm from Sitka.

When I was 23, Southeast Alaska’s longtime representative voted to give oil companies a massive tax break while our schools and roads crumbled. I dropped out of college, knocked on almost every door across Southeast, and beat that incumbent by 32 votes.

I represented a rural, Trump-voting district for ten years. I earned the support of independents and Republicans by working across the aisle to support our public schools, provide affordable healthcare, protect our fisheries, and lower everyday costs so Alaskans can afford to live in the state we love.

STATEMENT:
Alaska needs change. Prices are rising, schools are closing, and our friends and neighbors - young, old, and in between - don't see a future for themselves here. As governor, I'll work across party lines to get our state back on track.

My top priorities are supporting our schools, protecting our fisheries, and lowering everyday costs.

On education: the current governor has defunded our schools for nearly a decade. Our kids are paying the price, with school closures, massive class sizes, canceled sports and music, and some of our best teachers leaving for the Lower 48. We need to fully fund - and forward-fund - public schools, which are the heart of all of our communities. Also, let's get cell phones out of classrooms.

On fisheries: Alaska needs a “fish first” governor. That means reducing bycatch, making sure Alaskans (and not Lower 48 trawl interests) are calling the shots for our fisheries, and defending salmon habitat by stopping the Pebble Mine.

On lowering costs: let's protect Medicaid expansion and expand telehealth so Alaskans can get high-quality care no matter where we live. Let's cut red tape that gets in the way of building more homes. Let's lower electric bills by making utilities cooperate and building cheap and clean renewable energy. And while we're at it, let's make childcare affordable for working parents by reforming burdensome regulations that make it so difficult to start new childcare businesses and nonprofits.

A better Alaska is worth fighting for. I'd be honored to earn your vote.

OTHER:
I enlisted in the Marines a year before 9/11. Through two deployments, including the invasion of Iraq in 2003, I learned how to put service above self. In 2013, I joined the Alaska State Troopers. Work took me from Dillingham to Arctic Village and dozens of communities in between.

I’ve always cared deeply about public service and working across the aisle to get things done. On the Anchorage Assembly, I’ve focused on public safety, better infrastructure, and accountability in local government. Alaskans thrive through community, compassion, and hard work. It’s time our leaders reflected these same values. That’s why I’m running with JKT.

STATEMENT:
Alaska is at a crossroads. After nearly a decade of dysfunction in Juneau, we need leadership that’s willing to work across the aisle to put Alaska first. Although I’ve never been a member of a political party, I’ve spent my career working with anyone who is serious about serving our country and our state.

During my time on the Anchorage Assembly, I’ve built consensus and worked with colleagues across the political spectrum. As Alaskans, there’s more for us to agree on than to argue over: educating the next generation, protecting public safety, and restoring trust in state government. But we need leaders who value common sense and public service — not scoring political points or fighting culture wars.

As lieutenant governor, my priorities will be lowering everyday costs and standing up for public schools. These aren’t ideological issues: they’re the bedrock of making government work for Alaskan families.

- Let’s get Alaska back on track by:
- Lowering energy costs and making sure Alaskans get a fair share of our state’s oil wealth.
 - Defending Medicaid and ensuring all Alaskans can access high-quality healthcare, no matter where we live.
 - Supporting public schools and getting cell phones out of classrooms.
 - Reducing fisheries bycatch and restoring crashed salmon runs.
 - Investing in ports, ferries, and bridges that power our economy.
 - Creating long-term opportunities and good-paying jobs that help every community in Alaska thrive.

Alaska families deserve better. JKT and I are ready to get to work.

LENGTH OF RESIDENCY IN ALASKA: 27 years

ALASKAN COMMUNITIES LIVED IN:
Anchorage

EDUCATION:
U.S. Air Force Academy (attended)
BYU — B.A., Political Science; J.D.

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:
Attorney General, State of Alaska — 2021–2025
Deputy Attorney General, Civil Division, State of Alaska
— 2018–2021

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS:
Co-Owner, Real Estate Restoration and Developer
Counsel, McKinley Capital Management
Senior Counsel, ASRC Energy Services

OTHER:

Former Attorney General Treg Taylor is running for governor. Raised by a single mother, he learned hard work matters. Treg attended the Air Force Academy, graduated from BYU with degrees in political science and law, and worked nights to put himself through school.

Treg built a career as an attorney and is the third longest-serving Alaska Attorney General in state history. He led criminal prosecutions, defended the Second Amendment, protected parents' rights, fought against Biden overreach, and worked to unleash Alaska's energy and mining resources. Treg and Jodi are business owners and parents of six children.

STATEMENT:

For Treg Taylor, this race is about taking back Alaska's way of life and protecting our values.

Alaskans live here for a reason. Here, we work hard, raise our families, build our lives, and live our own way. But woke radicals, Lower 48 liberals, and D.C. bureaucrats are already trying to change Alaska.

You do not have to guess where Treg stands. As Attorney General, he built a proven record on the issues Alaskans care about. As a prosecutor, Treg helped drive crime to a 40-year low and cut sexual assaults by 25 percent. He helped pass a law increasing the penalty to second-degree murder for drug dealers when the poison they peddle kills. He took on the radical left, held the line against D.C. bureaucratic overreach, defended the Second Amendment, protected parents' rights, and fought to unleash Alaska's energy and mining resources.

As Governor, Treg will protect girls' sports, stop woke indoctrination in schools, and defend Alaskans' constitutional rights. He will take on Juneau to cut waste, balance the budget, protect the PFD, make Alaska affordable again, and partner with President Trump to grow our economy so our kids can stay, work, and build their lives here. He will stand up for Alaska fishermen and families by stopping trawling that damages our environment. Alaska's fish and game should belong to Alaskans first.

Treg is a proven leader who gets results. Help him take back our way of life and build Alaska.

Lieutenant Governor

Candi English, Registered Republican

MAILING ADDRESS: 1120 Huffman Rd
Suite 24-834
Anchorage, AK 99515

EMAIL: info@tregforak.com

WEBSITE: <https://tregforak.com/>

SPOUSE'S NAME: Stanley English

OCCUPATION: Founder and Owner,
Northern Solutions, LLC

LENGTH OF RESIDENCY IN ALASKA: 50 years

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:
Candi has never been a politician.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS:
Founder and Owner, Northern Solutions
North Slope Employee, ARCO Alaska, 20 years

OTHER:

Candi English learned her industry from the ground up: two decades on the North Slope, then building Northern Solutions LLC into Alaska's largest machine shop. Its Alaska-made tools serve oil fields, mines, and well sites around the world. Candi has created good-paying jobs, trained and mentored young Alaskans, and shown them there is a future worth building here. She understands what it takes to meet deadlines, solve problems, make payroll, and take care of the people counting on you. Her leadership is built on grit, accountability, and giving the next generation a real reason to stay, work, and build a life in Alaska.

STATEMENT:

Candi English is not a politician. She is an Alaska business owner, pioneering manufacturer, wife, mother, and grandmother who knows when something is hard, you do not make excuses. You get to work.

Candi came to Alaska during the 1970s pipeline boom, found a job in two days, and never looked back. After 20 years working on the North Slope for ARCO, she founded Northern Solutions in Anchorage. Her company designs and manufactures patented tools for oil, gas, mining, and well operations. They are made in Alaska and used worldwide.

That kind of work teaches you to solve problems, respect people counting on you, and never waste money or time. It is the Alaska way. But too often in Juneau, that way has been replaced by delay, waste, and excuses. That is why Candi is running with Treg Taylor. Treg is a proven conservative who took on Biden and the radical left, defended the Second Amendment and parents' rights, and helped drive crime to a 40-year low. Candi brings the mindset of a builder: fix what is broken, get results, and keep Alaska open for business.

Together, they will protect the PFD, unleash Alaska's energy, lower costs, and build an economy where our kids can stay, work, and build a life. They will protect girls' sports, keep woke nonsense out of schools, defend our freedoms, and stand up for fishermen and families.

Candi and Treg are running to take back Alaska's way of life and protect our values.

PLACE OF BIRTH: Kenai, Alaska

OCCUPATION: Business Owner

LENGTH OF RESIDENCY IN ALASKA: 42 years

ALASKAN COMMUNITIES LIVED IN:
In Kenai and Anchorage

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:
Senior Advisor, Nick Begich for Congress

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS:
Owner, commercial refuse company

SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS MEMBERSHIPS:
Naknek Native Village Council, NRA, Gun Owners of America, Holy Family Cathedral

OTHER:

My membership in the Naknek Native Village Council traces back to my Aleut heritage through my grandmother, who was born in Naknek. My great-uncle Governor Walter Hickel served twice as Alaska's Governor. I come from a long line of family businesses that have served Alaska for 40+ years. I'm proud of those roots. I own a garbage company that I started in Alaska more than 10 years ago. I know the challenges of being a small business owner and the struggles of being a single mother. Those experiences have given me a deep understanding for the challenges facing Alaska. I know them firsthand and I know what it takes to overcome them.

STATEMENT:

What will we do differently this time? That's the question we must ask ourselves when we vote.

From the trees that reach into the skies of the Tongass National Forest, to the fish in the waters of Valdez Harbor and the legendary sockeye runs of Bristol Bay; from the mineral-rich islands of Southeast Alaska to our Arctic Slope; from the abundance of oil across our state to the grit and determination of our people, it's time to harness once again what makes Alaska great.

For decades, Alaska has been stagnant. We're still talking about the same stalled projects and problems with housing, energy costs, and education.

Our PFD has been reduced, education ranks near the bottom, our fisheries are dwindling, housing and energy costs keep rising, and drug and mental health crises continue to impact communities across Alaska.

For decades, we've elected career politicians and bureaucrats. Are you any better off today than you were 10, 20, or 30 years ago?

It's time to bring business experience back to the Governor's Office. I'm a political outsider, a business owner, who understands the struggles being felt across Alaska, because I've lived them. And I know firsthand what it takes to pull through them. Action will replace talk. We will develop, and we will build.

Our statutory Permanent Fund Dividend will be restored, our children will attend the best schools, and Alaska families will once again build their futures here.

This is your comeback story, Alaska! It's time to rise again!

OTHER:
I first visited Alaska in 1977. After Air Force pilot training I had the option to fly F-15C’s in either Germany, or Alaska. I chose Alaska. Once here my wife and I knew we’d found our home. Eventually I was fortunate to fly F-22’s and introduce them to Alaska as the first Raptor squadron commander. We retired in 2010 and moved from Eagle River to the MatSu valley. Our oldest son is a Marine Iraq combat veteran, our younger children live in the MatSu with their spouses and our grandchildren. I have traveled all over the world and no place comes close to Alaska. It’s an honor to serve, and I would be humbled to be your next Lt Gov.

STATEMENT:
Alaska is at a pivotal point in our history. We have an opportunity to embrace prosperity and growth, but we need bold leadership at the helm to pilot our state to success. That’s why I was so honored to join Bernadette Wilson’s Gubernatorial campaign as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

I was known as “Mr. Elections” in the Alaska Senate, where I focused on needed reforms to clean up our system and restore electoral integrity. In Alaska, elections are under the authority of the Lieutenant Governor, a job I would enthusiastically embrace and bring my experience to bear.

Bernadette understands we have a limited window, with an incredibly pro-Alaska president, to set us on a course of unparalleled economic development, self-reliance and self-determination. Between us we bring extensive private sector business, military, government and political experience to the table. I believe our combined team brings an energy, vision and boldness that simply won’t be matched by any other ticket in this race.

In the Bernadette/Mike Shower Administration, action will replace talk. We will develop, and we will build. Our statutory Permanent Fund Dividend will be restored, our children will attend the best schools, and Alaska families will once again build their futures here.

It was an honor to serve our nation in uniform for over two decades, and our state for more than 8 years in the senate. I would consider it a great privilege to serve as your next Lieutenant Governor and ask for your vote.

STATEMENT:
It’s been my honor and privilege to serve as your Senator for the past 23 years. I’m running for re-election to continue working for the people of Southeast Alaska to increase economic opportunity, reduce the costs of energy, promote fiscal discipline, and work for public accountability in government.

Continuing to move the economy forward while creating livable wage job opportunities for our families is of utmost importance.
Let us continue to improve the infrastructure, economy, and quality of life in our communities. We need to reverse the decline of our school enrollment and fund our schools to an adequate level so as not to disadvantage our youth. Together we’ve expanded Alaska’s resource-based economy, continued to level the playing field for rural school funding, improved vocational-education, and invested in public safety infrastructure, housing and health care.

We must work on solving the structural budget deficit while leaving the Permanent Fund intact for future generations of Alaskans.
Leaving the future generations with depleted oil basins and a liquidated Permanent Fund is unconscionable. Let’s leave Alaska in better economic shape than when we received it from past generations.

My great-grandparents moved to Southeast Alaska in 1902. I have a deep respect for our state and its future. Let’s work together to make Alaska prosperous for the next generation. I humbly ask for your vote this November, and hope to work with you to build a better future for Alaska.

STATEMENT:
It has been a pleasure serving you over the past two years. Serving in the Legislature has reinforced my belief that good policy is built through collaboration, hard work, and a commitment to delivering results for Alaskans.

Delivering historic investments in education has been one of my priorities during my first term. Through HB 57 and HB 28, I worked alongside my colleagues to secure meaningful policy reforms and increased funding for our schools. I will continue championing career and technical education to better prepare Alaska's students for the jobs, trades, and industries that will define our future.

HB 75 became my first bill signed into law, modernizing Alaska's Permanent Fund Dividend eligibility statutes and protecting merchant mariners, students, and Alaskans with medical absences.

My legislation, HJR 5, successfully passed the Legislature and urges Congress to fully fund the Secure Rural Schools program, a critical source of federal funding for Southeast Alaska schools and communities.

Advocating for capital investments in our communities remains a priority, including investments in energy projects and school facilities. I am a strong advocate for the harbor matching grants program and will continue advocating for the needs of Alaska's coastal communities.

Protecting Alaska's fishing industry, revitalizing the Alaska Marine Highway System, expanding housing opportunities, advancing shipyard development and workforce training, and responsibly developing Alaska's natural resources remain important priorities for creating good-paying jobs and strengthening our economy.

I remain committed to the hard work necessary to serve you and humbly ask for your support.

OTHER:

Over the past five years I have visited the 21 communities of House District Two several times by boat, jet, small plane, truck, and kayak. I am committed to ensuring that our kids can get an education, get good jobs, and raise their own families here.

STATEMENT:

In my first four years as the State Representative for House District 2, I have focused on issues that are critical to our economy, communities, and way of life - public education, fisheries, ferries, and energy. I have a strong record of working with my colleagues - Democrats, Republicans, and other Independents - to pass legislation that is good for Southeast and all Alaskans. I am a proud rural Alaskan and draw deeply on the grit and collaboration that are hallmarks of life in Southeast's coastal communities.

My greatest privilege has been addressing the needs of public schools statewide with a focus on stable, predictable funding—our best strategy for a vibrant future—as a member of the House Education Committee. Additional personal legislation I have sponsored addressed invasive species, improvements to the delivery of state services, and other topics.

Going forward I will work to support students and seniors, restore a reasonable pension for public employees such as public safety personnel and teachers, and continue to advocate for a strong education system. As a schoolteacher, I worked with students, parents, and colleagues regardless of ideology. That's how I approach elected office. As a non-partisan independent, I listen to all my constituents. I am focused on developing and supporting solutions that work for our region and our state, and to protecting the rights and freedoms guaranteed by our Constitution.

I will work hard for HD2 and would be honored to earn your vote.

I Care. I especially care for the people in our district support sound policy for all Alaskans. My principles are Conservative and I will carry those values through every work in Juneau. I tend to listen intently to those in disagreement and can usually find common ground with those of differing views. In cases where agreement can’t be found, an ability to compete incessantly for that which is principled and for common good prevails. I believe citizens should be well informed on details of subject matter from their politician. i will follow that belief in open honesty with vigor.

In general, the following are important views of mine
you should know:

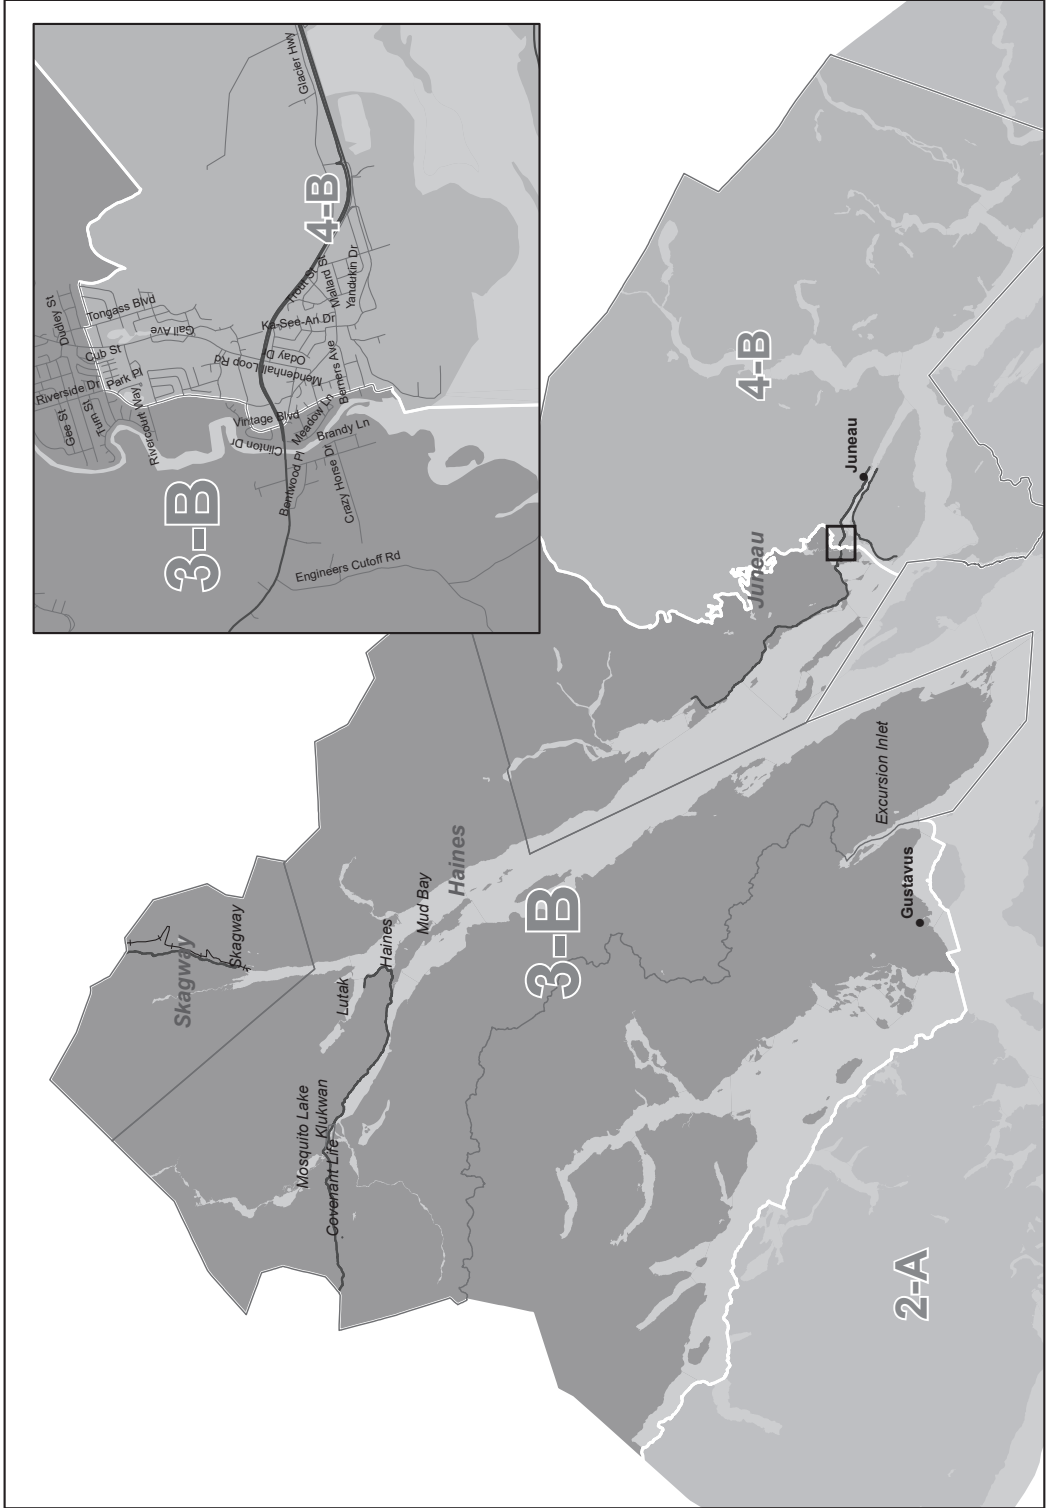

1. The people come first, our environment is precious, our Creator endowed us with rights and governmental roles sit further down the priority list.
2. Government should balance its’ checkbook; we have to.
3. Public education deserves funding and a major reduction in co-mingled social services must be seperated from proper education.
4. As the founders intended, PFD contributions should prioritized distribution directly to qualified Alaskans.
5. Energy development is key to a sound economy.
Natural resources are our future wealth.

STATEMENT:
Alaskans deserve hope for a better future. Every region of our State should have the opportunity to build a strong, thriving economy. We have been bogged down by high energy and transportation costs, overregulation and one-size-fits-all solutions. When Alaskans lose opportunity, vision and hope – they leave.
With over 24 years of experience at the local and State levels of government, I have worked through complex challenges and delivered practical, common-sense solutions. As Administration Commissioner, I helped keep State jobs in Juneau. I worked effectively with state and federal partners to rebuild Haines after the landslide.

This experience is vital to moving beyond where we are today - 49th in the nation in education results, a sluggish Southeast economy and continued outward migration. My commitment to you is to reduce regulatory barriers to entrepreneurship, promote incentives for childcare and support solutions to reduce housing costs.
Every family understands a simple truth: expenses cannot continue to grow without the income to support them. Alaska was founded on the promise of developing our abundant resources, and we must continue to do so responsibly to fund the priorities Alaskans care about, from Permanent Fund Dividends to education, public safety, and infrastructure.

Like many others, Ken and I came to Alaska for our cabin in the woods - we found that Alaska is so much more. I have the drive and desire to make Alaska once again, the Land of Opportunity.

STATEMENT:
Thank you for the honor of serving you.

We are living with the stress of high inflation, the threat of reoccurring, natural disasters and a sense of uncertainty in many areas of life.

All Alaskans want safe, healthy, prosperous communities with good jobs, quality schools, affordable housing, energy, and health care that will attract families and our young people to stay and continue to build.

Finding real solutions to these complicated issues requires experience, cooperation, and commitment. I have a strong record of bringing that.

We are making progress. During my terms, we’ve grown our Permanent Fund from $64 billion to $92 billion. The Fund’s investment earnings contribute to vital public services and an annual dividend -- without additional taxes. We’ve boosted education as schools face inflation and declining enrollment.
A pension plan is in the works to retain and attract high quality troopers and teachers. Another ferry is ready for service, pending trained crew. Energy relief via a gas pipeline is on the horizon. We’re repairing aging infrastructure. We are working with our federal delegation to address disasters.

Our most valuable resource is people. We must develop that resource, listen to what Alaskans need – childcare, good schools, public safety, jobs with a future, affordable health care – so Alaska will reverse the trend of out-migration. I love living here and want others to be able to do that, too.

There’s more to do. I’ve got the energy and experience to tackle challenges ahead. I’d appreciate your vote.

I grew up in southcentral Alaska, graduated from UAF and have made my home in Juneau since 1986. I am running for my fifth term in the House of Representatives. I know the importance of representing my district, but working for all of Alaska. Our regions may have different issues, but we are a state with tight ties across our economy and our ecosystems. We must work together across the state and political divides.

I will defend the Alaska Constitution and our right to privacy. I will fight for equal treatment of all Alaskans. I will fight for policies that will turn the tide of young people leaving Alaska. Our future depends on all Alaskans having access to quality education for our children. I will fight for policies to support families that have young children as well as senior citizens. I will work to improve access to health care and improve health outcomes. I will work for our economy to support Alaskans who live here year round and support people staying in Alaska. I will defend our natural resources and Juneau remaining the capital.

I spent three decades in education and have been active in the community as a volunteer, working to support families and those less fortunate. My husband and I had a small fish business for over twenty years. I will work hard to represent HD 4 while pursuing policies that help all of Alaska move forward in the 21st century.

STATEMENT:
I’m Carrie Harris. I’ve been an Alaskan since 1999, living in Anchorage and Juneau before moving to Homer in 2014 and Anchor Point in 2015. I’m running because Alaskans deserve true representation. Too many people talk about the state as if it’s something separate from us, but we are the state. The government we set up should reflect the will of the people. When 74% of Alaskans say they want trawl gear removed from our waters and nothing happens, that’s not just a policy disagreement. That’s a system consciously putting itself above the people, and if allowed to continue, it will never represent us. My priorities are straightforward: remove trawl gear from state waters, protect the PFD by putting the formula into the Constitution, cut wasteful spending, and move the capital to the road system. Crucially, I will fiercely defend Alaskans’ fundamental right to privacy. Your personal data, movements, and private information belong to you, not the government. I will fight to ban warrantless biometric surveillance, halt intrusive data collection, and block continuous digital tracking of law-abiding citizens. I’m running to represent the people of my Senate district and the State of Alaska. I’m running so the people remember exactly who the government works for.

I Love Alaska. I love my family. I love that my family is Alaskan. I am awed by the beauty of this great state and feel blessed to call it home. But I’ve seen a slow drift and decline that makes the future less certain for my kids and grandkids. I am committed to working with you and other elected officials to resolve long standing challenges, restore trust in government’s effectiveness, and deliver real stability that fuels the next generation’s dreams.

STATEMENT:
I am running for State Senate because I believe Alaska’s best days can still be ahead of us--but only if we are honest about what isn’t working and willing to try a different approach. For too long, we have seen the same arguments, the same gridlock, and the same short-term thinking from many of the same people. Those failed approaches have left families, businesses, and communities without the stability they need to plan for the future. It is time for new people to step up and tackle these issues with fresh energy and a commitment to results, not election-year promises.

I will work to restore trust in government’s outcomes through transparency, responsible budgeting, and clear priorities. That means focusing on a fiscal plan that instills confidence in how our essential services are provided, while protecting the Permanent Fund and the Dividend. We cannot keep kicking hard decisions down the road, or relying on international conflicts and temporary windfalls, to fund Alaskans’ important needs and call that leadership.

I believe in an Alaska where our kids and grandkids can build their lives here at home, where small businesses can grow, and where our natural resources are managed wisely to provide lasting opportunity. I will work constructively with others in Juneau who are serious about solving problems and delivering meaningful results to Alaskans. My promise: be accessible, listen, and make decisions that reflect my commitment to our future.

STATEMENT:
It has been my honor to serve in the Alaska State House and represent coastal fishing communities for the past 12 years.

During my time in office, I’ve been an effective advocate for my district by working across the aisle, being proactive putting the needs of those I represent above political considerations.

I remain passionate about representing my constituents and implementing common-sense solutions for Alaskans, including a sustainable, balanced fiscal plan that ensures robust essential services, consistent PFDs, and infrastructure investment regardless of the price of oil.

Aside from a fiscal plan, my top priorities are constituent responsiveness (I work for you!), restoring ferry service to coastal communities, fisheries management funding and fisheries policy reform, increased education funding and education policy reform, strong public safety, good road maintenance, an adequate capital budget, and a better retirement system for our public employees.

I am running for election to be your State Senator that my experience, relationships across the political

OTHER:
I was born and raised in Kodiak, Alaska, and I am proud to come from a third-generation commercial fishing family. Growing up in Alaska’s fisheries taught me the value of hard work and the importance of protecting the industries that support our way of life.

I am also a private pilot, and through flying Alaska’s coastlines and remote villages, I have gained a unique perspective on the opportunities and challenges facing our district. Whether on the water or in the air, I have seen firsthand how much our way of life depends on reliable transportation, strong schools, and dependable infrastructure.

Alaska isn’t just where I’m from, it is who I am. I am running to be a strong voice for District 5 and will always put the people of Kodiak, Cordova, Seward, and our villages first.

STATEMENT:
District 5 deserves a representative who puts our communities first. I am running to protect our fisheries, strengthen our ferry system, support quality education, improve healthcare access, and ensure we have a representative who is accountable to the people they serve.

FISHERIES
Alaska’s fisheries are the lifeblood of our economy, culture, and way of life. I will advocate for science-based management and a transparent Board of Fisheries process that protects fish stocks while sustaining fishing families and coastal Alaska.

ALASKA MARINE HIGHWAY
The Alaska Marine Highway is essential to life in coastal Alaska. I will fight for stable funding, reliable service, and long-term planning while supporting investments in ports, airstrips, rural roads, and broadband that keep people, commerce, and opportunity moving.

EDUCATION
Our schools must be fully funded, our teachers paid competitively, and parents given a voice in their child’s education. Our children deserve access to a quality education that prepares them for success.

HEALTHCARE
I will support efforts to recruit and retain healthcare professionals, strengthen rural healthcare access, and ensure families can receive care close to home.

FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY
I support a responsible budget that prioritizes essential services, reins in unnecessary spending, and ensures Alaska receives a fair return from its natural resources.

DISTRICT FIRST
I am committed to representing the people of District 5, not political parties or outside interests. I will always put the needs of you first and answer only to the people who live and work here.

I'm a 5th generation Alaskan, living and working in the district. My Mom's side of the family is from Cordova, and my husband's family goes back 70 years in Kodiak. I would be honored to represent our district and work with leaders across Alaska to move us forward.

STATEMENT:
Growing up in a commercial fishing family in Cordova and spending three decades teaching in Kodiak has given me a deep appreciation for the people who live here. This is a true working-class district, made up of people that I've spent my career working alongside. I care deeply about our community, and I am running because I believe our district deserves steady, practical representation from someone who understands the lives of the people who live here.

As an educator, I know how important it is to invest in students, support educators, and make sure every child has access to a quality education. I will also fight for the basic infrastructure our communities depend on, including stronger ports and harbors, reliable ferries, safe roads, water and sewer improvements, affordable housing development and reliable energy.

I believe in listening first, working hard, and bringing people together to solve problems. In the legislature, I will work across the aisle, stay focused on the needs of this district, and advocate for our communities in a way that delivers real results for working families and Alaska's coastal communities.

that fit our family best.
My employment has been in setnetting, land surveying, truck driving and operating equipment.

STATEMENT:
I support increased funding for education, as demonstrated by my sponsorship of KPB Assembly Resolution 2025-19, which increased school funding to “the cap.” Working with colleagues is a strength, as seen by Resolution 2025-19 passing by an 8-1 vote. I might add, in 2025 the Mayor and Assembly cut the general fund mill rate from 4.3 mills to 3.85 mills.

Alaska king salmon stocks are weak. Cook Inlet east side setnetters have been closed four years, while king salmon sportfishing has suffered tremendously. Scientists blame warming oceans. How long will it take to cool the ocean?
King salmon stocks need help sooner and so do fishers. I believe there are ways to allow setnetters to harvest sockeye without impacting king salmon. Alaska should participate in the battle against global warming, and on the short term we should demand reduction in the trawl fleet by-catch. Wasting over 20,000 king salmon annually is unacceptable. The same is true of the trawler’s impact on halibut, crab and ocean floor environments.
Clams have also declined precipitously on the Ninilchik-Clam Gulch beaches. I’d like to see razor clams transplanted from the west side.

The Permanent Fund dividend formula should be presented to the people in a public opinion vote. Options from a “statutory formula,” (with a corresponding impact on taxes) to a dividend of $1,000 should be presented. Including ways to adjust for inflation. Personally, I believe the Permanent Fund principle should grow faster than inflation.

Ballot Measure No. 2 - 24ESEG

An Act Restoring Political Party Primaries, Ending Ranked-Choice General Elections, and Repealing Recent Campaign Finance Laws

A party will choose who may run and vote in its primary. In the primary a voter may vote only one party’s ballot. The person who gets the most votes in a party primary is the party’s nominee. The party nominees will move on to the general election. Other candidates may petition to be on the general election ballot. Reenacts unconstitutional law that a candidate must register as a member of a political party to run in that party’s primary. Reenacts unconstitutional laws requiring a separate ballot for each political party.

The Act changes the process used to fill vacancies in office. The Act ends special primaries. A party will use a petition to nominate its candidate for a special election to fill a vacancy. Other candidates may petition to be on the ballot. The Act adds a special runoff to some races. The Act sets the timeframes for special elections and special runoff elections. The governor will call a special runoff if no candidate in a special election for congress gets more than half the votes. A ballot measure may appear on a special runoff ballot. When the governor appoints a person to fill a vacancy in the state legislature, the governor will appoint a member of the same party, if any, that nominated the predecessor.

The Act changes the ballot for general elections. The ballot will show a candidate’s party designation, if any. Write-in candidates for governor and lieutenant governor will be members of the same party or group. The Act changes voting in general elections. The Act ends ranked-choice voting. A voter will vote for one candidate for each office; the candidate with the most votes wins.

The Act will change the definition of “political party”. Members of the governor’s party and members of the party that received the second most votes in the last election for governor will serve on some state boards. The Governor must appoint two members of the Alaska Public Offices Commission from lists made by these parties. A candidate may appoint a poll watcher if the candidate does not represent a party.

Ballot Measure No. 2 - 24ESEG

An Act Restoring Political Party Primaries, Ending Ranked-Choice General Elections, and Repealing Recent Campaign Finance Laws

STATEMENT IN SUPPORT

Voting Yes on Ballot Measure 2 restores Alaska's elections to how they were before 2020:

1. End Ranked Choice Voting
2. Bring Back Open Primaries
3. Restore Pre-2020 Campaign Disclosure Laws

(1) Yes on 2 Ends Ranked Choice Voting

- Dark Money: Out-of-state dark money groups have spent tens of millions of dollars trying to sell Alaskans on ranked choice voting.
- Banned in 19 States: Dark money billionaires from the lower 48 are losing the fight for ranked choice voting all over the country. They hope that, if they spend enough dark money here, Alaskans will keep their failed system.
- Complicated Ballots: Ranked choice ballots are a complicated mess. Ending ranked choice voting will return to simple, One Person, One Vote elections.
- Trashed Ballots: Thousands of ballots don't count every year. Ending ranked choice voting will ensure that election results represent the will of all voters, not just the ones who properly fill out an overly-complex ballot.
- Manipulated Results: Due to low turnout, trashed ballots, and incorrectly filled out ballots, the results of every election are not representative of Alaskans. This harms Alaskans, but helps candidates supported by the out-of-state dark money.
- High Risk: Ranked choice voting has created many documented cases of election irregularities. Worse, it is impossible to verify those questionable results by human hand count - instead we have to just trust a computer algorithm.
- Waiting Weeks for Results: Results already take forever to collect from across Alaska. Ranked choice voting makes that problem even worse by delaying results for weeks.

(2) Yes on 2 Brings Back Open Primaries

- Bring Back Open Primaries: Yes on 2 will not close Alaska's primaries. That's a lie. Our primaries will return to the pre-2020 system that was open to 100% of Alaskans - including those who are not members of any party.
- Alaska's History of Open Primaries: A nonpartisan study by the Bipartisan Policy Center rated Alaska's elections before the 2020 Jungle Primary system as "Open." That's because they were Open to 100% of Alaskan voters. A Yes vote on 2 restores that same Open Primary system.
- Dark Money Lies: The same out-of-state money falsely claiming that Yes on 2 will close Alaska's primaries actually funded the nonpartisan study that rated our elections as "Open." So, they know better. They must just think Alaskans are dumb.
- End the Jungle Primary: Yes on 2 will end the complicated jungle primary system that resulted in 17 candidates for governor this year and 48 candidates for Congress in 2022.

(3) Yes on 2 Restores Pre-2020 Campaign Disclosure Laws

- Dark Money is Still Flowing: The same out-of-state billionaires claiming that a Yes on 2 will cause dark money to flow into Alaska have spent tens of millions of dollars in dark money to protect ranked choice voting.
- Defeat Ranked Choice Dark Money: Yes on 2 will defeat the largest source of dark money Alaska has ever seen - the tens of millions of dollars spent to support ranked choice voting.

Ballot Measure No. 2 - 24ESEG

An Act Restoring Political Party Primaries, Ending Ranked-Choice General Elections, and Repealing Recent Campaign Finance Laws

STATEMENT IN OPPOSITION

Measure 2 would flood Alaska with untraceable campaign cash, take away our freedom to vote for any candidate we choose, and allow politicians to win without a majority of the vote.

To stop Dark Money and to stop political insiders from taking away your right to vote for who you want, VOTE NO.

Alaska's election system has three parts that together make us unique from any other state in the country:

- Dark Money disclosure laws give us the right to know who is spending in our elections and require outside spenders to publicly disclose the true source of their funding.
- Open primaries ensure political parties do not control our primary elections and that every Alaskan has the right to vote for whichever candidates we want.
- Ranked choice voting ensures that the winning candidate must earn the support of a majority of the voters.

Ballot Measure 2 would get rid of all three parts.

Why are the sponsors of this initiative ONLY talking about repealing ranked choice voting, with no mention of the flood of anonymous campaign cash coming our way if it passes?

Because they are trying to hide what this measure is really about:

- Ballot Measure 2 gets rid of campaign finance transparency requirements and allows secret, undisclosed spending in Alaska's elections.
- Ballot Measure 2 also gives political party bosses the right to deny unaffiliated voters the ability to vote in primary elections. 60%+ of Alaskan voters are unaffiliated.

Voting No protects voter freedom:

- Voting No says NO to Outside Billionaires buying our elections with no accountability.
- Voting No affirms that Alaskans have the right to know who is spending in our elections.
- Voting No protects every Alaskans' freedom to vote in every election.

A few questions to consider before you vote:

- Do you think we should have LESS transparency in our elections?
- Do you think names of those spending money in Alaska's elections should be kept SECRET?
- Do you think we should give more power and influence to political party insiders and their outside billionaire donors?
- Do you think we should allow political parties to ban 60%+ of Alaskans from voting in primary elections just because they prefer not to join a party?

If your answers to any of these questions is NO, you should vote NO on Ballot Measure 2.

This is the third time in six years that Alaskans are being asked to vote on our election system. Special interest groups and political party insiders are demanding we waste more time and money on this costly repeat ballot measure so that they can take power away from the voters and back for themselves.

This issue is not Democrats vs. Republicans. It is Alaskans vs. Outside Billionaires and political insiders. Vote No on Measure 2 to stop Dark Money and protect Alaskans' independence.

Alaska law requires that someone must be a United States citizen and meet other requirements to vote. This act would specify that only those who are United States citizens and meet the other requirements may vote. This act would not change the requirements to vote.

Should this initiative become law?

☐ Yes ☐ No

Legislative Affairs Agency Summary

Alaska statute has four requirements a person must meet before they can vote. First, the person must be a citizen of the United States. Second, the person must be at least 18 years of age or older. Third, the person must be a resident of Alaska and the applicable state house district for 30 days before the election. And fourth, the person must have registered to vote in Alaska and cannot be registered to vote in another jurisdiction. This Act would reword that statute so that it says only a person who meets all four requirements may vote. This Act would not change the requirements or qualifications to vote.

Ballot Measure No. 3 - 25USCV

An Act Addressing Voter Qualification

STATEMENT IN SUPPORT

By Sponsors John Coghill, Mike Chenault, and Josh Revak

What is Ballot Measure 25USCV?

Ballot Measure 25USCV is a citizens' initiative that would add clarity to Alaska law by stating that only United States citizens may be qualified voters in Alaska elections.

Current law says citizens may vote, but it does not specifically state that only citizens may vote. This measure closes that gap and makes Alaska law unmistakably clear.

It does not change who is a U.S. citizen or affect federal immigration law. It clarifies Alaska election law so it reflects what most voters already understand: when Alaskans cast ballots for local, state, or federal offices, they are participating in a uniquely American act of self-government reserved for citizens.

What will Ballot Measure 25USCV do?

If approved, this measure will write into law that voter qualification in Alaska is limited to U.S. citizens, while keeping existing protections against discrimination on the basis of race, gender, religion, or disability.

The initiative does not change registration procedures for eligible citizens. It clarifies that non-citizens, even if lawfully present, may not register or vote in state or local elections.

Ballot Measure 25USCV also helps ensure that Alaska's election system remains straightforward and easier to run. Clear standards reduce confusion at the Division of Elections, the DMV, and other agencies that help register voters, and they make it less likely that ineligible individuals will be accidentally added to the rolls.

What will voting YES on Ballot Measure 25USCV do?

A YES vote will affirm that Alaskans want to keep voting a core right and responsibility of citizenship. Around the country, a growing number of cities have begun allowing certain non-citizens to vote in local elections, creating confusion and controversy about who should participate in choosing community leaders and passing laws. By passing 25USCV, Alaska will make clear that it is not going down that path.

Voting YES will also give clearer guidance to election officials and potential voters. When the rule is simple — you must be a U.S. citizen to vote — people are less likely to make honest mistakes, and the state is better able to maintain accurate voter lists.

Vote YES to Protect the Integrity of Alaska's Elections

Alaskans are proud of a tradition of civic participation, close-knit communities, and competitive elections decided by small margins. Public confidence that every legal vote counts — and that only legal votes count — is essential.

Ballot Measure 25USCV strengthens that confidence by confirming in law that Alaska elections are for U.S. citizens, while leaving intact all of the ways eligible Alaskans can register and vote.

This initiative also honors the path of legal immigration and citizenship. It supports immigrants who work hard to become U.S. citizens and then fully earn the right to vote.

Judges on the Ballot

Guide to Alaska Judicial Council Evaluations and Recommendations

Why are judges on the ballot?

The Alaska Constitution and state law require state court judges to appear on the ballot for approval or disapproval by the voters (referred to as “judicial retention elections”). Judicial retention elections are non-partisan. Judges are not allowed to campaign unless someone actively opposes their bid to stay in office. This power and duty of the people to vote on judicial retention is a critical part of Alaska’s judicial system.

How can I learn about judges on the ballot?

To give voters information about judges’ performance, state law requires the Judicial Council to evaluate each judge on the ballot, to make this information available to voters, and authorizes the Judicial Council to provide a recommendation regarding retention or rejection. The Judicial Council publishes a summary of each judge’s performance information and its recommendation in this Election Pamphlet and posts the judges’ complete performance reports on its website.

How did the Alaska Judicial Council evaluate the judges on the ballot?

The Judicial Council collected and analyzed information from different sources and viewpoints for a full picture of each judge’s performance. The Council:

- Surveyed court users familiar with each judge’s work (attorneys, peace officers, court employees, social service professionals, and jurors);
- Collected and considered input from the public;
- Analyzed how often a trial judge’s decisions were affirmed by a higher court, financial and conflict of interest disclosures, public ethics files, how often the judge was disqualified from a case, and whether a judge’s pay was withheld for any untimely decisions;
- Reviewed the judge’s educational activities, community involvement, and work to improve the administration of justice;
- Conducted other investigation as needed.

The Judicial Council then used this information to determine whether the judges met performance standards in the following areas:

- Integrity
- Legal ability
- Temperament
- Impartiality & fairness
- Diligence and administrative skills

If a judge met performance standards, the Council recommended they be retained in office.

What information is included in this booklet?

Each judge’s page contains a summary of their evaluation results, a finding whether they met performance standards, and the Council’s recommendation whether they should be retained in office.

The chart on each judge’s page is a sample of the survey ratings the judge received on their overall performance.

The performance findings section of each judge’s page gives the average of all user groups’ survey ratings on overall performance. Averages of 4.0 or higher are considered excellent, and averages of 3.0 to 3.9 are considered good.

Judges on the Ballot

Guide to Alaska Judicial Council Evaluations and Recommendations

Who serves on the Alaska Judicial Council?

Members of the Judicial Council are citizen volunteers who live in different areas of Alaska. The Alaska Constitution sets the Judicial Council membership:

- » Three non-attorneys who are appointed by the governor and confirmed by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint session;
- » Three attorneys who are elected by their peers in an advisory ballot and then appointed by the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association (an entity created and authorized by the Alaska Legislature); and
- » The Chief Justice of the Alaska Supreme Court, who serves as chair. (The Chief Justice votes only when needed to break a tie.)

The Constitution requires all appointments to the Council be made with “due consideration to area representation and without regard to political affiliation.”

Members serve staggered, six-year terms. They receive no financial compensation for their work other than reimbursement for travel expenses.

See each judge’s complete survey results and full performance report at www.ajc.state.ak.us

How are judges chosen in Alaska?

Under the Alaska Constitution, the selection of judges is a two-part process involving the Alaska Judicial Council and the governor.

The Alaska Judicial Council is a non-partisan citizens’ commission. The members of the Judicial Council review applications of people who want to be judges and nominate the most qualified among them. The governor then appoints a judge from the Judicial Council’s list. This system is called “merit selection.”

Merit selection was chosen by the framers of Alaska’s constitution, after considerable study and debate, as the best way to select and appoint the most qualified judges and to minimize the role of partisan politics in the judiciary.

I later practiced as an Assistant Attorney General and in private practice before my appointment to the superior court. It has been a privilege to serve Southeast Alaska in this role.

STATEMENT:

Most Alaskans come into the courtroom only a few times in their lives, often for jury service. Being a litigant or a witness can be overwhelming and intimidating: court procedures are formal and often technical and bear little resemblance to daily life.

My goal, as a judge, is to ensure that everyone who comes into the courtroom understands why they are in the courtroom and how the hearing will unfold, feels as comfortable as possible, and leaves feeling like I have listened to and understood their concerns. In addition, I strive to ensure litigants understand why and how I arrived at my decision. When people understand the reasons for a decision and believe that the judge has truly heard them and taken their concerns into consideration, they are more confident in the judicial process and more comfortable accepting the decision, whether or not it is in their favor. It is also imperative the judge be aware not only of the circumstances of a particular case, but also of the stress people face when they participate in a courtroom proceeding.

The cases that I hear are serious, with the chance that people’s lives will be greatly affected by the outcome. I do everything I can to reach the right decision in every case I hear. It is a privilege to do this work, and I am grateful to the communities of Southeast Alaska for trusting me with these important decisions.

Alaska Judicial Council Evaluation

Judge Kelly Lawson, Kenai Superior Court

The Alaska Judicial Council finds Judge Kelly Lawson did NOT meet performance standards and recommends a “NO” vote on her retention. In consideration of retention of Judge Lawson, the Alaska Judicial Council voted 6 Do Not Retain.

Judge Kelly Lawson was appointed to the Kenai Superior Court in 2023. Judge Lawson is a trial court judge who handles civil and criminal cases. This is Judge Lawson’s first judicial retention election.

Why does the Alaska Judicial Council recommend a “No” vote on Judge Kelly Lawson?

The Council found that Judge Lawson did not meet performance standards related to judicial temperament and integrity.

Judges must be judicial both in the courtroom and in their conduct off the bench. The Alaska Judicial Council concludes that, while performing acceptably on the bench, Judge Lawson has lacked patience, dignity, and courtesy in her communications with court employees, creating friction between Judge Lawson, court staff, and other judges to a degree that has impeded the efficient administration of justice.

Administrators and staff at the Alaska Court System, an independent constitutional body, have worked with Judge Lawson to improve the situation, but those efforts had been largely unsuccessful at the time of the Council’s evaluation.

The Judicial Council’s conclusion is based on information provided by court employees, records maintained by the Alaska Court System, and an interview with Judge Lawson.

What were other evaluation findings on Judge Lawson?

The Judicial Council surveyed attorneys, court employees, peace officers, and jurors. Survey ratings on Judge Lawson’s overall performance were in the good range (3.97) when averaged across all groups.

The Judicial Council also reviewed Judge Lawson’s financial and conflict of interest disclosure statements, whether her pay was withheld for untimely decisions, how often her decisions were affirmed by higher courts, disqualifications from cases, and public ethics files. The Council found no matters of concern in these areas. She met educational requirements set by the Alaska Supreme Court.

Judge Lawson sits on the Henu Community Wellness Court, a tribal-state therapeutic court. She participated in a 2024 conference to support the re-entry of women being released from prison, and she participated in training for Indian Child Welfare Act cases and therapeutic courts.

Superior Court Judge

Christina Rankin, Third Judicial District

SPECIAL INTERESTS:
Camping, kayaking, knitting, reading, traveling

STATEMENT:
It has been an honor to serve on the Anchorage Superior Court since I was appointed in 2023. Prior to that, I practiced civil litigation in Anchorage for nearly 20 years, but it was a law clerk position in Bethel which first brought me to Alaska.

A civil superior court judge's caseload is very diverse, but frequently involves helping people through some of the worst days of their lives. It is a privilege to facilitate access to justice for Alaskans as they navigate the difficulties of divorces, custody disagreements, domestic violence, child protective matters, contract disputes, and other situations where they seek assistance from the court system. Before each hearing, I work hard to prepare by reviewing all pleadings provided by all the parties and researching relevant areas of the law. At each hearing, I listen carefully and respectfully to all parties, making sure all sides are equally heard, and seeking clarification when necessary. At the conclusion of a hearing, I strive to balance taking the time needed to make a thorough, impartial, and lawful decision with the swift resolution of the issues desired by the litigants.

Serving as a trial judge is an honor that I do not take lightly, and I humbly welcome the opportunity to continue this challenging and rewarding work. I promise to continue to faithfully serve the people of Alaska to the best of my abilities.

STATEMENT:
I have been a resident of Dillingham for over 20 years, the entirety of which I have spent in public service. Before becoming a judge, I traveled throughout Bristol Bay while doing non-profit work for Alaska Legal Services Corporation, which provided me with an in-depth understanding of the communities I serve.

As a trial court judge, I have the challenging and weighty responsibility of making decisions that affect people’s lives. Many people come to court in response to a negative, sometimes traumatic incident. My hope is that every person affected by a case will walk away with an understanding of the legal process, why certain decisions were made, and how to move forward from the event that brought them to court. Above all, I strive to look critically at the cases before me and fairly apply the law to the facts presented. Not every litigant will agree with every decision I make, but I listen to all sides with an open mind and explain the reasoning behind my decisions to ensure each litigant understands my rulings and knows how to proceed forward. I believe that every person involved in a case, and the public in general, deserves that time, thoughtfulness and respect.

Being a judge has been one of the most challenging yet rewarding experiences of my life. I hope to continue to serve our State and its people by being retained as Dillingham’s Superior Court Judge.

Alaska Judicial Council Evaluation

Judge Martin Fallon, Kenai District Court

The Alaska Judicial Council finds Judge Martin Fallon did NOT meet performance standards and recommends a “NO” vote on his retention. In consideration of retention of Judge Fallon, the Alaska Judicial Council voted 5 Do Not Retain and 1 Abstain.

Judge Martin Fallon was appointed to the Kenai District Court in 2019. Judge Fallon is a trial court judge who handles civil and criminal cases. This is Judge Fallon’s second judicial retention election.

Why does the Alaska Judicial Council recommend a “No” vote on Judge Martin Fallon?

The Council found that Judge Fallon did not meet performance standards related to integrity, and diligence and administrative skills.

Judges must dispose of all judicial matters promptly and efficiently. In 2024 the Alaska Supreme Court publicly reprimanded Judge Fallon for allowing two matters to remain undecided for more than six months. The supreme court found he failed to decide these matters in a timely manner, he signed three pay affidavits he should have known were not accurate, and he did so after another judge had brought one overdue matter to his attention. The supreme court concluded that Judge Fallon’s conduct violated standards of ethical conduct for judges.

The next year, in 2025, Judge Fallon’s pay was withheld because he had a matter pending before him longer than six months.

The Judicial Council found significant deficits in Judge Fallon’s organizational and administrative skills and his timeliness, to a degree that has impeded the efficient administration of justice and public confidence in the courts. This conclusion is based on public ethics files, the Order for Public Reprimand from the Alaska Supreme Court, salary records, information from attorneys and court employees, and an interview with Judge Fallon.

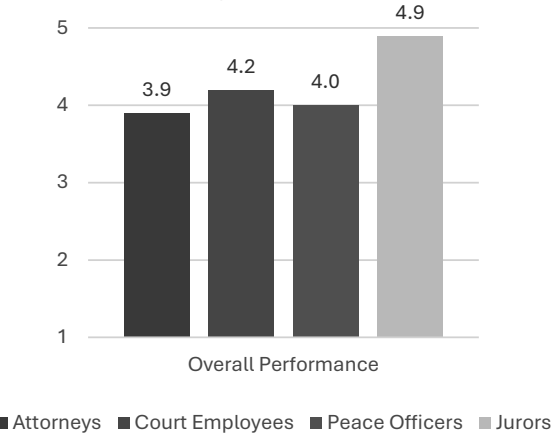

What were other evaluation findings for Judge Fallon?

The Judicial Council surveyed attorneys, court employees, peace officers, and jurors. Survey ratings on Judge Fallon’s overall performance were in the excellent range (4.2) when averaged across all groups.

The Council reviewed Judge Fallon’s financial and conflict of interest disclosure statements, how often his decisions were affirmed by higher courts, and disqualifications from cases. The Council found no matters of concern in these areas. He met educational requirements set by the Alaska Supreme Court.

Judge Fallon serves on a court system committee that plans an annual judicial conference, and he has hosted student tour groups at the Kenai court.

CHOOSE FREEDOM. VOTE REPUBLICAN.

JOBS AND THE ECONOMY

Republicans believe in a strong, diversified economy based on the free market, a solid work ethic, safe work spaces, a well-trained and educated work-force, and access to resources.

NATURAL RESOURCES

We support and defend active management of, access to, and reasonable incentives for the responsible development and utilization of all of Alaska's natural resources, as provided for by the Alaska Constitution.

EDUCATION

Republicans support access to a quality education, parental choice and control, competition, and accountability, all while championing diverse educational and career opportunities for our youth.

HEALTH & FAMILY

Republicans support policies that minimize government intervention in the family. We support parents as those with the primary responsibility for their children's health and welfare.

JUDICIARY, LAW & CRIME

We believe in a judicial system based on originalism, which means judicial interpretation of the US constitution to follow closely the original intentions of those who drafted it.

CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

Republicans believe the proper function of government is to protect the inalienable rights of every American and Alaskan as enumerated in the US and Alaska Constitutions.

ALL OF YOUR FREEDOMS ALL OF THE TIME

For over half a century, the Alaska Libertarian Party's mission has been to offer Alaskan voters a better alternative to the "lesser of two evils" two-party system.

The Libertarian Party is the only nationwide political party that recognizes you are the best person to make decisions about your business, your family, and your life. In practice, this means fielding candidates who advocate for policies that allow Alaskans to keep more of their hard-earned money; promote school choice to empower parents and students; and push for deregulation at the federal, state, and local levels to encourage innovation and entrepreneurship.

By championing these values, the Alaska Libertarian Party aims to build a future where diversity in thought and action is not only tolerated, but celebrated. We believe that when people are free to pursue their passions and interests, the entire state will benefit from the resulting creativity, prosperity, and resilience.

WE STAND FOR

The Full PFD

The statutory PFD formula is the law, not a suggestion. Every year, legislators pass more laws for Alaskans to follow, then ignore the one governing their own dividend. Pay it in full.

Federal Overreach & Election Integrity

No federal mandate without Alaska's consent. Proof-of-citizenship requirements, ballot purges, and FBI involvement in state elections follow one pattern: Washington decides, Alaska obeys. We reject that.

Land & Resource Sovereignty

The federal government owns 61% of Alaska: 222 million acres and federal bureaucrats try to tie up the rest in red tape. Alaska land and resource decisions belong in Alaska.

Surveillance & Police Reform

Unconstitutional domestic surveillance ends here. Flock cameras tracking innocent people, enforcement of victimless crimes—these violate privacy rights. Privacy isn't a privilege police grant; it's yours by birthright.

Self-Defense

Every person has an inherent right to defend life, liberty, and property. That includes keeping and bearing any arms necessary to do so.

Government Accountability

Rules must apply equally to all, including lawmakers. Last session Juneau passed 115 new laws, $900,000 on a special session, while an Anchorage barbershop got cited under a 1980s law for pouring a free drink. Selective enforcement serves power, not justice.

STEWARDSHIP FOR ALASKA, BY ALASKA

Fifty years ago, Alaskans chose to save a portion of the state's resource wealth and invest it for future generations. That vote created the Alaska Permanent Fund.

THE 1976 VOTE
75,588 YES | 38,518 NO
Generations of Value

ALASKA CONSTITUTION ARTICLE IX, SECTION 15 Alaska Permanent Fund

At least twenty-five percent of all mineral lease rentals, royalties, royalty sale proceeds, federal mineral revenue sharing payments and bonuses received by the State shall be placed in a permanent fund, the principal of which shall be used only for those income-producing investments specifically designated by law as eligible for permanent fund investments. All income from the permanent fund shall be deposited in the general fund unless otherwise provided by law.

ALASKANS CAN TAKE PRIDE IN WHAT THEY BUILT

The Alaska Permanent Fund was created to convert a portion of Alaska's finite resource wealth into a lasting financial resource for generations of Alaskans. The initial royalty deposit of $734,000 has grown into a public asset valued at $91.9 billion as of June 30, 2026. The Fund supports dividends, public services, and Alaska's long-term financial future.

BUILT FROM ALASKA'S RESOURCES. INVESTED FOR ALASKA'S FUTURE.

For 50 years, the Fund has fulfilled a simple but powerful purpose: saving, investing, and growing Alaska's resource wealth for the benefit of current and future generations.

$59.4B

Resource revenues from oil, gas, and mining $20.8B, along with inflation proofing and other appropriations $38.6B from the Legislature, are deposited into the constitutionally protected Principal and invested in a globally diversified portfolio designed to generate long-term returns.

$14.6B

Realized investment earnings are deposited into the Earnings Reserve Account, from which they can be legislatively appropriated to provide inflation protection for the Principal and to support the annual Percent of Market Value (POMV) draw. In FY26, the POMV draw of $3.8B accounted for nearly 60% of Alaska's unrestricted general fund revenue, more than twice the share from oil and gas.

$17.9B

Unrealized appreciation in the Principal $14.4B and Earnings Reserve Account $3.5B reflects changes in asset value.

INVESTED GLOBALLY. MANAGED FOR GENERATIONS.

The Alaska Permanent Fund is managed as a globally diversified investment portfolio, invested across eight asset classes in public and private markets and designed to maximize long-term, risk-adjusted returns for current and future generations of Alaskans.

Over the past 50 years, the Fund has evolved with global investment markets, broadening its investment opportunities, strengthening resilience, and improving its ability to preserve and grow Alaska's resource wealth over time.

Through disciplined stewardship and professional investment management, APFC helps convert a portion of Alaska's finite natural resource wealth into lasting financial value for generations.

Over 50 years, $20.8 billion in resource revenue deposits from oil, gas and mining have been transformed through disciplined investing into $119.8 billion in cumulative investment earnings. This demonstrates that the Fund's value has been driven primarily by investment growth—not deposits alone. Since inception, 42.9% of those earnings have benefited current generations through dividends and public services. The remaining 57.1% has stayed invested or been appropriated to the Principal for inflation protection, helping preserve and grow the Fund for future generations of Alaskans.

The choice Alaskans made in 1976 created lasting value that continues to pay dividends for Alaskans and support public services today. In its first 50 years, the Fund has:

- Transformed a portion of Alaska's oil wealth into a permanent financial asset to strengthen Alaska's financial future.
- Grown from its first deposits to more than $91.9 billion through disciplined, long-term stewardship.
- Replaced traditional oil and gas revenues as Alaska's primary source of undesignated general fund revenue through annual draws from the Fund.
- Benefited Alaskans today while preserving value for tomorrow.

ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION

WHY DOES APOC EXIST?

The mission of APOC is to encourage the public's confidence in their elected and appointed public officials by administering and enforcing Alaska's disclosure statutes and publishing financial information about election campaigns, public officials, lobbyists and lobbyist employers.

LAWS ADMINISTERED BY APOC

APOC administers and enforces four disclosure laws; AS 15.13 Campaign Disclosure, AS 24.45 Lobbying, AS 39.50 Public Official Financial Disclosure, and AS 24.60 Legislative Financial Disclosure. These laws require the disclosure of information that enables citizens to trace the influence of private interests on public decision-making. This disclosure helps to limit privileged influence through revealing special interests and exposing conflicts of interest. The laws are designed to develop accountability in government by giving the public access to information to judge the credentials and performance of public officials and candidates for public offices. The disclosure reports filed with APOC are public records.

WHO IS THE COMMISSION?

The two political parties or political groups with the largest number of registered voters at the time of the most recent gubernatorial election each nominate two commission members. The four members nominate a fifth member from applicants from the general public. The governor appoints and the legislature confirms the nominations. Terms are for five years, with a different term expiring each year. The Commission currently consists of two Republican Party members, two Democratic Party members, and one public member.

HOW CAN WE HELP YOU?

This agency is the public's source of information on all aspects of the disclosure laws. We are committed to fulfilling our mission by providing the public with information. Most of the information can be accessed through APOC's website. You can find out who has contributed to a particular ballot group, which political action committees are spending the most, which lobbyists are working for which employers, who is contributing to candidates and how much is being given and spent to influence voters. APOC works with the public and those who file financial reports to make the disclosure process effective, efficient, and transparent.

Visit our website or contact our office for information about how to locate the information required by the laws that APOC administers. This is the public's agency and we welcome the opportunity to make APOC work for you.

Cover Artist Spotlight

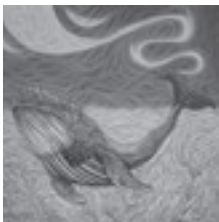

(Amanda Rose Warren)

The featured artist for the Alaska Division of Elections’ Official Election Pamphlet for the 2026 General Election is Anchorage-based artist Amanda Rose Warren.

Her concept, titled “Under One Aurora,” showcases five characters representing different regions of Alaska, all under the same aurora. Warren’s designs are not only specific to the state but also inclusive, reflecting Alaska’s five regions.

She has illustrated a Humpback Whale for Region I (Juneau), a Moose for Region II (Anchorage), a Fox for Region III (Fairbanks), a Musk Ox for Region IV (Nome), and a Bear for Region V (Wasilla). The same aurora connects each design, demonstrating unity among the regions. To commemorate this year’s election, she has incorporated both the American flag and the Alaskan flag into each illustration.

“I am incredibly excited and honored to create the cover art for the Alaska Division of Elections. It’s a meaningful project for the people of Alaska, and it feels especially special as my oldest child will be voting for the first time this year,” Warren stated. “I truly hope that my artwork brings smiles to faces and encourages everyone to get out and vote!”

She was recommended as the cover artist by Amanda McColley, the Fairbanks Region III Supervisor. McColley noted that it has been inspiring to watch her grow as an artist, and she and her staff display several of her art pieces in our Fairbanks office.

“Her art never goes unnoticed. Voters who visit our office often pause to appreciate her work and it frequently sparks warm, positive conversations,” McColley said.

Warren describes herself as a self-taught artist, characterizing her work as “whimsical,” with bold colors and dynamic line work that adds a playful touch to her pieces. Additionally, her artwork will be featured on the Division of Elections’ “I Voted” stickers for the 2026 election.
